BOOZE KILLED WOMEN IN PARK MYSTERY

LABOR INSISTS ON REAL VOICE IN SHOP RULE

Hoover Confers with A.F. of L. on Plan.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—The American Federation of Labor is getting ready to launch an aggressive movement for the "humanization of industry," the first demands being the establishment of coöperative shop management by employers and employés.

When the plan is perfected, labor unions will insist on incorporation in their contracts with employers of provisions for the appointment of committees of employés to coöperate with factory owners in the management of production.

While claiming a voice in shop management, the unions also will renew with greater vigor their demands for the closed shop, which the federation asserts is the prerequisite of successful coöperation.

It was to give his views upon this plan that Herbert Hoover, mentioned as a possible member of the Harding cabinet and perhaps secretary of labor, was invited to confer today with the federation's executive council.

Features of Labor Plan.

The council also proceeded with the evolution of the federation program for the coming year, the salient features of which are:

Repeal of existing laws and opposition to proposed laws requiring compulsory arbitration of industrial disputes.

Opposition to laws restricting the right of workers to quit work when conditions are not satisfactory.

Enactment of legislation restricting immigration from all parts of the world, especially central and southeastern Europe, for four years at least.

A campaign of Americanization, especially in the coal fields and in industries where foreigners are employed, to offset influence of political theorists not in harmony with the present system of government.

An upholding of wage standards as long as the dollar remains at half the purchasing mark of the pre-war dollar.

Hoover Silent on Conference.

Mr. Hoover declined to disclose the details of his conference with Mr. Gompers and his associates. Council members said he approved the movement to humanize industry and the specific plan to establish coöperative shop management.

Asked whether Mr. Hoover had approved the closed shop, one member of the council said Mr. Hoover agreed the plan's success could be assured "only by organization."

A few months ago, Mr. Hoover, in commending the shop council scheme, said it was not necessarily dependent for success on the closed shop and instanced one factory in which it was working satisfactorily. Only a minority of the workers were organized but were represented on the employés committee by union officers.

The invitation to Mr. Hoover to confer with the federation leaders caused some surprise in view of Mr. Gompers' disapproval of the plan for strike prevention evolved by the capital and labor commission over which Mr. Hoover presided.

Gompers Accepts Plan.

Mr. Gompers, however, accepted the committee's shop council recommendations, if indeed he did not inspire them, and some months ago he set about the evolution of a concerted plan to make them effective.

The federation wishes it distinctly understood that it is not aiming at the sovietization of industry. It does not want a voice in the financial control of industry.

JOHN BURROUGHS DEFEATS FORD CHOPPING TREES

New York, Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Henry Ford may know all about cutting prices, but when it comes to trees he still has a few things to learn from John Burroughs, naturalist. The two put on a tree chopping contest yesterday at Napanoch, N. Y. They are on vacation there with Thomas A. Edison and Harvey S. Firestone. Mr. Burroughs won.

This was the second defeat of the day for Ford, who had started off by challenging the naturalist to a tree climbing contest. The latter picked the tree first and chose a shagbark, the only rough barked tree on the place. Ford decided against his climbing idea.

Omaha Mail Car Raid Put at $3,500,000

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—One million dollars is the lowest estimate placed by newspapers today on the looting of the transcontinental fast mail treasure car last Saturday night.

The highest estimate is $3,500,000, the figure given by the Council Bluffs Nonpareil and admitted by L. J. Patterson, Council Bluffs superintendent of mails, to be pretty close to the amount stolen.

The Nonpariel declares that amount of insurance was carried on the ten registered pouches stolen, and adds that the actual theft was probably in excess of the insurance.

Empty Pouch Is Found.

One of the missing pouches has been recovered. It was found in the yard of a public school not far from the scene of the robbery. It had been cleanly slit with a knife and was absolutely empty.

According to the Nonpareil, this sack had contained $800,000 in government bonds being sent from San Francisco to Washington. Other valuable mail was also contained in this same pouch.

Postmaster Hughes of Council Bluffs is said by investigators to have verified the report that the record mail pouch had contained $800,000 in bonds and that the maximum figure of $3,500,000 is about the correct figure.

Postal inspectors tonight doubt the story told by Merle Phillips, the 20 year old postal employé, who has confessed he acted as guard and lookout for the pair he says committed the actual robbery.

Boy Sticks to Story.

Phillips, although grilled constantly since Sunday afternoon, has not wavered even on the minor details. He still insists he does not know the names of the two principals and that he was double crossed and did not receive a penny.

The authorities, however, believe Phillips knows all about the robbery, the names of the two other men, and the spot where the loot is concealed.

Council Bluffs and Omaha are swarming with federal officers. Chief Inspector Glenn of the Iowa district is in charge, inspectors from Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, and a dozen other cities are here.

Deputy United States marshals, Omaha, and Council Bluffs police squads, and private detectives swell the number of men working on the case to almost 100.

4 STAFF OFFICERS SEIZED ON TRAIN BY IRISH RAIDERS

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.]
[Copyright: 1920.]

CORK, Nov. 16.—A kidnaping case recalling in some respects the capture of Brig. Gen. Lucas in June last is reported. When the train from Cork to Skibbereen yesterday stopped at Waterfall four staff officers were made prisoners. One of the officers is known to have been a member of the court martial which dealt with the case of the late lord mayor of Cork, which gives a sinister color to the incident.

It is believed the kidnaped men have been conveyed to a Sinn Fein prison. One of the raiders is said to have remarked: "We must avenge the lord mayor's death."

Reprisal for Double Killing.

CORK, Nov. 16.—[By the Associated Press.]—Armed and uniformed men burned several farmhouses last evening as a reprisal for the killing of two policemen recently from ambush.

Bank Bandits Active.

DUBLIN, Nov. 16.—Three robbers, posing as secret service men, entered a branch bank here today and escaped with all available cash.

MRS. H. P. CRANE GETS DIVORCE, ALSO $100,000

Millionaire Agrees to Terms.

Mrs. Elida Piza Crane yesterday was granted an absolute divorce from Herbert P. Crane, Chicago millionaire. She also was awarded custody of their 2 year old child, Raphael Antonio, and the right to resume her maiden name.

The decree was signed in the Kane county Circuit court at Geneva by Judge Clinton F. Irwin, after attorneys in the case had reached an agreement whereby the separate maintenance suit on trial was withdrawn, a cash settlement of $100,000 paid to Mrs. Crane, and liability for all legal expenses and debts at present unpaid assumed by Crane.

Settlement Is Disappointment.

The settlement was a keen disappointment to the court fans of Geneva. It had been heralded early in the day that a sample of Mr. Crane's skill in love letter writing would be introduced. It also was whispered that some of his philandering adventures would be dragged into the light.

Long before court was opened the corridors were packed. Necks were given a preliminary stretching—in anticipation.

Lawyers and lawyers' clerks began powwowing on all sides. Valentine Crane, son of the principal, started buzzing around from attorney to attorney. Mrs. Crane's counsel flitted from her to her sister—then to her father. Then they conferred some more with the Crane legal battery.

Hunting Trip Reason.

Valentine Crane finally let the cat out of the bag—"Dad wanted to go on a quail hunting expedition and had told his counsel to settle the case as best they can—so he could go a-hunting." Mr. Crane finally turned up. He was dressed in a suit in which black and gray stripes half an inch wide alternated. He retired to the attorneys' conference chambers.

Tell of Agreement.

In a few moments attorneys announced "confidentially and not for publication as yet," that an agreement has been reached by which Mrs. Crane gets an absolute divorce on grounds of desertion and $100,000 in cash, as well as minor concessions and custody of the child.

"All that's to be done is to draw up the decree in the form agreed, substitute it for the separate maintenance bill, and have the court sign it," it was explained.

Then came the first hitch in the person of Andrew R. Sheriff, not an attorney of record in the case, but Mrs. Crane's personal legal adviser. Mr. Sheriff, who had just arrived from Chicago, didn't approve, for he had come prepared to show that Mr. Crane's holdings in the Crane company are worth at least $2,500,000.

Then Comes Hitch.

There were more conferences. Mr. Sheriff went back to Chicago. Before leaving he said he refused to assume responsibility for any settlement.

The decree was finally drawn up. Mrs. Crane took it off in an anteroom for perusal. All of a sudden Attorney Harvey Gunsul, of Mrs. Crane's counsel, came out of the anteroom at a speed that betokened something had happened to the machinery.

He whispered to Valentine Crane. Valentine appeared astonished—then amused. He hurried to his father—and returned in a moment radiating smiles.

Gets Favorite Mare.

"Sure, let her have 'em," he tells Mr. Gunsul.

Then to the reporters he explained.

"There's an old bobtailed bay mare out on the place. It's name is Ginger and she's taken a fancy to it and wants to keep it. Also she wants her bedroom furniture. Dad's glad to give 'em to her.

A few minutes more elapsed. Mrs. Crane appeared. Judge Irwin slid in from his chambers and took his place on the bench. The legal formalities necessary to killing the old maintenance bill and filing the new divorce bill were railroaded out of the way. Mrs. Crane took the stand. There was the usual divorce on grounds of desertion testimony.

The judge announced the decree would be granted.

"It is sad but true," he explains, "that many persons make the marriage contract only to find later that they cannot fulfill its conditions. In such cases I am convinced that it is better for all concerned if separation takes place. In this case there is a child. The mother is given his cus-

MONARCHISTS IN BAVARIA READY FOR "DER TAG"

See Ludendorff's Hand in Munich Coup.

BY GEORGE SELDES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

MUNICH, Nov. 16.—Bavaria faces a revolution.

Everything is ready—men, guns, money, leaders, and general staff—and all that is awaited is the signal.

This time it will not be a left wing revolution, like that of two years ago, but a right wing or monarchist revolution, which will have three objects.

The first object is the formation of an independent state, free from German control.

The second, creation of a regent governorship, replaceable, when the people are ready, by a king.

And, third, a league or treaty with France guaranteeing Bavarian independence and relief from the enormous war burden which the rest of Germany will bear.

The real ruler of Bavaria today is Dr. Escherich, founder of the "orgesch," or Bavarian home militia, whose strength is about 100,000. Dr. Escherich is a plain, honest native and a sincere monarchist, who patriotically organized the militia in order to prevent future uprisings in Germany.

Powerful Backing.

But behind Escherich there is a group of old German staff officers who will remain in the background until success of the monarchist movement is imminent. The chief of these groups is Gen. Ludendorff, who has moved into Bavaria, and is spending his time in watchful waiting.

Gen. Nollet, the French head of the entente disarmament commission, has just sent a note to the Berlin government insisting that Bavaria disarm the Escherich organization. Dr. Escherich refuses. Within a few weeks it is expected that the entente will supplement the note with a threat to occupy the Ruhr basin.

Strike Will Pave the Way.

Fulfillment of this threat, which has been discussed frequently, will be followed by workers, Socialists and Communists, declaring a general strike, which also has been long threatened. According to influential Bavarians, the general strike will be followed by armed conflict between the "orgesch" and the workers, in which the coup de etat long planned could be easily accomplished. Bavaria, having 100,000 troops, will withdraw from the German confederation, and a regency will be established.

Throughout Bavaria the French influence is spreading. The center of French diplomacy is in the French legation here. French diplomatic agents have made great headway in winning the people's favor and every one from Escherich down is willing to trust France's promise of support if independence from Germany can be obtained.

Ludendorff's Opportunity.

So far the plan of confederation has not been formed and there is no movement especially favoring the Hohenzollern family, which never was very popular except in Prussia.

Gen. Ludendorff, although loyal to the Hohenzollerns, is willing to recognize another family on the German throne. The Wittelsbach family has his support for the Bavarian throne, according to Rupprecht's followers, who declare that for international reasons they especially fear American disapproval of the restoration of kings in Europe and that Bavaria will follow Hungary's example. A regent will be chosen.

Who that regent will be also is known. Gen. Ludendorff's political ambitions may be gratified in this way at last.

The Connecting Link.

While Dr. Escherich is a dreamer and idealist, Dr. Kanzler is a practical, hard headed schemer. He is working with general staff officers who come and go daily between "Orgesch" headquarters and Gen. Ludendorff's house.

Yank Manager for Lloyds Involved in £45,000 Plot

LONDON, Nov. 16.—John Leo Berman, American manager for a branch of the Lloyds bank, was charged in police court today with connection with forged bills of acceptance involving £45,000. The officer who arrested Berman said that Berman admitted being implicated. The prisoner was remanded.

SHOPS DEAD IN PARIS; HELP IDLE; PRICES TOO HIGH

[Copyright: 1920.]

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The great shops of Paris are deserted. From morning till night saleswomen sit sewing and knitting, and those salesmen who haven't been dismissed lean against the counters chattering. In one place 20 per cent of the employés have been dismissed.

Almost every day employés seem to outnumber the customers. Every one is waiting till prices fall before they'll buy another article.

The only places which are working full time are a few tailors who have been bold enough to launch out with a great cut in prices. Women's stores are still trying to hold out in hope that Christmas will bring back the shoppers.

ILL 30 YEARS; DIES; EPITAPH: MADE MILLIONS SMILE

New York, Nov. 16.—[Special.]—The most remarkable invalid in the world is dead. He was Charles Noel Douglas, a bedridden cripple for thirty years. Yet pneumonia was the immediate cause of his death at his home in Brooklyn.

Douglas was the author of 700 lyrics, a volume of poems and several other books; he was editor of five magazines with 6,000,000 readers; he wrote about half the skits and parodies you see in vaudeville; he had produced a dozen plays written for amateurs; he received more mail than J. P. Morgan or many other famous men; he did all his work in a bed of pain, and yet he was the most cheerful man in all New York.

Mr. Douglas came to this country in 1888 from England, where he was a moderately successful actor.

Baklanoff Will Leave Ellis Island for Chicago

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—George Baklanoff, Russian operatic singer, detained at Ellis island by the immigration authorities, has been released and will be able to meet his engagement with the Chicago Opera association next week. Baklanoff was paroled to Joseph B. Fleming, attorney for the Chicago Opera association. Mr. Fleming went to New York tonight and will send the opera singer to Chicago tomorrow.

Train Hurls Auto Through Shanty, Riders Escape

A north bound Chicago and Northwestern train struck an automobile at the Lincoln avenue crossing in Highland Park last night, hurling it through the flagman's shanty. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton S. Beach of Ravinia, the occupants, were only slightly injured. They were under the impression the train was on the electric tracks and thought they had ample time to cross.

FAIR SEA AHEAD, AVER PILOTS OF FINANCIAL SHIP

Liquidation Will Be Sane, Bankers Say.

New York, Nov. 16.—[Special.]—The general financial situation, notwithstanding the protracted liquidation of commodities and securities, is fundamentally sound, so far as leading bankers can see.

The liquidation probably will continue, but there is every reason to believe it will be conducted in an orderly manner, without any undue hardships being worked upon the community in general. Further, there are no "sore spots" now visible in the banking situation, and none are anticipated.

Wall Street Leaders There.

This was the consensus of a group of bankers which met this afternoon at the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co. The meeting included ten of the biggest men in Wall street.

Thomas W. Lamont, Thomas Cochran, Dwight W. Morrow, Albert H. Wiggin, James Stillman, Seward Prosser, Charles H. Sabin, George F. Baker Jr., Harvey Gibson, and Gates W. McGarrah were among those attending.

Each banker was asked in turn if he knew of any "sore spots." Invariably the answer was in the negative. All conceded that the liquidation of commodities and securities might continue for a time, and most appeared to believe this inevitable.

Clear Sailing Ahead.

But they were unanimous in the opinion that, whatever further liquidation there might be, the operation would be carried on along orderly lines and with a minimum of disturbance.

Regarding the probable course of money rates, it seemed to be the belief that some ease might be looked for within a relatively short time. How far this movement might be expected to go no one would prophesy.

BANDITS FOILED IN TRAIN HOLDUP SEEK REVENGE

Denver, Col., Nov. 16.—An eastbound Union Pacific train was held up by three bandits east of the city tonight, according to a report received here. The conductor of the train reported that a brakeman drove off the robbers and that "no harm was done," and that he was proceeding to Kansas City.

A Rock Island train running on the same tracks was derailed. Railroad officials said they believed the man opened a switch, derailing the Rock Island train, out of revenge for their failure at robbery of the Union Pacific train.

No attempt was made to rob the Rock Island train, it was said.

BIG BLAZE TRAPS SIXTEEN MINERS IN KENTUCKY PIT

Earlington, Ky., Nov. 17, 1 a. m.—Fire near the opening of the Arnold mine, one-half mile east of here, has entrapped sixteen men.

The entrapped men are three miles back from the entrance and mine officials fear they have been suffocated.

At 12:30 o'clock this morning a tunnel around the fire eaten entry had been completed and rescuers entered the mine in an attempt to get to the entombed men.

Equipped with oxygen tanks and masks, the rescuers braved the smoke and gas and started for the rear of the mine to seek the men.

Most of the entombed men are married. Their wives and children, together with many others, are braving the cold and anxiously awaiting rescue, fearful of the outcome, yet hopeful.

Thinks Visiting Kin Are Robbers; Shoots; One Hit

Joe S. Chmicher has a garage at 1714 West Fourteenth street. His brothers-in-law, William Peters, 3836 Jackson boulevard, and Charles P. Donohue, 3547 Jackson boulevard, came to see him last night. Their coat collars were up, and their hats almost over their eyes. Chmicher says he thought they were holdup men. He shot Peters in the left foot and the right thigh. All three are held by the police, who say the brothers-in-law may have had a grudge against Chmicher.

MEN CONFESS; TELL OF WILD NIGHT IN AUTO

Picked Actresses Up on Street, Drunk.

With the arrest and confession of two of the male companions of Maree Ramey and Lillian Thompson, the actresses who were found dead in a lonely spot on the lake front in Grant park Sunday morning, the mystery of the two women's deaths was solved last night.

The two men under arrest are:

HARRY JORGENSEN, 19 years old, 4828 Magnolia avenue, a floorman at Clark's garage, Lawrence avenue and Broadway. He lives with his mother and sister at the Magnolia street address.

The Confessions Summarized.

The salient features of the confessions and the revelations following them are these:

That the Ramey and Thompson women were not murdered. They died as a result of alcoholic exhaustion and exposure.

That they were intoxicated almost to the point of stupor before engaging in the automobile ride which ended in their death.

That they were taken to the lake front spot at which their bodies were found later at least half an hour before midnight Saturday night, left there by the men, and that after wandering around for possibly several hours they lay down and fell into the sleep from which they never awoke.

That previous to being picked up by Jorgensen and Brumberg Saturday evening they had staggered drunkenly down the street in front of their home, 509 North Dearborn street. It was while they were walking and before they met the men that the Ramey woman lost the hat discovered Monday evening by THE TRIBUNE.

Story of Wild Night.

Here is the story of the affair as given out by Chief of Detectives Hughes early this morning:

James Meeks and Robert McCarthy, stage electricians with whom the women lived at the North Dearborn street address, left them in their apartment at 7:30 p. m. Saturday. The two women later went to the Citti delicatessen shop at 309 West Illinois street, where they had several drinks of wine and left.

Between that time and 10 o'clock they are thought to have drank at least a dozen bottles of "lemon extract" and a pint of moonshine whisky. The empty bottles were found later in the street.

Brumberg drives a truck for a baker at 3819 Broadway. This baker, whose name is said to be Wise, owns a Stevens car. This car was kept in the Riviera garage at Broadway and Lawrence avenue.

Go for Joy Ride

About 9 o'clock Saturday evening Brumberg, with Jorgensen and another man, went to the Riviera garage and got this Stevens car. They went joyriding in it.

They drove south through Lincoln park and turned finally into Clark street. They stopped and had a few drinks and had something to eat.

About 10 o'clock the automobile swung around the corner of Clark street and Grand avenue.

"Look there!" Brumberg exclaimed, and pointed.

Find Women on Street, Drunk.

A woman sagged against the building to the north. She tried to stand and failed. Intoxicated. Drunk.

Brumberg and Jorgensen left the car and walked up to her. In one hand she grasped a bottle wrapped in paper. Even as they looked the bottle dropped and broke on the cement sidewalk. A thin brown fluid dribbled out. Whisky.

"Take me home," the woman said thickly.

"Hey, you!" a woman's raucous voice shouted at them from the opposite side of the street. They looked across.

Another woman stood there, weaving from side to side. Drunk.

Take Them Along in Auto.

They picked the first one up and put her in the car. The other, leaning on the arm of Brumberg, was put inside the car also. Then the party started away.

"Where do you live?" Brumberg

says he repeatedly asked. They were so intoxicated they could not answer. Finally one mumbled: "902 North Dearborn street."

The car swung northward and stopped at the address. They rang the bell—and rang again. At length an upstairs window opened and a head appeared.

"Whaddya want?" said a voice.

"This woman says she lives here—how about it?" Brumberg inquired.

"Nothing doing," the voice replied as the window was slammed down.

Again the car started. "It's 209 North Dearborn," the woman mumbled again. The car swung south.

Revived by Fresh Air.

The number given was the headquarters of engine company No. 13, just north of Lake street. It most certainly was not their home.

The car swung east from Dearborn up Lake street to Michigan boulevard. The women, recovering under the fresh wind, began to sing and shout.

A traffic cop stood on the corner. In order that he might not stop them, Brumberg placed his hand over the mouth of one of the women.

The car went on eastward, across the boulevard and up the wooden viaduct that crosses the Illinois Central tracks at Randolph street. They crossed this viaduct.

Demand to Leave Car.

At the further end, where Uncle Sam's naval recruiting ships are moored, they found a gate leading southward into another roadway and opened it.

They swept out into Grant park.

"I wanna get out—I wanna get out," one of the women mumbled—and kept mumbling. The car kept on.

They passed the Chicago yacht club at the foot of Monroe street and went on some hundred feet or so. By this time the insistence of the women had reached loud voiced demands.

"We're goin' to get out—that's all there is to it!" one shouted, and the car was stopped.

Refuse Further Help.

The two women left it. They were scarcely able to stand. The young men say they pleaded with them to let them be taken to a hotel on South State street where they could "sleep it off." They shook their heads. They were going to stay where they were. And stay they did.

After fifteen minutes of fruitless argument the men left the two women sitting on the unkempt grass in the windswept region.

The men went northward and at the Clark garage, Broadway and Lawrence avenue, they left the car, with permission of the owner. They went home and went to bed and thought no more of their adventure until Monday morning.

Then the papers told them of the supposed double murder in Grant park. They met again.

"My God! They're the women we had out Saturday night. What'll we do?" Brumberg asked.

"Do nothing—we'll just have to lie low until we can fix it up," Jorgensen replied.

But after that they scanned the papers closely and grew more nervous.

A FRIEND IN NEED

Monday afternoon George W. Sheppley, a real estate man, living at 1409 Lawrence avenue, drove his new Auburn car into the Clark garage. He had known Jorgensen for months as the mechanic who had worked on his machine.

Beside Sheppley's car was the mud spattered Stevens the two men had used on their joy riding trip. Jorgensen was looking at it when Sheppley entered. One hub cap was gone and one fender was bent.

"What's the matter?" Sheppley asked. "Been in a jam?"

And Jorgensen, sensing a friend in the tone of the voice, told of his trouble.

"Come home with me tonight and I'll take you down tomorrow and see what we can do," Sheppley replied, according to one of the garage employés.

How It Was Cleared Up.

It came about that way. Early yesterday morning Sheppley and Jorgensen turned up at the city hall. They hunted up Detective Sergeant James Markham of the chief's office, long a friend of Sheppley.

Markham listened for a moment. "Come with me," he said then, and led the way to Chief Fitzmorris. The chief in turn ordered them handed over to Lieut. Michael Hughes, who as the new chief of detectives has thus quickly solved the first murder to come under his attention.

Hughes took Jorgensen's statement. Brumberg was found, questioned and taken into custody. The car was picked up at the garage and put into the custody of the police.

Expect No Indictment.

And then detectives went out to all quarters of the city to verify the statements of Brumberg and Jorgensen.

There were four men in the Brumberg party, it was learned. Two of them are yet to be found. It is expected they will be located some time today.

It is not expected indictments will follow, for Lieut. Hughes does not believe there is evidence of a criminal nature against them. The mystery is a mystery no longer.

Statement by Markham.

Detective Sergeant Markham's account of the story of the two men turned over to him by Sheppley was short and to the point.

"Sheppley is a friend of mine," he said. "I've known him for a long time. Yesterday morning I got a call from him. He said he was bringing two men down to see me on this murder case. I was excited about it, of course.

"When Sheppley got here he told me that when he drove his car into the Clark garage the afternoon before he noticed the battered and muddy condition of the Stevens. His own car, an Auburn, was right beside it. He asked the mechanic how the Stevens got that way and the mechanic, who had known him a long time, just blurted out the tale.

Mechanic Tells All.

"He admitted he was with the two women and told the story. You have that, so I'll not repeat it. But Sheppley took the mechanic home with him and kept him there all night. This morning he brought him and the other man down to me. I turned 'em over to Lieut. Hughes at Chief Fitzmorris' orders.

"One of the men told me he picked up the girls at the water front somewhere and that they had a wild party. He admitted leaving them at Grant park, but only because the girls told the men to go away. They wished to take the girls home, he said, but the girls had forgotten their own address.

Coroner's Chemist William McNally announced early in the day that in his analysis of the contents of the stomachs of the two women he had failed to find any evidences of poison. There was a considerable quantity of grain alcohol in the fluids analyzed, he declared, which under certain circumstances might be sufficient to cause death, but there was no trace of wood alcohol.

RUN DOWN VARIOUS CLEWS

Police were sent out on a dozen interesting clews during the day. One of these came from Policewoman Anna Loucks of the Town Hall station. Through another source she had learned of the Brumberg party. With Policeman John T. O'Toole she gained permission of Capt. John McCarthy to work upon the case. She and O'Toole went to the city hall and there met a man with whom she had arranged an interview.

But even while she was eliciting information regarding the Jorgensen affair, Brumberg and Jorgensen were surrendering to Lieut. Hughes. Her story and the story told by the men coincide in every detail. It was announced last night that she will be commended for the interest she had in the case and the work she did upon it.

Clark Street Clew Explodes.

There was a clew, too, leading to McGovern's cabaret at Erie and North Clark streets. There a check girl, Peggy Morelock, was supposed to know something of the deaths. Police investigated it—and found that while the Ramey and Thompson girls had been seen in the cabaret, it was some days before their death.

George W. Sheppley at his home on Lawrence avenue simply said: "Nothing to say."

Both the men arrested were sequestered in an outlying station last night. They will be quizzed further today. It is expected that the coroner will reopen his inquest and finally dispose of the matter within the next three days.

James Meeks and Robert McCarthy, who lived with the two women at 509 North Dearborn street, appeared before Judge Arnold Heap in the Morals court to answer a charge of adultery. Judge Heap set their bonds at $3,000 each and continued the case until Nov. 22 pending investigation.

Not in Jane Cowl Play.

Miss Jane Cowl, star of the company in which Meeks and McCarthy were employed as stage electricians, has been annoyed by reports that the two women were members of her company. The two women had no connection with the company.

HIT BY STREET CAR; MAY DIE.

Andrew Romanoff, 60, a laborer, of 18 East Twenty-second street, suffered a fractured skull last night when he was struck by a street car at Wabash avenue and Fourteenth street. He may die.

GREECE ELECTS AND THEN RIOTS; ATHENS INDOORS

Public Fears to Venture Out of Doors.

ATHENS, Nov. 16.—[By the Associated Press.—Troops fired from a number of points on several occasions today to disperse after-election trouble makers. There are fears of further trouble which may lead to martial law, and there is said to be danger that the army may get out of hands.

The stores, banks, and theaters were closed and soldiers patrolled the streets. At night the population was not taking the risk of leaving their homes.

The disorders began with a parade of opposition adherents to attack the Liberal club. Troops stationed within the club quarters fired upon the marchers. The military later attacked the opposition headquarters, from which a few shots came. For two hours the headquarters were bombarded by the troops. A number of bystanders were wounded.

Venizelos Cabinet Resigns.

Premier Venizelos' cabinet resigned early today, and Admiral Coundouriotis, the regent of Greece, has sent for George Rhallis, to whom, it is expected, will be intrusted the formation of a new ministry.

It is said M. Venizelos will leave the country and he has advised Liberals to abide by the verdict of the people.

Demetrios Gounaris, leader of the opposition has declared the foreign policy of Greece will not be changed.

England and France United.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—With the defeat of Premier Venizelos it is said the position of France and Great Britain with regard to former King Constantine is clearly against his return, and that both powers are determined to do everything possible to prevent it.

Say Rhallis Has Accepted.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—A Reuter message from Athens said M. Rhallis had accepted the task of forming a cabinet.

Constantine Still in Doubt.

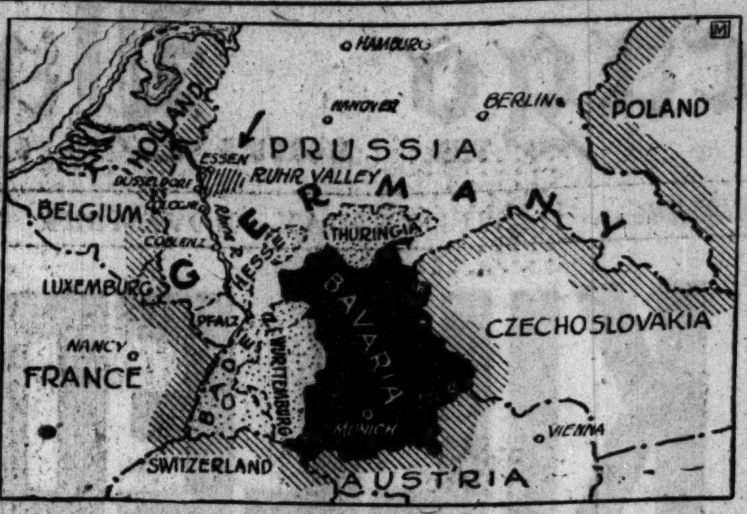
The ex-king said today:

"I will abide by the will of my people. It is a question of the right of self determination. If the Greek people choose to continue their allegiance to me I must answer their call."

Immigration Problems to Be Studied Abroad

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—Anthony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration, left Washington tonight for Europe to initiate a study of existing conditions affecting emigration to the United States. He will be accompanied by Surgeon J. W. Kerr of the United States public health service, who will make a study of health conditions at the principal emigration centers abroad. They will sail from New York tomorrow on the Adriatic.

RESTLESS BAVARIA



Bavarian monarchists, led by Dr. Escherich and Gen. Ludendorff, with headquarters at Munich, where they have 100,000 well equipped troops, are awaiting a propitious moment to launch a coup d'état.

If France, whose note to Escherich demanding disarmament of his forces was ignored, fulfills her threat to occupy the Ruhr valley coal fields it is believed a general strike will be called by communists. Under pretext of combating the communists, it is forecast, Escherich's troops may take the field and execute their plans.

The Bavarian monarchists expect eventually to restore Rupprecht to the throne, but their plan first contemplates institution of a regency with Ludendorff as a possible candidate for regent.

Monarchistic agitation also is experienced in Hesse, Wurtemburg, Baden, and Thuringia, and these fomentations have had the support of the Bavarian group in contemplation of a confederation of the five proposed kingdoms.

INVESTIGATION OF ERIN'S CASE TO BEGIN TODAY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—On the eve of the opening tomorrow of hearings here on conditions in Ireland before a commission appointed by the Committee of 100 on Ireland to conduct the inquiry, announcement was made tonight that both the British embassy and Eamonn de Valera, president of the Irish republic, had been invited to be formally represented at the sessions by counsel of authorized spokesmen. No reply had been received by the commission tonight to these invitations.

Mrs. MAC SWINEY ILL.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Terence MacSwiney, widow of the lord mayor of Cork, still is too ill to receive visitors, but she has taken provisional passage by steamer for New York, and will go with several others to give evidence before the commission investigating the state of affairs in Ireland. Her stay in America is not likely to exceed a month. Peter MacSwiney of New York, the late lord mayor's brother, is in Ireland but will not accompany her.

POLES MASSING ON SILESIA LINE, GERMANS ASSERT

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—[United News.]—Polish troops are reported massing on the boundary of Upper Silesia in preparation for some military coup, the exact nature of which may only be conjectured. The German government has notified the entente governments.

Ukrainians Are Fleeing.

TARNOPOL, Galicia, Nov. 16.—[By the Associated Press.]—The soviet troops have occupied Kamenetz Podolsk and the Ukrainian troops are retreating in disorder. The Polish authorities on this side of the Zbrucz have given orders for the disarmament of any Ukrainian detachments crossing the river.

Reds Attack Semenoff.

HARBIN, Manchuria, Nov. 15.—[By the Associated Press.]—Delayed.—For three days the bolsheviki have been attacking the forces of Gen. Semenoff, anti-bolshevik leader in Siberia, at Dauria, a Manchurian station on the Chinese frontier.

Japanese troops at the Manchurian station threaten to take part in the fighting if it is carried to Chinese territory.

Fine Hats of Hatters' Plush
In a Sale, Unusually Low-priced
At $13.75

The many women who consider the trim sailor an essential hat in their wardrobes will welcome the announcement of this sale. These are hats found generally only at much higher prices, now the object of most advantageous selling.

They Are Perfectly Blocked—and Are Fashioned of the Fine Quality Plush Used in Men's Opera Hats.

The crowns of these hats vary in height, and the brims in width. Many of the latter are the severe, straight sort. Others feature a slight droop, which relieves the strictly tailored air.

The quality of the plush, the expert fashioning, and the decided style of the hats in this offering make the price especially significant. Small, medium, and large sizes may be chosen. In black only.

HARDING LIKELY TO SEE OBREGON AT VERA CRUZ

Hints Ship May Put Into Gulf of Mexico Port.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Increasing pressure brought upon Senator Harding today to give unofficial recognition to the new Obregon government, which takes office in Mexico Dec. 1, led to the announcement that the president-elect would very likely consider arrangements to have the steamer on which the Harding party will travel to the Canal Zone touch at Vera Cruz.

In this event it is understood that Gen. Alvaro Obregon would meet Senator Harding there.

Elias L. Torres, special envoy from the ministry of foreign affairs and personal representative of Gen. Obregon, spent an hour today with Mr. Harding and Senator Albert B. Fall, New Mexico, on the Harding car.

Senator Fall's Statement.

Senator Fall said of his interview:

"Mr. Torres was commissioned to invite Senator Harding to visit the City of Mexico as the guest of Mexico. The Mexican government and Gen. Obregon hoped Senator Harding could be in the city on Nov. 30, when Gen. Obregon will be inaugurated.

"Senator Harding assures Mr. Torres it would give him the greatest pleasure and delight to accept the invitation, but suggested that his itinerary prevented it.

"He added, however, that he would consider arrangements to have the steamer touch at some Mexican port, probably Vera Cruz, but he could give no definite assurances about such a modification of plans."

Senator Harding Spent most of the day on the golf links and in preparing to leave here tomorrow morning for New Orleans.

Gov. Hobby, Texas, came to Brownsville today to assure the senator of the appreciation the people of the state felt for his visit.

Japs Showing Up in Texas.

Had Senator Harding any time to spare from golfing and fishing he might have studied at first hand an international problem other than Mexican close to the city of Brownsville.

Japan, it is learned here, is reaching out covetous hands for the fertile acres of the Magis valley, as the lower Rio Grande is called; and a racial question similar to that of California has developed into a deadlock between Japanese and Americans over the ownership of land and the occupation thereof.

There have already been several clashes between the whites and Japanese settlers, and the latter suddenly disappeared, returning to California, when the Americans defied the Rangers to keep them from running the Japanese out.

FRENCH WORKERS FAIL IN EFFORT TO SEIZE PLANT

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

PARIS, Nov. 16.—More than 150 workers in the Bleriot airplane works, who have been locked out since last Saturday, today attempted to take over the works and operate the plant for themselves. They were prevented by the police. About 1,300 workers were thrown out of work by the lockout.

After force had failed, the workers' committee, declaring itself representative of the entire body, declared they must have work, and issued an ultimatum to M. Bleriot, which declared that unless he reopened the works they would take over the factory.

They gave their employer until Thursday to consider, declaring they would wait on him at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon for his reply.

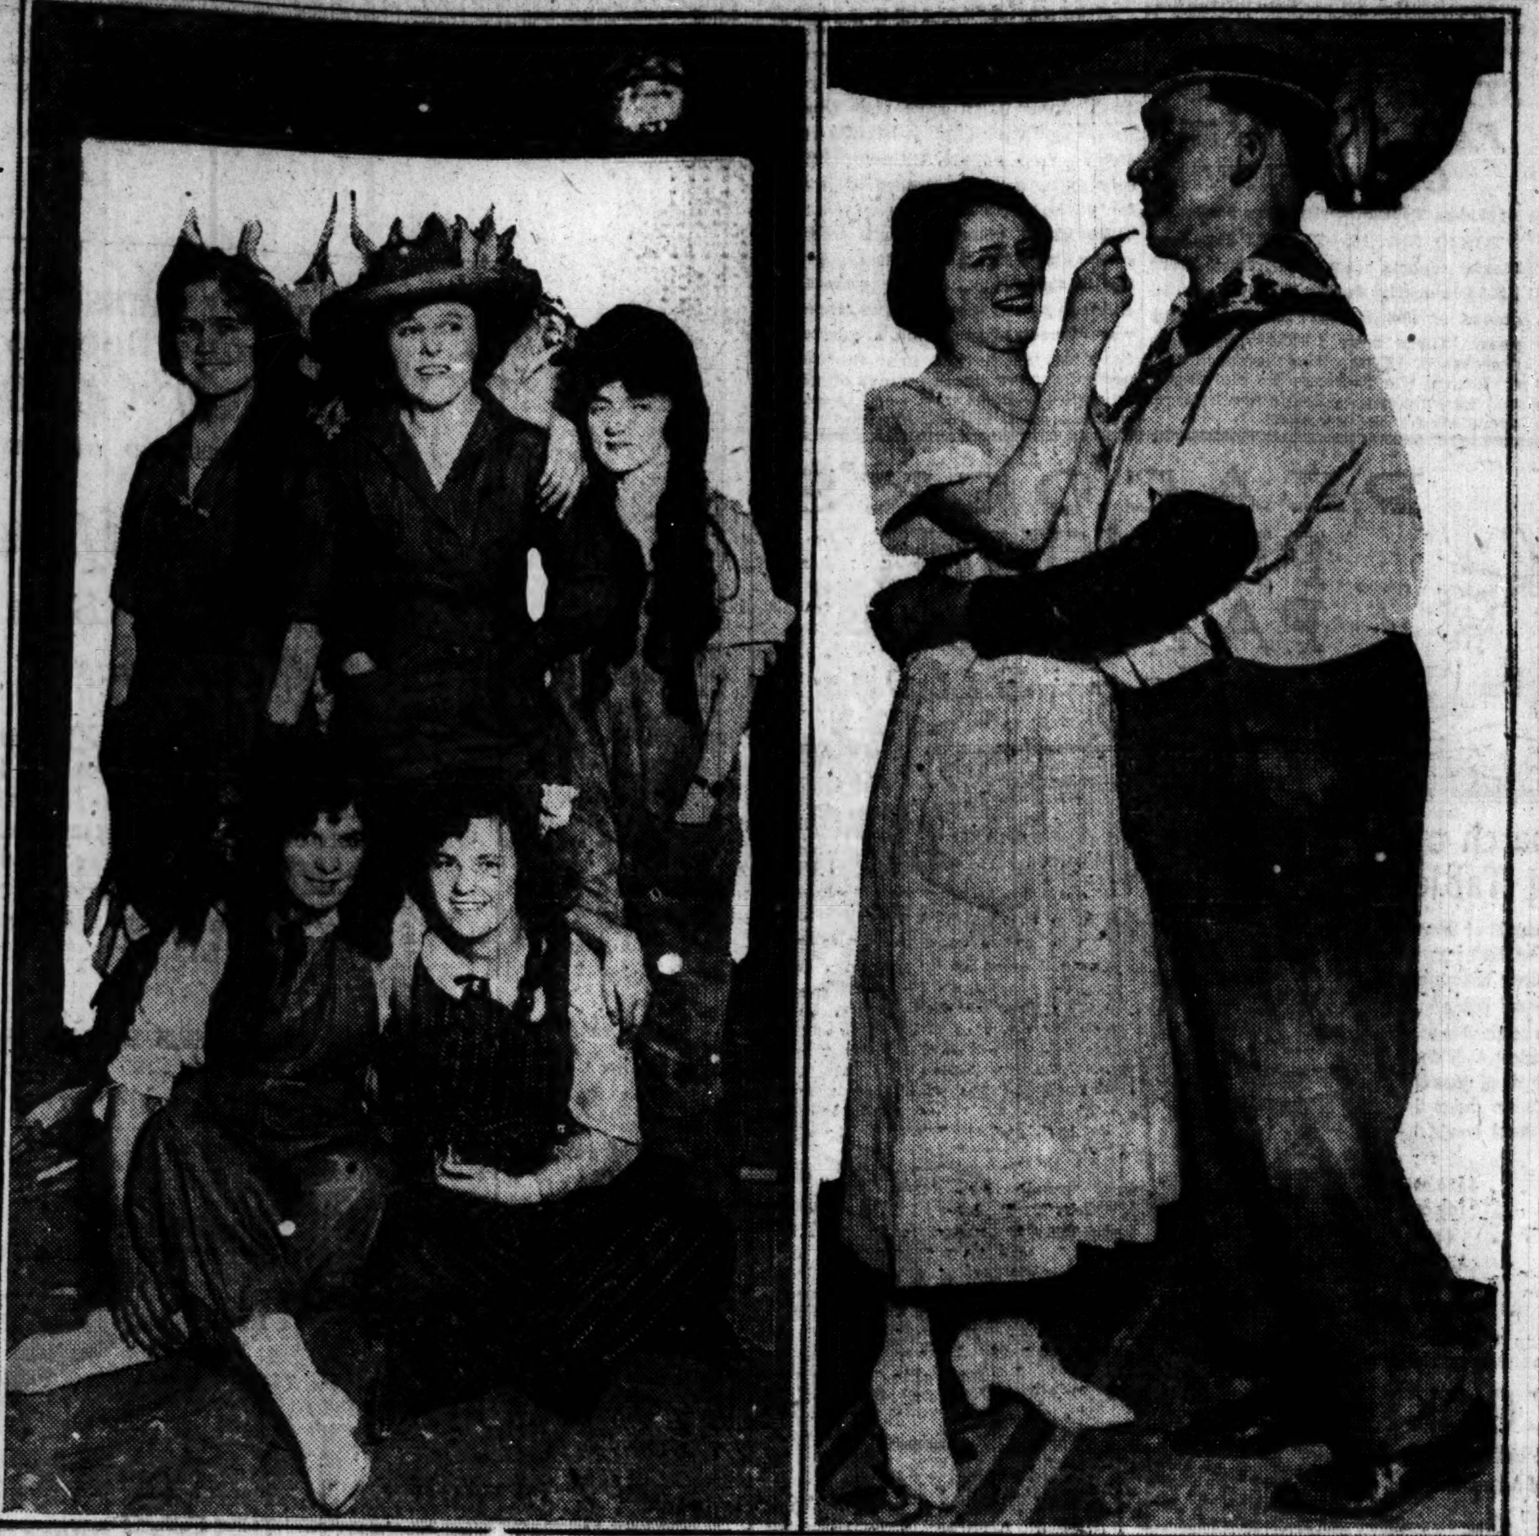
RUSTIC SCENES IN A CHICAGO BANK



Bizarre rural costumes were worn at the annual harvest dance of the Union Trust Company Fellowship club given last night on the bank floor of the Tribune building. About 250 of the bank's employes participated. A dozen different groups vied with one another for honors in "hick" attire. There were overall girls, farm apron slavies, the village Beau Brummell, the usual Keystone cop, the country preacher, and the fattest boy in town, b'gosh. A dozen boxes of candy and six turkeys were raffled off during the evening.

MILLIONS RUST; O. K. UNCLE SAM, WITNESS SAYS

New York, Nov. 16.—Machinery and ship building equipment, valued at millions of dollars were left out in the open to deteriorate in value months after plants were closed with the ending of the war according to Paul H. MacNeil, a former resident engineer of the shipping board in the South Atlantic district.

MacNeil testified today before the Walsh committee, investigating shipping board affairs. MacNeil said he was stationed at Savannah, had five yards under his supervision and "assumed a great deal of authority in the endeavor to straighten out tangles."

The places where the machinery was exposed were the National Shipbuilding company yard, about $1,500,000 to $2,000,000 worth; the Terry Shipbuilding yard, large amounts.

WASHINGTON NEWS
—IN BRIEF—

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 16.

FOLLOWING a conference between Herbert Hoover and the executive council of the American Federation of Labor it became known that Mr. Gompers is planning to launch an aggressive movement for the establishment of coöperative shop management in industry. Unions will present demands for a voice in the methods of production and regulation of working conditions.

THE recent Supreme court decision relating to the transportation of privately owned liquor to the home of the owner is regarded here as opening the way for banks holding large blocks of liquor warehouse receipts to liquidate these holdings.

THE steel industry would have developed to a greater extent in the Chicago district if the producers had not limited their output in order to make it possible to charge an extra price under the Pittsburgh basing system, it was charged before the federal trade commission.

REPORTS to be presented to President Wilson by the federal trade commission and the department of agriculture within a few days are expected to hold that unprecedented imports from Canada were the chief cause for the decline in the price of wheat.

BRITAIN AWAITS ACTION BY U. S. ON FRENCH ALLIANCE

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The proposed treaty under which Great Britain and the United States undertook to support France in case that country were attacked was taken up in the house of commons today. It caused sharp discussion between Andrew Bonar Law, government leader, and numerous members concerning Great Britain's position should the United States refuse to come in.

Frederick Hall, a member, demanded whether Great Britain would stand by France, irrespective of the United States.

"Our treaty is only contingent on its being adopted by the United States," Mr. Bonar Law replied. "If the United States should refuse to adopt, of course, a new situation arises and we must deal with that situation."

Court Ruling May Show Volstead Act "Joker."

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Has the United States Supreme court uncovered a "joker" in the Volstead law that will prove an unadulterated joy to the wets?

Reports to this effect have been reaching officials of the court for several days. The demand is unprecedented for copies of the opinion of the court in the Street case, which decided affirmatively the right of an individual to have and to remove from place to place stocks of liquor for personal use acquired before the enactment of the Volstead law.

The Volstead law, in section 3, under title II., "prohibition of intoxicating beverages," provides: "That nothing in this act shall prohibit the purchase and sale of warehouse receipts covering distilled spirits on deposit in government bonded warehouses, and no special tax liability shall attach to the business of purchasing and selling such warehouse receipts."

Big Demand for Decision.

Lawyers from every section of the country have written and wired the clerk of the Supreme court for copies of the Street decision. This decision gave Street possession of his private stock of liquors, acquired before the enactment of the Volstead law.

The lawyers are pointing out to the Supreme court officials that liquor warehouse certificates pass from owner to owner like Liberty bonds. No evidence of the date of the transfer of the warehouse certificate is required or is available so far as the certificate itself is concerned.

May Withdraw Liquor.

Under the decision in the Street case it is contended now by lawyers the holder of warehouse liquor certificates may withdraw legally his stock of liquors on surrender of his certificate and without fear of interference by the prohibition agents.

Out of the new order of things will come assistance to many banks through the speedy liquidation of loans made to holders of large blocks of these warehouse certificates.

The government treasury will benefit also if these liquor stocks are released, because on withdrawal from the government bonded warehouses a revenue duty of $6 a gallon must be paid in cash. Should the 60,000,000 gallons be withdrawn the government would receive $360,000,000, a sum now needed badly by the treasury to take up the treasury certificates of indebtedness issued for borrowed money.

REVENUE LAWS TO STAND UNTIL AFTER MARCH 4

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—In the opinion of Senator Penrose, chairman of the finance committee, no attempt will be made to repeal the excess profits tax or otherwise change the revenue laws until a special session of congress President Harding is expected to call shortly after March 4.

Senator Penrose said it would be a waste of time for the Republicans to carry into effect Republican policies during the final months of the Wilson administration.

D'ANNUNZIO PUTS GAG ON FIUME; MUM ON TREATY

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

MILAN, Nov. 16.—The whereabouts of Gabriel d'Annunzio and what is going on in Fiume are causing considerable speculation in official circles here. D'Annunzio has reëstablished the censorship and news concerning his operations is lacking.

An official war bulletin from Fiume dated Nov. 14 confirms the occupation of Arbe island.

Press and political circles and patriotic associations are bitterly condemning D'Annunzio's attitude. Even Maj. Reina, who planned the Fiume occupation last year, recognizes that the Rapallo treaty must put an end to such adventures.

A message from Ancona dated midnight the 15th states: "D'Annunzio left Fiume this morning on board the destroyer Nullo. At the same time Admiral Millo left another port on the destroyer Indomito. A long interview took place between D'Annunzio and Millo in the middle of the Adriatic."

Dispatches state that D'Annunzio has not returned to Fiume.

Germany's Imported Bread Supply to Cost Billions

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—An official inventory of the visible supply of grain tends to show that Germany will be obliged to import 1,600,000 tons of wheat, rye, corn, and barley in order to safeguard the nation's bread supply up to next midsummer. At the present rate of exchange the grain will cost 12,000,000,000 marks.

BRITISH LABOR PRODS ENGLAND TO RUSS TRADE

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Nov. 16.—It is evident that the Russian soviet is preparing a great diplomatic push to secure a trade agreement and diplomatic recognition from England. It will be remembered that a few months ago when the Anglo-Russian crisis was acute the labor leaders, who were in close touch with the soviet delegation to London, threatened a general strike if military action was taken against Russia.

Prime Minister Lloyd George described this action in parliament as a plan for forcing an open door to Russia, and it was generally understood then that he welcomed this intervention as it strengthened him against cabinet advocates of a military adventure against the soviet. This piece of history is now being repeated.

Call on Labor.

The Socialist newspaper, Daily Herald, today contains a call from the secretaries of the labor council for action in mobilizing forces immediately for a great campaign seeking the resumption of trade and the making of peace with Russia. They base their appeal to the British working class on the statement that "peace with Russia will increase employment and bring down prices."

The signatories, including William Adamson, the Labor party leader, call labor all over the country to organize meetings and bombard their members of parliament with demands that they exert pressure on the government for immediate action.

Break in Cabinet?

Coincident with this appeal comes news of a serious division in the ranks of the cabinet over the Russian policy. Mr. Lloyd George, Sir R. S. Horne, Andrew Bonar Law, and Dr. H. A. L. Fisher are the leading exponents of the policy favoring an immediate resumption of trade followed by early political recognition. Earl Curzon, Austen Chamberlain, Walter H. Long, and Winston Churchill insist that there be no recognition of the soviets and favor either direct military action against them or the furnishing of every assistance to counter revolutionary movements.

Closely linked with the Russian trade problems is the British domestic problem—the high cost of living and unemployment. It is now estimated that there are 500,000 unemployed with prospects for more, unless Russia's great consuming power is brought into play.

JAP U. S. CENSUS GROWS, BUT NOT AT FORMER PACE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—The Japanese population of the three Pacific states—California, Oregon, and Washington—has increased at a lower rate since 1910 than it did between 1900 and 1910, figures announced today by the census bureau showed.

In Hawaii, however, there was a decided increase and nearly half the population of the Islands is made up of Japanese.

The number of Japanese women in the three Pacific coast states and in Hawaii showed a heavy gain over 1910, both in totals and in relation to the number of male Japanese.

California, with a total population of 3,426,861, showed 70,196 Japanese, an increase of 28,840 or 69.7 per cent since 1910, compared with a Japanese total in 1910 of 41,356, which was an increase over 1900 of 31,205 or 307.4 per cent. The Japanese population in 1910 constituted 1.7 per cent of the total population compared with 2 per cent this year.

STATISTICS SHOW FALL IN VITALITY OF JAP EMPIRE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

TOKIO, Nov. 16.—The 1919 Japanese census reports shows that there were 1,513,000 deaths during the year, an increase of 298,000 over the preceding year. There were 1,823,000 births, a decrease of 18,000. The increased cost of living, the decrease in marriages, and an influenza epidemic are held responsible for the changes.

TOKIO REPORTS 300 KILLED IN CHINA MASSACRE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

TOKIO, Nov. 16.—A dispatch to the Asahi from Kirin says that Chinese troops operating against bandits in the district east of the Chinese Eastern railway recently massacred 300 people, the entire population of the village of Shitongkow, believing them to be in sympathy with the outlaws. According to the report, neither women nor children were spared. The Japanese war office is dispatching a mission to the Chientao district, near the Corean border, to investigate reports of alleged atrocities committed by Japanese troops against the inhabitants there.

WRANGEL'S VAIN FIGHT ENDED; AT CONSTANTINOPLE

Arrives in Safety on Destroyer.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Gen. Baron Wrangel, the anti-bolshevik leader in South Russia, has arrived in Constantinople on the Russian cruiser Korneloff, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Constantinople.

Gen. Wrangel left Sevastopol on a cruiser filled with soldiers, says a previous dispatch. The cruiser was accompanied by three transports carrying 20,000 troops and another carrying wounded men.

Russian soviet forces had not reached Sevastopol before the city was evacuated, it is said.

Wrangel's Hopeless Fight.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 16.—The story of the heroic and unequal struggle of the Wrangel troops against overwhelming odds is being told by neutral observers arriving here from the Crimea.

Gen. Wrangel, they declare, attempted to hold the Crimean defenses with six divisions of troops against twenty-eight enemy divisions, which outnumbered his men nearly six to one. Against these odds the white troops held their own for several days.

While the Wrangel soldiers had no time to eat or rest for days, the bolsheviki would send fresh divisions to relieve their front line troops every three or four hours.

So without relief the Crimean defenders stuck to their guns day and night until, weakened by exhaustion, they were overcome by sheer numbers.

To Carry On Against Bolshevism.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The defeat of Gen. Wrangel will not end the fight against the bolsheviki, Basile Maklakoff, special envoy in Paris for Wrangel, declared here today.

"We will never give up the struggle against bolshevism," he said. "There are other ways besides the use of arms in which the bolsheviki can be put down, and perhaps the fight will continue along bloodless lines."

Gen. Wrangel's third army is still intact in the Ukraine, M. Maklakoff explained, and this could form the basis of a new military movement.

The defeat of Wrangel does not mean that France is ready to consider recognition of the Russian soviet government, it was said at the foreign office.

U. S. ATTITUDE VINDICATED.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—State department and Russian officials here regard the crushing defeat of Gen. Wrangel's army and the liquidation of the south Russian government as marking the end of the period of military struggles with bolshevism. They view the Wrangel debacle as a complete vindication of this government's policy and an absolute demonstration of its belief that the Russian problem must be settled from within.

Vice Admiral Huse at London reported today to the navy department that he was sending all available American naval vessels to the Black sea to evacuate Americans from the Crimean area. He had ordered the cruisers Chattanooga and Olympia, the fuel ship Jason, the Ramapo, and all destroyers in the Mediterranean to report to Constantinople.

BRITAIN DECIDES TO MAINTAIN HER FORCE IN PERSIA

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Lord Curzon, British foreign secretary, told the house of lords this evening that there was little possibility of a withdrawal of British troops from Persia which he said was "shaken by prodigious convulsions as the result of war's aftermath." Lord Curzon, however, promised the government he would not prolong the occupation a moment more than was necessary.

"Every expediency," he said, "points to early reduction of and as soon as is possible the complete withdrawal of troops from Persia, but the withdrawal cannot be abrupt.

"We expect that when the Persian parliament convenes late this month the Anglo-Persian agreement will come up. If Persia accepts the agreement, subject to modifications, we will do our best to help that nation, and will send the agreement to the council of the league of nations."

Airplane, Bloodhounds, Used to Seek Fugitive

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 16.—Denny Chester, who escaped by diving through a window of a train bearing him to this city to be tried for the murder of Miss Florence Barton, a Kansas City society girl, is being hunted by bloodhounds and by airplane today. Miss Barton, a sister of Mrs. Pauline Griffiths of Evanston, Ill., was shot to death while motoring with Howard Winter, her fiancé, last month. Winter was wounded.

Their Home Saved

Several months ago Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eilrich, 2840 Christiana avenue, agreed that matrimony was a farce—a happy home an impossible dream. They decided that they no longer loved each other and that the divorce courts offered the only solution for their marital troubles.

Mr. and Mrs. Eilrich found yesterday that they were partly right and partly wrong. The divorce court—it was Judge Lewis'—was the place where their matrimonial wreck was salvaged, not through a decree, but by a reconciliation. And they were "telling the world" last night that the fellow who says a happy home is a dream is "talking foolishly."

After Mrs. Eilrich told Judge Lewis that her husband beat her and refused to stay at home and after Mr. Eilrich had countered with stories of his wife's eccentricities and her refusal to prepare his meals, Judge Lewis asked one question.

"Have you any children?" he queried. They answered by bringing Mildred, 2 years old, and Lanore, the baby, to the judicial railing. With the four the jurist left the bench and went to the "reconciliation room."

When the five emerged the mother was crying and it wasn't because she was sad. The father held the children in his arms. And while the court fans looked on and the judge smiled, Mr. and Mrs. Eilrich asked one another to forgive and begin anew. They shook hands with the judge, kissed the babies and left the court.

The judge had "saved another home."

WESTERN UNION WANTS CASH FOR COLBY'S CABLES

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—Charges made in New York today by Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, that the state department had acted arbitrarily in dealing with bills for cable service served to throw the triangular controversy between the company and the department into the open for the first time.

Mr. Carlton's statement, the first to be made by either party, explained the refusal of his company to handle any but prepaid messages for the state department as notice that the state department shall not "arbitrarily decide what it shall pay and when it shall pay for the use of the company's facilities."

Announcement today by the Western Union in New York of arrangements with the German Telegraph administration for the handling of cable traffic between Germany and the United States was explained tonight by officials as in conformity with plans of the state department for the reëstablishment of such communication.

Asked about the laying of a cable direct from the United States to Germany to handle business now relayed through other continental countries, Mr. Carlton said:

"I should say that a direct cable will finally be the outcome of these negotiations."

PETROGRAD AND MOSCOW FACING WINTER OF WANT

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Nov. 16.—Russia's railroads will likely come to a complete standstill before the first of January, according to reports reaching Paris from Moscow. A Russian economic journal in a recent article, pointing out the seriousness of the situation, shows that there has been no progress during the spring and summer in overcoming the immense shortage of rolling stock.

Russia's total is now reduced to less than 25 per cent of her pre-war figures despite everything the communists have been able to do toward repairing the losses.

The non-delivery of 113 locomotives which the communist press announced was on the way from the United States has made even the high officials in Russian railroad circles pessimistic regarding the possibilities of keeping up rail communication during the coldest months.

As Moscow and Petrograd rely entirely upon the railways for food supplies, both cities face a much more difficult winter than the last, when thousands of Russians died from starvation.

The situation in the two chief Russian cities already is beyond description.

LOWDEN ASKS FOR GRATEFUL HEARTS ON THANKSGIVING

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 16.—Gov. Frank O. Lowden urges that special efforts be made by the people of Illinois this year to appropriately observe Thanksgiving day. His annual Thanksgiving proclamation reads as follows:

"The president of the United States has designated Thursday, Nov. 25, 1920, as Thanksgiving day.

"In pursuance of the proclamation of the president, I, Frank O. Lowden, governor of the state of Illinois, do hereby urge our citizens to observe that day of prayer and thanksgiving. I urge that our people assemble in their places of public worship and there render thanks to the Almighty God for the manifold blessings he has vouchsafed to us.

"This year we celebrate the 300th anniversary of the coming of the Pilgrim fathers to our shores.

"A government of laws, the largest freedom to the individual without injury to the rights of others, the triumph of truth and faith in God, are as vitally needed today as they were when the Pilgrim fathers trod the wintry strand.

"It therefore is appropriate that our people shall make special efforts this year to fittingly celebrate Thanksgiving day."

FREE California Moving Pictures and Almond Lecture

Kimball Hall, Wabash Ave. and Jackson Blvd. 2nd Floor

Come early tonight, so you can get a good seat. Our "Movie Special California Limited" leaves on time—at 8—and you don't want to miss the "train!"

Leaving Chicago in the grip of a snowstorm, three days later will find us splashing in the surf at Long Beach, Cal. And what wonderful sights we will see on the way—the famous Cajon Pass, the Grand Canyon—the far-stretching plains of New Mexico and Arizona, the Petrified Forest and the Painted Desert, glimpses of Indian life in the great Southwest, the orange, lemon and fig groves of Southern California, the scenic wonders of Yosemite; and we'll finally land at Paso Robles, where the big, sweet-meat almonds grow. Here you will see almond culture in all its various stages—how the ground is broken and pulverized by our big tractor-drawn plows, subsoilers and harrows—how the trees are planted, pruned and cared for by our experts—how the crops are gathered and harvested.

Our lecturer will tell you all about our project—make everything clear to you. So be sure to come. All seats are free. Tonight at 8, Kimball Hall, Wabash Avenue near Jackson Boulevard, 2d floor.

Inasmuch as these pictures and the lecture have little or no interest for children, parents are kindly requested not to bring them if it can possibly be avoided. We wish to make sure of having a seat for every person to whom this proposition is of real interest.

Paso Robles Almond Photo Book to Everybody

To every one attending this lecture tonight we will present a copy of this beautifully illustrated book. It is profusely illustrated with photographic reproductions of the almond growing industry in the Paso Robles district and the scenic wonders of California. By all means attend this lecture if you can. If you find it impossible, call at our office at your convenience or send us your name and address—a postal will do—and we will mail to you a free copy of the book.

Call at Our Offices—Special Exhibits—Open Evenings

Come to our offices, get acquainted—you will not be pestered by salesmen when here. Open Monday and Wednesday evenings, Saturday afternoons—any evening by special appointment. Call and see beautiful panoramic views of Almond Orchards in different stages of development, panoramic views of our Paso Robles Townsite, a wonderful painting of Moro Bay, also one of the finest paintings of the State of California ever produced, exhibit of special products from our own Orchards, different varieties of Almonds, samples showing the Sea Marl mixed in the adobe soil, and many other interesting things. Attend the Lecture tonight if possible—come to our offices any time at your convenience.

BERLIN EXECUTES AN ABOUT FACE IN LEAGUE STAND

BY GEORGE SELDES.

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—Within a fortnight of the American elections there has been a deep change in public and official opinion in Germany regarding the league of nations, revision of the peace treaty, and a new peace conference.

In fact, a high German government official told THE TRIBUNE correspondent today that he felt sure that an offer to Germany by the league of nations of membership would be refused at Berlin.

Election Inspires Hope.

Germany is encouraged by the mighty blow at the league of nations dealt by the result of the American election and is passing from her request for revision of the Versailles treaty to contemplation of a demand for a new peace conference with persons who would present the fourteen points and then compromise with all but two or three of them left out.

But, failing to obtain such a conference, Germany hopes that the league assembly sessions at Geneva or some future gathering will interpret and revise the existing treaty in a radically different manner.

What Germany Wants.

From official sources it has been learned that Germany considers the following subjects the most important for revision or exclusion from the treaty:

Reparations; merchant marine clauses; coal deliveries; costs of the allied occupations; Danzig corridor; European Malmedy and Silesian plebiscites, and Germany's contemplated aerial services.

The official view is that the reparations demands form the biggest question confronting the nation. Until a definite sum has been set, in the German belief, industry, commerce, and banking must proceed under the sword of Damocles. The nation, morally as well as materially, is unstable.

"Reparations are the center of everything"—is the view of the German government.

Germany considers the disarmament question as satisfactorily settled providing every nation disarms. She feels, however, that the allies' coal delivery demands are most severe and that they are the sole cause for Germany's unemployment and consequent labor unrest. She seeks amelioration of this clause.

The Berlin government also is most keen that the merchant marine clauses be so modified that Germany might build certain amounts of tonnage each year without having to deliver the same to the allies.

Dislikes Black Troops.

Germany also protests against the continuance of French black troops in the zones of occupation, and demands that the cost of occupation during the armistice be reduced, and states that the amount she is asked to pay for the cost of French occupation is equal to the total French war department's budget.

Another demand often heard is that Germany be given some colonial mandatories, and this is one of the points uppermost in the public mind.

One of the greatest wrongs against her, Germany feels, was the formation of the Danzig corridor cutting through East Prussia, and she hopes that a new conference or treaty revision will return to her the "purely German strips," which she considers as "stolen property."

ONLY MAN WHO EVER FELL FIVE MILES AND LIVED COMING HOME

CAPT. R. W. SCHROEDER.

Chicago will soon have in its possession again the man who nearly reached heaven. Capt. R. W. Schroeder, holder of the world's airplane altitude record, and the only man who ever fell five miles and lived to tell the tale, was honorably discharged from the army air service at Dayton on Monday and is coming home. He will reënter business here after having served in the army for four years. Capt. Schroeder thrilled the world last winter by climbing "solo" to a height of nearly six miles and then, when his oxygen supply gave out, falling nearly five miles before he regained consciousness and recovered control. He recently represented the United States in the Gordon Bennett cup race in France.

"Yes—It's Rachmaninoff, You Couldn't Mistake Him"

"LAST Sunday afternoon my wife and I stayed in town to attend a recital by Rachmaninoff. I had long been an admirer of his compositions but had never heard the great Russian play. It was a revelation—the power and individuality of the man were expressed through his masterly interpretation so amazingly that you felt as if you knew him intimately. In his playing, as in his compositions, Rachmaninoff expresses his own rich nature.

"So impressed were we by the beauty of the recital that we again realized the need for music in our own home, both for ourselves and for the children. The following afternoon we stopped at Wurlitzer's to select a piano for the children's lessons—we had determined to have music of some sort in our home.

"Suddenly, from a little distance, I heard the Rachmaninoff Prelude—played exactly as I had heard it from the hands of the master! Quietly walking to the next room I looked in and found a great Knabe Grand. It was playing alone—not a hand touched it! Then it dawned on me that here was a new instrument such as I had never dreamed possible. Not the ordinary player piano, but a wonderful instrument that reproduced the playing of great pianists exactly as they had recorded it.

"Here were form and fullness and personality in every bar. Golden melody, sparkling with genius came from the bewitched instrument. It had something to say to me that no disc or record had ever said. There were air, earth, water and fire in the music. It was life—genius incarnate.

"And it is this reproducing piano—the Ampico—that has made a new place of my home. My wife and children are delighted with it. And to me it is a comfort and pleasure beyond words. I know that now you have heard the Ampico you will not be long without one in your own home. To you, as to us, Ampico will mean musical perfection."

You are cordially invited to hear this wonderful instrument reproduce the playing of great pianists in the Ampico Studios.

LEAGUE TABOOS OPEN MEETINGS OF COMMISSIONS

France, Italy, and Britain Demand Secrecy.

BY HENRY WALES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune]

GENEVA, Nov. 16.—Old fashioned methods of secret diplomacy were jammed through the assembly meeting of the league of nations this morning when French, Italian, and English delegations overwhelmed the efforts of Lord Robert Cecil, representing South Africa, who wished to insure publicity for meetings of the various commissions.

The order of procedure which has been adopted temporarily provides that these commissions can sit in camera and that no minutes need be kept. Lord Robert attacked this, demanding that the sittings of the commissions be open to the public and that a complete transcript be kept of every statement made. These records, he argued, should be open to the public also.

Needs World Confidence.

Lord Robert recalled what Delegate Tittoni said yesterday—that the league must have the support of the public opinion of the entire world and that the only way to win the world's public support was to take the world into full confidence.

The French unleashed in Delegate Viviani their heavy artillery upon Lord Roberts. The former premier stated there was no precedent in diplomatic history for opening all discussion to the general public.

After M. Viviani had finished the South African delegate replied:

"I cannot agree with my colleague that there is no precedent. The British parliament nearly always is open to the public and private sessions are seldom held."

Lord Robert Capitulates.

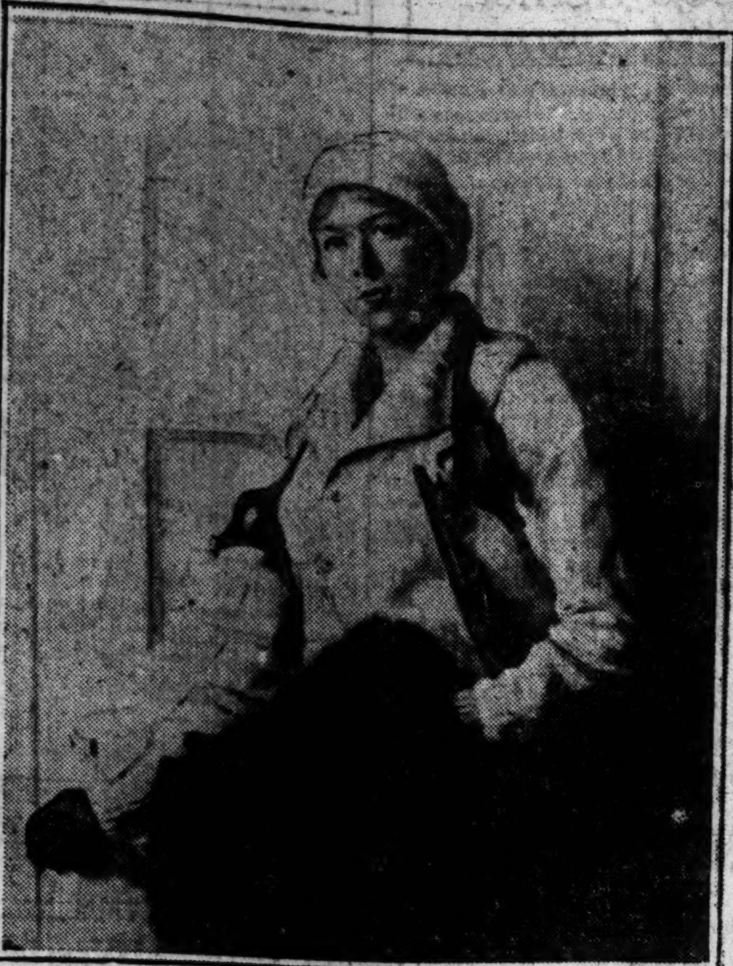
Delegate Tittoni of Italy then took the floor and pointed out that even if the British were so eager for publicity, their cabinet meetings were not made open to the public.

Hal Fisher, representing the United Kingdom, declared he agreed with M. Viviani. In the face of this combined attack Lord Robert declared he was ready to accept M. Viviani's amendment, which favored the keeping of a proces verbal be kept available to members of the assembly.

Afterwards he pointed out, however, that the French proces verbal means a summary or communique and in no way coincided with the English expression "transcript of proceedings." He further pointed out that the Viviani amendment provided for a proces verbal open to members of the assembly, but made no provision for its inspection by the press or the public.

The significance of publicity for the commissions' sessions lies in the fact that, according to the plan adopted yesterday, whereby six commissions will handle the affairs of the league, the assembly becomes a mere figurehead.

"GRETA"



Painting by Arvid Nyholm in exhibition of Swedish-American artists.

WOULD you walk the white aisles of a snowclad forest in December? Would you hear the murmur of waves lapping the sun warmed beach on a June day? Would you lose yourself in the whirling cycle of a Pavlowa ballet? All these are offered in the exhibition of paintings by American painters of Swedish descent which opened last night in the Art institute. The collection has just returned from an approving tour of Sweden.

Perhaps the most pleasant rambles are those into which Hugo von Hofsten entices one with his delightful pictures of the Skokie and forest preserve district. Some are as delicately precise in treatment as a Japanese print. They mark a step forward in the artistic appreciation of what the country around Chicago has in store for those with the patience to seek and the eyes to see.

John F. Carlson has a group of splendid canvases, dealing for the most part with various guises of winter in town and country. Another lover of winter is Alfred Jansson, who treats his subject with a sympathetic, gentle touch.

Among others who contribute to the success of this exhibition are Raymond C. Johnson, Arvid Nyholm, Birger Sandzen, Thomas Hall, Charles E. Hallberg, and Arthur Lindquist.

The exhibition will close Nov. 30.

SMALL ISSUES ORDERS 1 AND 2 TO LEGISLATURE

Kill Utilities Act, Aid "Thompson Plan."

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

French Lick, Ind., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Gov. Elect Len Small's policy with the incoming legislature was disclosed tonight following a conference with Mayor Thompson and State Chairman Frank L. Smith.

Mr. Small will insist upon a Republican organization of both senate and house and will insist on his primary platform, the repeal of the public utilities law. Also he wants the assembly to pass legislation that will submit the "Thompson plan" of local transportation in Chicago to a vote of Chicago's citizens.

"What will happen to the present state utilities commission?" Mr. Small was asked.

"I haven't studied the act and I don't know whether the present commissioners are supposed to remain in office for a certain period so that their calendar may be cleared of pending cases, or whether they pass out of office automatically with the arrival of the new administration," the governor elect answered with a smile that seemed to indicate something.

"Will you appoint new commissioners in their place and permit the present law to function pending legislative or other necessary action?"

"That remains to be determined largely by the developments at Springfield."

The governor elect spread gloom when he announced: "No appointments except those urgently necessary will be made by me until after the legislature is through."

This brings sharp disappointment to many of the willing workers at city hall.

Small has no candidate for speaker of the house at present, he said.

Nothing has been accomplished in the assignment of county or sanitary district patronage. The post of chief clerk of the board of election commissioners was offered definitely to Capt. Percy B. Coffin, but was declined.

adaptations of distinguished successes among the later frocks for afternoon occasions and for dinner wear. The values are particularly interesting.

Bead emb'd $95 Lace trim'd

The frock illustrated at the right is developed in an effective combination of kitten's ear crepe satin and georgette, its attractiveness enhanced by bead embroidered motifs; $95.

Luxurious crepe-back satin, adorned with lace collar and two-tone pompons on a flowing, irregular tunic, give richness to the model sketched at the left; $95. Fourth floor.

OPENING NIGHT!

Grand Opera

Tonight the brilliant season opens, bringing back to Chicago music lovers those great singers whose golden voices have so established them in favor. Again they may be heard in person as they infuse the opera with vivid life.

It is only a brief period each year they may be heard in person. The other months they are gone. Yet you may enjoy daily the great opera and the voices of those who sing them through

The Victrola

Opera lovers should own the Victrola so they may relive their favorite scenes and hear again a great aria at any time they wish. It is the choice of opera singers, not only as a possession but as a medium of recording their voices. They know how exact its reproduction is.

We have arranged a number of special outfits which are most interesting, especially among the period styles. Monthly payments may be arranged for your convenience.

Victrola selections from the current opera may be heard daily in our concert hall (Ground Floor) from 11 to 5 o'clock.

A CITY AROUSED AGAINST CRIME.

Hope for suppression of crime in Chicago rises with the tide of public opinion recently made evident. That Charles Fitzmorris, new superintendent of police, will have powerful popular support in any steps which actually bring about an improvement is certain. To that extent he takes up his new duties with better prospects of success than many of his predecessors.

The action of the Galewood Congregational church in appealing for better protection following the attack of a moron upon one of its members is but one demonstration of the realization of conditions and the necessity of improvement. Similar action by the Immanuel Baptist church under the direction of the Rev. Johnston Myers ten days ago, and the indignation expressed by members of St. Bartholomew's church after a slugging attack upon choir members are added evidence. The exposure of conditions and the initial steps toward improvement made by John Carroll, president of the Cook County Bankers' association, also will help.

It is evident that Chicago at last is being aroused on this subject in a way which means results. Crime is largely fostered and stimulated by the crooked work of unscrupulous politicians. They use and assist criminals for what they can get out of it. If they find that their protection and assistance of criminals costs them more than they gain, they will cease it. If the churches, bankers, and other civic organizations and influential citizens make it clear that they will not tolerate crime or the crooked politicians and officers under whom it thrives, it will be eliminated.

They are well started toward that end. They are dealing with a reorganized police department. It has an opportunity to make good. Let public opinion keep up the pressure now indicated and immediate practical results should be seen. But the best means of organizing public opinion would be the formation of a central organization by the several organizations we have named, and THE TRIBUNE urges that this be done at once before impetus is lost.

SEVEN OBJECTIONS TO THE SEAWAY.

Olin H. Landreth, representing the New York Merchants' association, has presented to the commission investigating the feasibility of the St. Lawrence seaway seven "serious objections." These are:

"1. The speed retarding and dangerous element of ice and fog in the lower St. Lawrence river and gulf.

"2. Shallow depths and tortuous or at least extremely irregular channel-layout, even after improvement, will necessitate very slow speeds for large vessels.

"3. Time lost at locks.

"4. Heavy marine insurance.

"5. Short navigation season of about seven months.

"6. A largely one-way traffic.

"7. A very restricted market-port."

These arguments, if left without analysis, might be of influence in preventing favorable United States action on the canal project. Therefore it is well to attempt a brief analysis.

The first objection is refuted to a considerable extent by the fact that ocean steamship lines have been for years and are today overcoming the handicaps cited by making regular and profitable voyages through the gulf and river to Montreal. They use the same route which would be used if the seaway were developed west of Montreal.

The second and third objections can be considered as one. The projected improvement will limit the "tortuous channels" to a maximum of approximately 140 miles, necessitating a loss of time due to restricted steaming estimated at only twenty-four hours between tidewater and Lake Erie. The new Welland canal alone, planned and built entirely by Canadian initiative and capital, will reduce the time between Lake Ontario and Lake Erie from twenty-four to eight hours for the average ship.

The fourth objection may be more or less valid, but it cannot be made specific until insurance rates are fixed on the proposed route. With the improved channel and safeguards contemplated it is more than likely that insurance rates will not be kept at a prohibitive figure.

The fifth objection also has some claims to validity. The through route probably will be closed for five months each year. But it will not be closed until after the ordinary season of heavy harvest shipments.

The sixth objection as to one-way traffic is largely guess work. It is true that one-way traffic is assured. That is the movement of middle western crops for export. But it is also true that the middle west uses vast quantities of imported goods. These goods can be brought in by an all water route more cheaply than by water to New York and rail to lake ports. It is logical to expect that they will provide cargoes for returning ships.

The seventh objection, that of a very restricted market-port for steamers into the lakes, seems to reflect New York's egotism more than anything else. Do the demands of Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee and Duluth, with minor lake cities and the territory which they serve, constitute a "very restricted market-port"? Certainly not. Even New York will admit that if it is honest.

Concluding, Mr. Landreth objects to the project on account of the "untold millions" of New York's money and that of the nation which would be wasted in the improvement. Such generalities are seriously misleading. The improvement would not require "untold millions." A close estimate of the cost of the improvement to the United States has put it at $65,000,000. Returns from the hydroelectric power alone would more than pay the interest on this investment. There is no question of a possible waste of "untold millions."

WASTING COAL.

The man who fires the furnace does not always buy the coal, and the person who pays the electric light bill does not always have control of the lights. That is one reason for waste of fuel in unneeded heat and unneeded lights.

At a time when troubles in production and distribution of coal are serious and causing apprehension, the waste of power in light and heat is a waste of fuel. It may mean nothing to the building firemen who shovel in the coal or to the family which tries to make a house look like an illuminated palace, but it means something to the community which has no coal reserves and finds itself living from bucketful to bucketful with apprehension of the time when there will be none in the scuttle.

In such times waste is an imposition upon the community need.

OPPOSED TO HARDING ON CANAL TOLLS.

Dispatches from Brownsville, Tex., concerning a conference between Senator Harding and Senator Fall suggest that it dealt in part with "ways and means to lift from American shipping the burden of toll charges in the Panama canal."

The statement has been reiterated frequently of late that it is this question in part which takes the president elect to the canal. He is said to be determined "that the commerce of the United States shall not suffer much longer under what he regards as an unfair exaction." In the absence of a contrary statement we may assume that Senator Harding believes the present arrangement of canal tolls unjust and subject to revision which will allow American vessels free passage.

If that is the case, we believe the senator is in error. In the first place, the present toll arrangements are not unfair to American shipping. To eliminate them would be unfair. It would in effect be a subsidy which would put millions of dollars into the pockets of coast cities and shipping interests with no return to inland cities, agricultural interests and manufacturers who helped to pay and are still helping to pay for construction of the canal. There is no reason why Chicago, Cleveland, or Denver should thus subsidize private interests in New York, Boston, San Francisco or Seattle, especially as the Atlantic coast in particular is fighting bitterly to prevent us from enjoying the advantages of ocean ports. So much for our direct financial interest in the Panama canal.

There is another and even greater reason why it is folly to consider exempting American ships from the canal tolls. The Hay-Pauncefote treaty for construction of the Nicaraguan canal made all nations subject to the same treatment on tolls. The selection of the Panama rather than the Nicaraguan route left room for debate on this provision. That is no reason why we should welsh.

Canada for many years has lived conscientiously up to its promises, giving American ships free and equal use of the Welland canal and the four other canals between Lake Ontario and tidewater, all of which have been constructed entirely with Canadian or British money.

It is not good judgment, good diplomacy, good economics or good politics to free American ships from the Panama canal tolls. We hope Mr. Harding's investigation is designed to get at the facts rather than to confirm him in a decision already made.

GAS WARFARE.

The moral question of the use of gas in warfare is disturbing nations which know how to make and use it. There may be a pronouncement against it in the league of nations which will be embarrassing to some of the powerful nations which have joined up. Great Britain suggests that the league go slowly in coming to a decision.

Superiority of weapons has given the civilized people their best and greatest defense against semi-civilized or uncivilized peoples. That superiority is the one best guaranty that civilization will not be overrun by barbarism.

When all men used the sword and engines of war were at their best very simple, barbarism and civilization fought a doubtful battle and barbarism sometimes engulfed civilization. When civilization raised its fighting strength above the intelligence of the barbarian it ceased to be threatened.

When white men had rifles and savages had arrows the frontiers of civilization were easily advanced and easily defended. Rifles became common property and civilization had some minor setbacks in encounters. Civilization took rapid fire guns, which savagery could not get. It produced high explosives and heavy guns. It produced airplanes. It has the submarine.

Superiority in warfare is produced by the intellect of civilization. Gas is the product of its laboratories and cannot be produced or used by semi-civilized or barbaric races. Before civilization outlaws the means which it can devise for its defense it should assure itself that it needs no defense.

There is much talk of pan-Asia and pan-Islam. There is talk of the rising of the Asiatic peoples. Of them all only the Japanese can organize the industry of war. Without the complicated industries of war no nation can stand against one of the great powers so organized. Russia is not the military menace it might be to democratic Europe because the Russians cannot organize and maintain the industry of war. If they could Lenin might become an invader. They can partly organize and partly use but not thoroughly or effectively, the way the French, British and Germans can.

Editorial of the Day

FOR NEWSPAPER WORK.

[Kewanee Star-Courier.]

Training for newspaper work is to be offered by a new institution in Chicago, the Joseph Medill School of Journalism. It is to be directed by Northwestern university, which will have the coöperation of the Chicago papers. This school will be able to provide advantages in training not afforded anywhere else in the west, and perhaps not in the entire country, the possible exception being the Pulitzer School of Journalism in New York. Practical teaching can be given because of the proximity of the great workshops of actual journalism which the Chicago newspapers will open for assistance in the project. Very properly the new school will carry the name of the great newspaper man who made THE TRIBUNE such a forceful agency in one of the most stirring periods of American history, Joseph Medill.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

MR. FREDERIC HARRISON at 89 observes: "May my end be early, speedy, and peaceful! I regret nothing done or said in my long and busy life. I withdraw nothing, and, as I said before, am not conscious of any change in mind. In youth I was called a revolutionary; in old age I am called a reactionary; both names alike untrue. . . . I ask nothing. I seek nothing. I fear nothing. I have done and said all that I ever could have done and said. There is nothing more. I am ready, and await the call."

A VERY good prose version of Henley's well known poem. As for regretting nothing, a man at forty would be glad to unsay and undo many things. At seventy, and decidedly at eighty-nine, these things have so diminished in importance that it is not worth while withdrawing them.

The Bitter-Endians.
(From the London Nation.)

If a democracy has to be drilled for the eventual task of one day destroying a dangerous commercial and naval rival, then the relentless cherishing of old memories of wrong, the resolve to keep green the recollection of every outrage and every infraction of the laws of war that can be charged against him, the resistance to every proposal for coöperation and reconciliation in the field of science and scholarship, is reasonable and even necessary, though it may also be outrageously wicked. Our "bitter-endians" are guilty of this wickedness without a reason. They cannot desire to "smash" Germany again, and yet they are cultivating the emotions appropriate to such a policy. This is mere sentimentality, for it is feeling, and very ill feeling, deliberately cherished, and prolonged for no rational purpose, however evil.

WE'LL agree that it ought not to be done. We will go further, and say that it ought not to be done even when it is as well assured as anything can be that if Germany were on top she would be cultivating a bumper harvest of hate.

They Can't Pull This Stuff on Smart Folks.
[From the Holton, Kas., Signal.]

How would you like to pay nine hundred and sixty dollars for two gallons of whisky? Nobody in Holton would pay that price, but that is what a fellow who said his name was John Custer tried to get for it here last week. The fellow put up at the Sutherland hotel and at once began to look around for customers to whom he proposed to sell the old reliable brand of "Taylor" whisky at sixty dollars per gallon, but the men who were familiar with the brand, which in time gone by they had purchased for four dollars a gallon, were shocked at the price asked, and word was passed to the sheriff that there was a profiteer in town and he was placed under arrest. After the arrest of Custer his room at the Sutherland hotel was searched by the officers, who found a two gallon jug under his bed. When the whisky was poured out it was discovered that instead of there being two gallons, there was only a pint and repeated shakings failed to produce any more. When the bottom was broken it was found that the jug had been filled nearly to the top with layers of sand and sawdust to make it the proper weight, and on top of this was a layer of waterproof cement, leaving enough space in the top to hold a pint of whisky.

NOT a bad definition of philosophy, from a high school exam paper: "Philosophy is a saying which is true but is expressed in an indirect way, such as, 'A rolling stone gathers no moss.' It is generally about lifeless objects or dumb creatures, but is deftly applied to human beings."

MOSQUITOES LIKE PORK.

LAST summer C. W. Metz of the Carnegie institute proposed a novel method of getting rid of malaria. His plan was one for the farm especially. He would have the farmer build a lot of small pig houses between his house and the ditch or pond in which mosquitoes were breeding.

Mosquitoes are fond of hog blood. For them no blue blooded, aristocratic human being is quite so attractive as the lowly hog. The theory was that the mosquitoes never would go up to the house to tackle the folks if they could get more appealing food nearer by. The mosquitoes would hang around the inside of the pig houses and feed whenever hunger impelled them. The proprietor could raise a trap door leading into the pighouse and kill the gorged, lethargic mosquitoes at his will.

About the same time a Frenchman, E. Roubaud, went still further in a recommendation along the same line. In certain parts of France, although there are great numbers of anopheles mosquitoes, there is no malaria. Furthermore, in those sections the people are almost unaware that there are any mosquitoes. In other sections, where there are fewer mosquitoes, the people complain more and malaria is more prevalent.

This is the way it is as they find upon closer study. In the grazing sections, though there are plenty of ditches and cow tracks in which mosquitoes breed and plenty of mosquitoes for that matter, there is little complaint from the people. The mosquitoes live among the cows, feed on them, rarely trouble human beings, rarely bear malarial parasites, and very rarely infect human beings.

On the other hand, in those sections where there is little live stock, the mosquitoes come into the houses, especially at night. They feed on human beings, spreading malaria, and making of themselves a general nuisance.

Roubaud suggests that in malarial sections the farmers keep more live stock. A pasture stocked with cows, located on the swamp side of a home, is a better shield against malaria than a grove of eucalyptus trees—and thirty years ago many people living in malarial sections planted rows of eucalyptus trees to ward off the miasma.

In his history of the sanitation of the Canal Zone, Gen. Gorgas told of using an old horse as mosquito bait. The horse did not seem to mind, and no man and no other animal was so attractive a line.

Roubaud suggests that we experiment to find what animals mosquitoes prefer to feed on and that we stock up malarial regions with those found to be most attractive to mosquitoes. In this way the inhabitants would be protected against mosquitoes and incidentally against malaria.

MAY NOT HAVE PTERYGIUM.

Mrs. W. E. A. writes: "I notice that you mention pterygium. I think I have that eye trouble. Does any drug cure it or is an operation necessary? I have only had this trouble six weeks. It seems to go and come. My eyes are very bloodshot sometimes and at other times clear."

REPLY.

If you have pterygium well established I do not think you will find any medicine will cause it to disappear. On the other hand pterygium does not call for much treatment until it begins to grow across the field of vision. It commonly causes little disturbance for a long time after it starts. If your trouble comes and goes and at times your eyes are bloodshot, it is probable that your trouble is not pterygium.

DUCTLESS GLAND PROBABLE CAUSE.

Henry B. writes: "No doubt you have many requests about how to reduce fat. I am a stout fellow, 18½ years old, weigh about 250 pounds. I am a heavy eater and enjoy good health. I smoke, but do not drink any liquor. I work at a place about a mile from home. Do you think that walk every night would reduce me? I am heavy above my legs, having a large stomach and big chest. What would you advise me to eat to reduce? I have been stout since I was about 11 years old."

REPLY.

You should walk both to and from work. In addition you must diet. Your tendency when you start walking will be to increase your food. If you yield to this tendency you will not lose flesh. Eat no sugar and nothing into which sugar enters. Eat sparingly of cereals, breads and foods made from flour. Live principally on meat, fat and watery vegetables. Persons who become obese in childhood generally have some abnormality of a ductless gland.

DEPENDS ON CAUSE.

S. G. L. writes: "Is there any chance to cure a heart murmur? Some doctors say yes if the patient is careful. I am 19 and weigh about 120 pounds."

REPLY.

If the murmur is due to anemia or to a condition of the heart muscle it can be made to disappear. If it is due to inflammation of the valve the murmur cannot be cured, but all symptoms due to it can be. In fact, a very large percentage of heart murmurs produce no symptoms. By proper living you should be able to build up your heart muscle and rid yourself of symptoms.

BETTER TAKE TREATMENT.

J. M. writes: "Was rejected from the army on account of a large hydrocele on the right side. They told me it never would bother me, but lately it has, and it is growing larger. I have had it for years. What can I do for it, instead of having an operation? Is it a serious operation? The army doctors told me I had an ingrown goiter also, and my heart, when I lie on my left side, pounds so I can feel it in any part of my body. What is that from?"

REPLY.

Hydrocele is a simple condition which generally disappears without operation. If operation is called for you need not worry. It is not serious. The cause of goiter is not known. One theory is that a lack of iodine in the food is the cause. If you have goiter bad enough to cause pounding of the heart you had better have a physician look after you.

WON'T HURT YOUR EYES.

M. L. writes: "Will it in any way injure the eyes to have hairs removed by the electric needle from the eyebrows and bridge of the nose?"

REPLY.

No.

EYES SWERVE.

"Worried" writes: "Can you kindly advise me as to the cause of a person's eyes crossing once in awhile? I have been thus bothered for about two or three months and can find no cure. I am 16 years old and slim for my age. My bowels are only apt to move when taking a physic. Can it be caused by my bowels or my food?"

REPLY.

You have a little strain or your eye muscles are out of balance. See an eye specialist.

MAJORITIES.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—In Saturday's TRIBUNE you state that if Debs were elected he would be seated. You say majority controls. Then can you answer this question: Why were Victor Berger and the New York assemblymen refused their seats if majority controls?

We did not say that he would be seated nor that a majority controls. Our argument took the opposite direction, that a man who could be elected would not be in prison. Two "majorities" were involved in the cases that you mention. In the Debs case only one is involved.

GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS.

1. What is the government of Brazil?

2. Where is the executive power in Sweden lodged?

3. What is the minimum age of a member of our house of representatives?

4. When does the term of each congress commence, and on the odd or even years?

5. Who has power to call special sessions of congress?

6. What is the name of the small principality in the Mediterranean surrounded by the French Department of Alpes Maritimes, excepting on the side toward the sea?

7. Who was elected governor of New York state on Nov. 2?

8. What are some of the main duties of the secretary of the interior?

9. Has the District of Columbia suffrage?

10. What is the state religion of the republic of Paraguay?

BOTANY ANSWERS.

1. How may poison ivy be recognized? By the number of its leaflets, three leaflets in each leaf, of an irregular outline.

2. What are some of the practical uses to which sea weed is put? It is burnt to make fertilizer, it is used as food for cattle, and some sea weeds contain iodine for medical uses.

3. When does the pink azalea or wild honeysuckle bloom? In early spring.

4. What are some of the ways by which the flowers of plants are fertilized? By insects, by the wind, and by the falling of flower pollen on the pistil of the same or different flowers.

5. How are strawberry vines propagated? By runners which strike root at the end and produce new plants.

6. What part of the flower develops to produce the greater portion of the strawberry? The receptacle develops into the greater portion of the strawberry.

7. Will leaves turn towards the light or from the light? Leaves turn towards the light, even at the expense of much movement.

8. What are the essential parts of a flower? The stamens and pistil.

9. What are the functions of each? One secretes pollen, the other forms seeds.

10. In America where are the magnolias best known? In the gulf states, but some species are hardy along the Appalachian mountains and as far north as southern Canada.

FOR OUR DISABLED VETERANS FIRST.

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 14.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Just now an extensive appeal is being made for funds to feed the children of central and southeastern Europe (that doubtless includes Germany). Full page advertisements are being inserted in metropolitan dailies. Twenty-three million dollars is the goal. Food and clothes for almost 3,500,000 children need to be supplied, the ads say.

Some people believe that we should continue to show in a practical fashion that America is bearing its share of the world's burden.

In this connection may I record here an expression of desire for governmental aid to our disabled war veterans? There is apparently too much red tape connected with government agencies for the relief of sick and wounded soldiers of the war. Senator Walsh of Massachusetts in an Armistice day speech declared that the government had been too stingy with its treatment of the disabled veterans.

In your "Inquiring Reporter" column a few days ago under the question, "How should we celebrate Armistice day?" one person is quoted as saying: "Pray for the boys who lie over there, who are in our hospitals, or who are in our poorhouses as a result of the sacrifices they made for us."

This affords proof that there is a general recognition that many disabled service men are in places other than those provided by the government for their care and treatment.

The nation owes a debt to its disabled soldiers. Will the new administration meet this obligation? Mr. Will H. Hays said during the campaign that the mothers of the country were going to answer the question whether their sons were to be engaged in future wars. In their answer Nov. 2 I am sure they also answered to the effect that ample provisions must be made for the disabled of the world war. BATTLE WILLIAMS.

IT'S A GAY LIFE IN MONTANA.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I have read with interest the writing of Mrs. Grace Dolezal in regard to conditions in Montana. I lived there ten years and have property and debtors there. I wish to say that there are many people living thirty-five to forty miles from a railroad, who have had no crops for four years. When I was there they had a good crop twice in ten years and in order for any profit to be made from a load of wheat the poor farmer would have to make the thirty-six to forty miles in a day and unload his wagon.

I can say that after paying the fiddler I found myself much poorer financially at the end of ten years than I was in the beginning and I had 150 head of cattle, too—no profit to me. One million cattle left Montana last year, never to return. They say let Mr. Armour raise the cattle, he raises everything else. I sold out my cattle in St. Paul and was glad to take what these good men offered me. J. W. HOYT.

TOO MANY LAWS.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—We, as a people, are the greatest nation of law makers on earth, and by the same token, I believe, the greatest law breakers. Our statute books are cluttered with nonenforced laws and ordinances; but whenever a situation arises that is doubtful how to handle immediately a new law is suggested as a remedy.

Your recent editorial, advocating a law whereby gun toting would be punishable by life imprisonment, while very commendable in that you are giving your opinion to the new chief, is to all intents and purposes unsound. If the writer's memory is correct, we for some time past have had a law making robbery with a deadly weapon punishable [illegible] in the penitentiary [illegible]. But, as you have often called attention, through political crookedness [illegible] has been ineffective. So of what use would another, even though [illegible] severe penalty, be in suppressing crime? For as long as we have lawless and unscrupulous politicians to handle our public affairs such crimes will be on the increase. W. J. B.

THE SELF-SACRIFICING BRITISH.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 12.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—In an issue of your paper of a few days ago there was an editorial headed, "Get Out of Asia Minor," and in it you say, among other things: "France and England made the orphans, let them take care of them," and further on, if England and France have any humanitarian feelings, let them do something for Armenia. I may not be quoting your exact words, as your article is not at hand at the moment, but I am giving the sentiment accurately enough for comment.

Regarding Armenia, the United States was earnestly requested by the great powers of Europe to accept a mandate over Armenia. Did she do so? Well, not that I know of. Mr. A. J. Balfour, in a letter to Mr. Gerard, formerly United States ambassador to Germany, said Britain had exactly the same interest in Armenia that the United States had, and no less. Mr. Gerard was urging Great Britain to take a mandate that the United States had refused to take, which, of course, was a very modest proposition. Great Britain has a mandate already for Mesopotamia and one for Palestine, which are costing enormously in lives and money. She is occupying with troops parts of Turkey, including Constantinople, part of Germany, and fighting the bolshevikists in Russia. The British dominions are doing their share. Australia has a mandate for some of the islands adjacent to her, which formerly belonged to Germany. New Zealand has a mandate for some of these islands. South Africa has a mandate for German southeast Africa.

Canada has no mandate, but sent troops to Russia after the armistice to fight for freedom against the bolsheviki, and the whole empire fought for four years when two and a half years did for the United States.

Canada, with a population of 8,000,000, sent 600,000 troops to the war and lost as many as the United States, which, with its claimed population of 110,000,000, should at that rate have sent at least 12,000,000.
T. C. KEENLEYSIDE.

PROPERTY RIGHTS AND NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—The present Republican position, apparently, from which few seem to appear to dissent, is that we shall determine what rights Americans are entitled to in Mexico, and that we shall also determine what rights Japanese are entitled to in California.

There is only one basis upon which such questions can be solved, and that is the understanding that every nation is sovereign within its territory. Foreigners are entitled to no rights in the United States beyond what the United States government grants them [illegible] hindered. And Americans have no rights in [illegible] in Mexico.

When alleged property rights begin to transcend national sovereignty, it is time to call a halt—which is true in Mexico as well as California.

To Beautify Home and Table for Thanksgiving

THE love of home and fireside that this great event implies is met on this page with suggestions seasonable, appropriate and low-priced, all specially considered to enhance the occasion.

IT will be noted that a great many of them would be just as suitable gift ideas for early choosers as they are happy suggestions for brightening the home for the holiday season.

From the Second Floor, Wabash Avenue Sections.

Smokers' Stand, $10

OF wood, in a Roman gilt and enameled finish. Smokers' Set, consisting of four nested ashtrays of glass in metal jackets, with a match-box holder. Set, $4.50.

THE Lacquered Boxes shown are newly arrived from the Orient. Suitable for either candies, cigars or cigarettes or for glove or handkerchief boxes; they are in several differnt colors and decorations. Heavily lacquered after a new and improved method, 50c to $3 each.

Dainty Rock Crystal Flower Set

FOUR small vases, to be used with the large vase and with glass chains to form an attractive centerpiece for a formal dinner. The Set, five Vases and Chain, complete, $6.50.

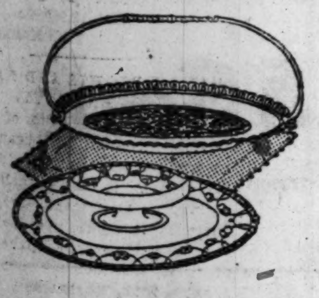
Colored Glass Ice Cream Set

OF blue or topaz glass, in a pleasing, simple shape, this Set consists of one tray and six plates. Special at $5 the Set. Tall Compote, in iridescent blue glass, $1.50. In addition to these there are Candy Jars, at $2.25; Salad Plates at $1 each, and small Bulb Bowls at $1 each, in blue and topaz. These pieces are only representative; the showing of varied articles in colored glass is just now complete and of unusual interest.

Cheery Candlelight Adds to a Table's Grace

THE perfect lighting for any meal is candlelight, soft, intimate, pleasing. New Candleshades have just arrived from Paris, fresh and charming for a Thanksgiving table. New, exclusive designs, ranging in price from $1.25 to $20 each. Gold bronze Candlesticks and Candelabra are also new from France.

Two Good Plates for Special Uses



THE Cake Plate, a piece of fine Royal Doulton ware, with a very handsome design, has a silver-plated handle. It is $5.

The Cheese-and-Cracker Plate is hand-painted in over a dozen characteristic Japanese patterns. Useful, of good, thin ware, and specially priced. $2.50.

These are chosen from a large number of excellent ideas for dainty service, dear to the heart of the woman who entertains at teas, luncheons and similar affairs.

New Lamps to Shed a Mellow Glow

A BOUDOIR or Desk Lamp, with 10-inch shade, is in mahogany, Roman gold or old ivory finish. $9.25 complete.

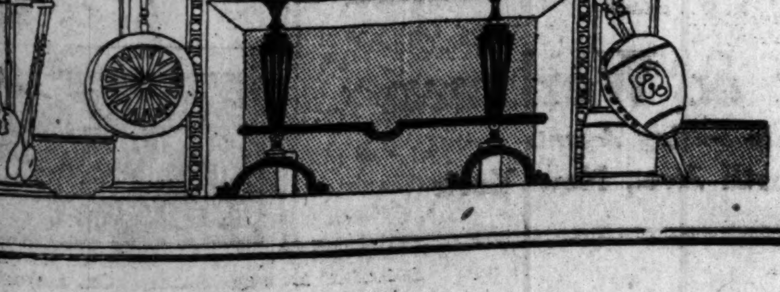
Mahogany-finished Reading Lamp, gooseneck type, with 10-inch silk shade, in an assortment of colors, very special at $18.50, complete.

New pottery, porcelain and wrought-iron Lamps are arriving now, in new, odd and tasteful shapes and colorings. Many of them are fresh from Europe, giving an idea of the newest tendencies in artistic furnishing. Others are original creations from our own shops and studios.

A Fireplace "Belongs to" Thanksgiving

CHESTNUTS roasted over the wood fire; apples sputtering on the hearth; corn a-popping, sparks flying up the chimney—that's real Thanksgiving evening for you!

All the little accessories that make a fireplace more usable—except fuel—are found in a little-known corner of the Lamp Section, where Andirons, Scuttles and other "Fireplace Tools" are shown.



It Is Still Hard to Get Enough China

But Here There Is Ample Store to Set Many Holiday Tables

BECAUSE we ordered great quantities over a year ago, we are able to announce at this time that we are well stocked with Dinner Sets of all sizes, in dozens of good, desirable patterns.

China is still hard to get. As we have mentioned before, it takes four pounds of coal to make a pound of china; and recent advices from the English pottery districts tell us that skilled labor, absolutely essential to china manufacture, is very scarce. It takes a long time to make a potter, and the war depleted the ranks of pottery workers sorely.

So it is only because of long-planned preparation that we have this stock; and this planning has had its effect not only on selection, but also on prices, which are on this account lower than is ordinary.

Here Are Some of the Sets of Unusual Merit

32-piece American Semi-Porcelain Set, in several conventional open-stock borders, at $9.50.

50-piece Set of the same ware, $15, $17.50 and $18.50 Set.

90-piece Sets, same styles and ware, $32.50, $35, $39.50 and $42.50 Set.

A Good Showing of Imported Sets

97-piece Set of Imported China, in a flowered design, a remarkable value, $36.50.

99-piece Sets, conventional border, six decorations, $50.

107-piece Set, flowered or conventional border, five designs, $59.50.

Encrusted Gold Set, in wide band decoration, 106 pieces, on thin imported ware, $250.

51-piece Sets of French China, in thin, serviceable ware, delicately traced floral border decoration, coin gold handle, $37.50 and $48.50 Set.

Imported coin gold border Sets, thin china, 90 pieces, $92.50 Set.

These Dinner Sets are mentioned at this time because so many families wish to replenish their tableware before Thanksgiving; but the values are so much out of the ordinary that we strongly advise that those who intend waiting until before Christmas be sure to investigate these Sets.

In addition to the Dinner Sets, many of our Open-Stock patterns are now being shown in complete ranges.

Annual Clearance of Stemware

Prices Greatly Reduced

GOBLETS, Sherbets, Tumblers, Finger Bowls, Plates, plain, etched, Rock Crystal and gold-decorated, are reduced in a clearance which is intended to move from our shelves all odd and discontinued patterns and pieces. Prices range from 15c, 25c, 35c and 50c upward. Not every article is available at every price—and of many the quantity is limited. It is suggested that choice be made early.

The Galleries Place a Belt of Beauty Around These Sections

TO show the finest of wares in a setting that is worthy of them—that is the reason for the special rooms which semi-surround the "Second Floor, Wabash Avenue, Sections." Each Room is planned to convey the spirit of the ware it contains, and to make possible a display that is both comprehensive and fitting. Thus they aid our customers to easier, more leisurely inspection.

The Picture Galleries are especially representative of this aim—for with their neutral-tinted walls and carefully controlled lighting, they give to every painting the freedom to show forth its utmost merit, unhampered by its surroundings. There are several of these Galleries, with one larger one in which important exhibitions are held.

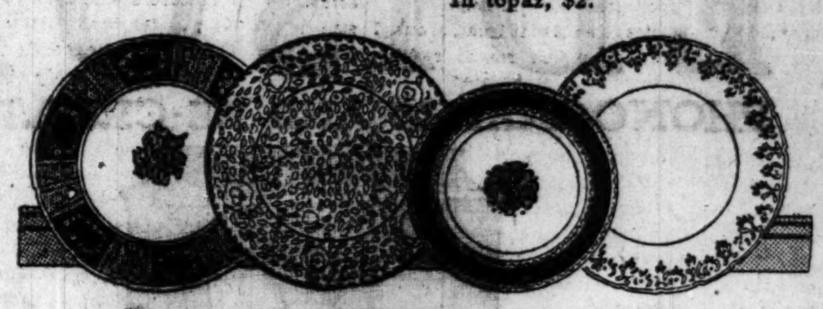
Other important rooms in the series are the Chinese and Antique Rooms in the Antique Section; the Rookwood Room and the Tiffany Corner; the three Lamp Rooms; the Fireside Corner, where Fireplace accessories are shown, and the Wedgwood, Tea Set, Lenox China and Plate Rooms, in the China Section.

Desk Set, $14

A SET in colored silk, decorated with enameled floral sprays. Consists of pad, with corners, letter-rack, blotter, calendar, pen-wiper and inkwell In rose, blue, green, ivory and lavender.

Our Parchment Flowers

NOWHERE else in Chicago can one find these glowing, cleverly-conceived bits of color. There are Chrysanthemums at $2.50, Roses and Poinsettias, $2; other flowers at $1.25 each; Bouquets at $10, $15, $20 and $25 each. The blue glass Bowl, with its black glass stand, is $1.85. In topaz, $2.

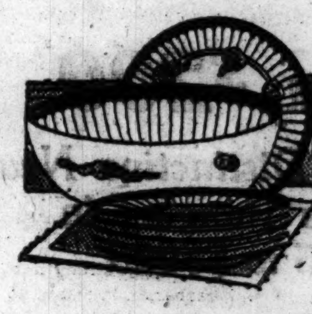


"Dozens" of Plates, Cups, Etc., Greatly Reduced

A SPECIAL lot of discontinued and odd Service Plates, Cups and Saucers, Salad Plates, Demi-Tasses, Soup Plates, etc., in a wide range of decorations, sizes and shapes is arranged on a special table as a timely selling event. Prices are most unusually low.

Quaint, Delightful Turkey Sets

THE Copeland pottery made these up expressly for us, of English earthenware, decorated with a noble turkey in full feather on each piece. The coloring is warm and attractive; the design just a little old-fashioned, enough so to be appealing. It has been several years since we were able to get Sets like this. Prices for pieces are $12 to $75 a dozen for Plates; Platters, $10 to $75 each.



Imari Salad Sets in Rich Decorations

THESE Sets have a deep allover Japanese design, enameled over a background of black or yellow—a very effective combination. Each Set consists of a large Bowl and six Salad Plates—the price is highly unusual at $15.

Also, just now we are showing an unusually attractive line of Salad Sets at prices up to $125 Set.

A Wedgwood Bowl of Pierced Ware

A BEAUTIFUL Bowl for fruit or flowers, in the creamy white Wedgwood, gracefully shaped and pierced as only this pottery can fashion such pieces. $27.50.

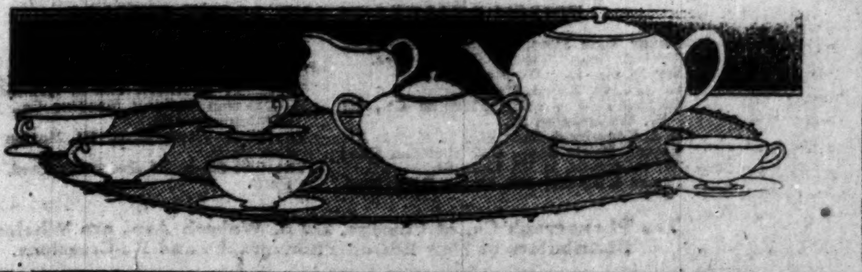
Blue or brown pottery Bowl, five bulbs, and gravel in dainty gift box, for $2. Bulbs planted now will bloom by Christmas.

A Chocolate Set of Unusual Shape, $10

THIN china, in a graceful, unusual shape; in either pink or blue, with a thin line of white to offset the intensity of the color. Set consists of pitcher, sugar and creamer and six cups and saucers. This is just one of many different Sets of similar composition, in all sorts of colors, styles, shapes, sizes and prices, which are shown in a special room devoted to Chocolate Sets, Tea Sets and similar special purpose collections.

Awaji Tea Sets, $10, Priced Very Low

THE popular Awaji ware has not sold at so low a price for some years—this time it is only because of a special purchase of Sets made several years ago that such a price is possible. The Sets are in six colors—lavender, blue, rose, turquoise, yellow and green, in the characteristic Awaji cool, shining finish. Each Set consists of Teapot Sugar and Creamer and six Cups and Saucers.



MRS. CRANE GETS A DIVORCE, ALSO $100,000 IN CASH

Son's Rights Protected.

"In the meantime his interests are fully protected. He is in no way a party to this action, and his property and inheritance rights are in no wise affected by anything done here today. My only hope is that he will have both the care of his mother and the support and friendship of his father. There is no reason why he should not."

He gave $10,000 fees to Mrs. Crane's counsel.

Mrs. Crane listened attentively to the court. When he concluded she smiled. A reporter approached her.

"Mrs. Crane," he begins, "would you mind telling——"

"The judge said I might resume my maiden name," she interrupts. "It is Piza—not Crane."

She added that she intended to remain in the United States—she liked it much better than Costa Rica. It is possible that her father and mother will remain, too.

Given Time to Vacate.

Valentine Crane, supported by a delegation of lawyers, interrupted the interview to explain that "there need be no undue haste in vacating the farm—a reasonable time will be allowed and all bills contracted while Mrs. Crane and the child remain there will be paid by Mr. Crane."

"Thank you," the Costa Rica beauty replied, and bowed herself gracefully out of the picture.

Mr. Crane, the newly made bachelor, awaited the message of freedom in the attorney's room. Valentine broke the news.

SISTERS SAY ARTIST USED ART TO TRICK THEM OUT OF $195

GERALDINE LA RUE

The girls charge that Brown, who was Jacqueline's employer, took $195 from them under false pretenses.

"I am a washing machine saleswoman and demonstrator," Geraldine told the judge. "Several days ago I sent $195 to Jacqueline from Grand Rapids to buy a coat for me."

JACQUELINE LA RUE.

"When I got the money," Jacqueline took up the story, "I showed it to Brown, who had given me a position painting butterflies on linen collars. Brown offered to take the money and get my sister a coat at wholesale. I was delighted at his kindness. But after getting the money he disappeared."

EXCHANGE SHOTS WITH ROBBERS.

Several shots were exchanged when three armed men attempted to hold up Joseph Schon of 5220 South Sacramento avenue yesterday at Fifty-second street and Kedzie avenue. Schon opened fire on the trio and gave chase as they turned and ran. The bandits fired back.

NEW DRY CHIEF HOPES TO WORK WITH THE POLICE

Closer coöperation between police officers and federal authorities in enforcing prohibition laws was predicted yesterday following the appointment of Frank D. Richardson as new supervising prohibition agent to succeed Maj. A. V. Dalrymple.

Pending official confirmation of his appointment from Washington Mr. Richardson refused to make a statement as to his policy in the operation of the office. He did say, however, that if appointed he would immediately confer with the chief of police on ways and means of making Chicago a dry city.

The selection of Richardson is regarded as a victory for the Anti-Saloon league forces, which favored him for the place on recommendation of Maj. Dalrymple.

M'CORMICK PLANS EUROPEAN TOUR OF OBSERVATION

Present day conditions in Europe, and particularly those affected by the peace treaty, will be examined at first hand by Senator Medill McCormick. The senator told intimate friends yesterday that he will visit nearly all of the capitals of Europe.

Senator McCormick will leave Chicago some time this week, and will be back in the United States in time to be present at the inauguration of Harding on March 4 next. He also said that he hoped to be able to go as far east as Warsaw and examine the Polish situation.

Rev. J. J. McCann, Ousted Pastor of Elgin, Is Dead

The Rev. John Joseph McCann, former pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church in Elgin, who was ousted by Bishop Muldoon after his alleged marriage to a former nun two years ago, died yesterday in a sanitarium in Seattle, Wash. He had been working in a mail order plant there under the name of John Niles, it is said.

FEAR DAUGHTER OF THEATER MAN IS HELD CAPTIVE

Miss Bronze Shauley, 17 years old and pretty, daughter of a theater owner in New York, has been missing from the home of her uncle, Dr. W. A. Strikol, 2914 West Forty-third street, since Sunday morning. She was employed as a cashier in a chop suey restaurant at 4705 South Ashland avenue, of which the doctor is part owner. She did not reach home at her usual time Saturday evening, and when she arrived Sunday morning she gave as the reason for being out that she had worked late. Her clothing was disheveled. Shortly afterward she left and has not been seen since. It is feared she may be held captive on the south side.

Yesterday a girl friend of Miss Shauley living below Dr. Strikol was called to the telephone. A girl who she says was Miss Shauley began to arrange for a meeting with her on Indiana avenue somewhere between Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh streets. Before the conversation was completed the girl was stopped and loud curses and screams were heard over the wire. Attempts to trace the call failed.

EDISON

PHONOGRAPHS AND RE-CREATIONS

Sheraton, $200

One of Seventeen Distinctive New Edison Cabinets Ranging in Price from $95 to $6000

Of course, the only measure of the phonograph's value as a musical instrument lies in its realism. However, the exterior beauty is of great importance. Those who know and appreciate good music can scarcely be satisfied with a cabinet of ordinary appearance.

It is only fitting that the New Edison should be the most beautiful of all phonographs. Every one of the seventeen distinctive models is an authentic replica of the works of one of the great masters of the Golden Age of furniture. Every one is wrought of the finest woods and finished by skilled craftsmen. The wide range of design and finish in which the New Edison comes is ample to satisfy the discriminating individual taste of the owner.

Music's Re-Creation is so true to the original that one never thinks of it as phonographic reproduction.

The NEW EDISON

Even records of all other makes sound more human when played on the New Edison

We invite you to visit our shop; to see and hear this beautiful phonograph and its marvelous power of Re-Creation. Let us tell you how easily you can have a New Edison by getting it on our budget plan.

IG BILL'S WHITE HOUSE BEE BITES FAHERTY IN N. Y.

st Like Lincoln, Asserts Road Builders' Chief.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

New York, Nov. 16.—[Special.]—"Mayor" William Hale Thompson is the greatest statesman Illinois has produced since Lincoln. As a politician he is without a peer in the west and we believe he will be president in four years.

"Mike" Faherty, president of the Chicago board of local improvements is the author of the above views. He spoke tonight to 400 members of the American Roadbuilders' association at the Automobile Club of America.

"Mike" had just been unanimously elected president of the organization which will have a four days' exhibition at the Chicago Coliseum beginning Feb. 7.

Boosts Boosters' Boosting.

It was in the address of the "new president" that "Mike" took occasion to devote probably three-quarters of his speech to the city hall administration of Chicago. He told what Mayor Thompson has done in glowing fashion and gave much praise to the Boosters' club.

"But we're a joke in doing things as compared with New York," concluded "Mike."

He has been here for two days inspecting asphalt block pavements. Accompanying him are three other members of the board of local improvements, Leonard Dithall, Oscar Wolff, and Mrs. Irene Montanya, and Chairman John Toman, council committee on streets.

May Try Asphalt Here.

State street in Chicago between Lake and Eleventh streets is to be repaved and promoters of the asphalt block are attempting to get it tried on that thoroughfare.

The State street department stores have had L. A. Dumont of the Chicago Association of Commerce here for several days investigating the merits and demerits of the asphaltic blocks. The South State Street Improvement association, speaking for the frontage south of Van Buren street, have Leo Heller also investigating.

RING SELLER ARRESTED.

Nov. 16 is Edward Mitchell's unlucky day. He was arrested on that day fifteen years ago and he was arrested yesterday. He is charged with selling a glass ring as a $200 diamond one.

Lost Fight with Waukegan Editor, Fined $132, Too

Waukegan, Ill., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Charles A. Worack, president of the Waukegan park board, today pleaded guilty to assault and battery upon William J. Smith, editor of the Waukegan Daily Sun, and was fined $100 and $32.80 costs. Worack attacked the editor on the street after the latter had written articles criticizing the activities of the park board. The editor won the spectators' decision in the street battle, too.

Burley Re-elected Head of Historical Society

Clarence A. Burley was reëlected president at the annual meeting of the Chicago Historical society yesterday. Other officers are: Vice presidents, George Merryweather and Dr. Otto L. Schmidt; treasurer, Orson Smith; trustees, Marshall Field III., Arthur Meeker, Frank D. Stout, Judge Henry Horner, Robert C. Fergus, Bronson Peck, Mrs. Lessing Rosenthal, and George A. Carpenter.

There was a special exhibition of the Gunther relics.

SPECIAL-SIX SEDAN

—a car that gives real comfort

Solidity of construction and abundant power combine to make this Sedan a car of unusual comfort and satisfaction.

Eight solid upright posts, extending from floor to roof, lend a solidity that makes it particularly free from annoying rattles.

Its four doors, swinging wide open, provide easy entrance and exit for all passengers—an unusual closed car feature.

Soft carpeting, subdued harmony of coloring in the upholstery, inviting depth of cushions—offer an irresistible appeal.

The appointments are complete in every detail. Nothing that would add to comfort and convenience—to protection and utility—has been neglected. Rain-proof windshield, silver-faced jeweled 8-day clock, artistic cut glass dome light, massive head lights of unique design, automatic window regulators, silk roller curtains at windows—these are features every connoisseur of closed car quality will appreciate.

Now, while we are in position to make delivery, we urge you to come in and see this distinctive Sedan.

LABOR LEADERS PLAN TO KEEP MEN AT WORK

Deal with Problem of Idleness.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Labor leaders point to the enormous waste caused by unsteady employment as one great argument for the establishment in industry of some system of labor reservoirs against periods of idleness. As to method everybody is quite hazy, but some of the suggested ways of reducing unemployment and of spreading work more evenly over the entire year are:

The storing up by industries where possible of work for the dull season instead of letting everything go over the dam in flood periods of business.

Closer dovetailing of winter and summer trades.

The encouraging of subsidiary trades to readjust so that their peak loads of work will come when work in other lines is slack.

Systematic direction of seasonal labor—getting the men to the jobs with least loss of time.

Kearney Gives Views.

"It is a most involved problem and it calls for scientific handling," said Thomas Kearney, president of the Chicago Building Trades council. "Think of the vast waste caused by seasonal unoccupation. For example, in the building trades at present I believe the average man in some crafts is not able to put in much more than 175 days a year. It's higher in some lines and lower in others. Generally speaking, a skilled worker likes to stick to his craft, but some other occupations give opportunity for his service. Basic industries like iron and steel, mining and building, ought to be carried on full force as long as their season permits. But there are some industries where adjustment might be made.

Cites One Instance.

"For instance, an automobile factory can work all year long if supplies, orders and business conditions are all right—it's in a shop, under cover. It uses many carpenters, painters, sheet metal workers, and so on. If such a factory should arrange to put on its peak load of men in the winter months when building shuts down it would offer a chance of work to seasonally unoccupied men in the building crafts."

Ald. Tom Byrne, for many years a labor leader, has pronounced views on the subject.

"A total of 14,000,000 men and women are engaged in the three great basic lines of manufacturing, mining and transportation," said Ald. Byrne. "At least 20 per cent are subject to seasonal unemployment—some put it much higher, but even at that rate we have nearly 3,000,000 workers in these three lines, subject to fluctuating employment. Just imagine the waste to society and the loss to the workers themselves. What is the value of high wages if a man has to be idle one, two or three months a year?

Would Warn of Layoffs.

"Employers might help by furnishing advance notice of contemplated layoffs or increases in force. And, too, many industries might conserve labor, which means production, which means prosperity and comfort, by piling up some work to be done in slack seasons, so that fewer hands would be laid off. They'd have a reservoir of work to keep their hands busy and their forces intact. Look at coal mining—it's a crime the maner in which miners find themselves without work in the summer time, simply because there is no real system directed to labor conservation."

U. S. Liquor Permits Must Be Renewed Before Jan. 1

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—All outstanding government liquor permits issued prior to Jan. 17 will expire automatically on Dec. 31, and applications for renewal must be filed by Dec. 1, under regulations issued today by Com[illegible] Williams. Officials of the revenue bureau explained the effect of the regulations would make the life of the permits one year instead of indefinite, as heretofore.

A Meal that Appeals to a Hungry Man

THICK slices of roast beef—and rice, boiled southern style, make a meal that can't be beaten. The rice should be cooked so that each flake stands alone. Then the meat gravy should be poured over it. There's nothing more delicious.

There isn't a meal that you can't serve rice with. Eat it with sugar and cream for breakfast. Make it into a tasty dish for lunch. Serve it as a vegetable for dinner. Eat rice as you do potatoes with gravy or butter on it. Eat it every day. There is no better food than rice—and American rice is the finest in the world.

It only takes one cupful to make enough for a family of five. Any that's left can be combined with leftover meats and made into many appetizing dishes. Rice is never wasted. There are over three hundred ways to prepare it. It is the most economical food.

Rice is the most healthful food, too. It nourishes. It builds strength and sustains it through long working hours. It promotes healthy growth in children. Rice digests more quickly and easily than any other food.

ASSOCIATED RICE MILLERS OF AMERICA, Inc., New Orleans, La.

Follow this Master Recipe

Out of the sunny south comes this master recipe for cooking rice. It is so simple, that anyone by following it can easily cook rice the first time they try.

Wash rice thoroughly in a strainer. Use a deep porcelain or agate-ware kettle. To four cups of boiling water add one level teaspoonful of salt. Then add one cup of washed rice so slowly that water continues to boil. Lift rice occasionally with fork, and shake kettle so that no kernels stick to bottom. But—this is important—never stir the rice. Boil twenty minutes. Then pour water off, if any, and place in open oven where it will finish swelling without burning. Each grain will stand alone, plump, tender, and delicious.

PILOU

Cut four pounds of meat from the bone into pieces of about two ounces each, mix one-half cup flour and one teaspoonful salt together, rub the pieces of meat in this, place in a pot in which has been melted two tablespoonfuls lard and one large sliced onion. Let fry five minutes, then add one and one-half pints water, a little cayenne, one bunch sweet herbs and simmer for one and one-half hours. Place the meat and sauce in center of dish and make a border of boiled rice. Place in oven for five minutes and serve.

TENDERLOIN WITH RICE

Slice the beef into thin, small pieces. Let brown one small onion and one tablespoonful of butter in a sauce pan, add the sliced meat and let fry for five minutes. Cover with boiled rice and sprinkle over one tablespoonful of flour, two cups of milk, two tablespoonfuls of Worcestershire Sauce. Add some parsley and let cook for a few minutes longer and serve in a warmed dish.

CLAM CHOWDER AND RICE

Cut a quarter of a pound of salt pork into thin slices and fry until brown and crisp, add to it a minced onion and a tablespoonful of butter. Slice a pint of cold boiled Irish potatoes. Have a cup of cold boiled rice. Chop two dozen clams quite fine. Put all into a kettle in alternate layers, season with salt and pepper and pour in three cups of hot water. Cover with a tight fitting lid and simmer fifteen minutes. Any kind of fish sauce may be served with this chowder.

EAT YOUR WAY TO GOOD HEALTH

Delicious New Cereal Food Is Taking Place of Pills And Laxatives.

Does Not Force Nature, but Makes Everything Normal, Natural, Thorough.

When Cereal Meal is made in sufficient quantities and the sixty million constipation sufferers of this country become acquainted with the wonderful results to be obtained from eating it, pills, laxatives and other methods of FORCING NATURE to act will become obsolete and constipation practically unknown.

For generations physicians have searched for a natural means of relieving constipation—something to replace cathartics, which were always given at the physical expense and discomfort of the patient. Cereal Meal meets every requirement of both physician and patient.

Secure a package of Cereal Meal and allow it to take the place of the cereal you are now eating. You will find it fully as appetizing and nourishing and, in addition, you will find that your bowels will become as regular as the clock—free, easy, complete movements—not the distressing, griping, incomplete, irritating movements forced by drugs.

"'The Ideal Health Food'—I have found by using it that it well deserves the name," writes Mr. G. W. N., Center, Ill.

Cereal Meal is in no sense a "physic." It contains no drug. Constipation is caused by missing elements in the food you are eating. Cereal Meal supplies these "missing elements" and nature does the rest.

Should Cereal Meal fail to give you the relief this announcement may lead you to believe it will, after you have eaten the contents of one package, ask for the amount you paid for the package and it will be returned to you without argument. In other words, Cereal Meal is guaranteed to you.

Indigestion, headaches, fermentation, sallow complexion, hemorrhoids and many other disagreeable symptoms and conditions are but secondary to constipation. Properly relieve constipation and, in the vast majority of cases, these symptoms and conditions will quickly disappear.

"I am telling all my friends about it. Wish I had known of it before," writes Mr. O. J. F., Chicago, Ill.

"My wife has thrown away her pill box; also myself," writes Mr. J. A. J., Chicago, Ill.

It is an easy matter to secure and try a package of Cereal Meal. You have very much to gain in the way of good health and freedom from constipation. You have nothing to lose. If it disappoints you the amount you paid for a package will be refunded without question.

Secure a package of Cereal Meal TODAY (direct from the manufacturer—not as yet in drug or grocery stores) and you will have found something which you have longed for ever since you became constipated—relief of the right kind.

Write direct to the manufacturer,

1438-B Tremont St.

FOX, "MYSTERY" MAN OF PRIMARY SUIT, LOCATED

Mayor Credits New Chief with Fast Work.

William Fox, in whose name the legal attack on the constitutionality of the primary act of July 1, 1919, was carried to the Supreme court, is reported to be "where the police can put hands on him at a moment's notice."—Fox had been long sought by former Chief of Police Garrity. Word that he has been found came from West Baden where Mayor Thompson made the announcement.

"Garrity looked for Fox for six months; Fitzmorris found him in six days," was the comparison Mayor Thompson drew between the new chief and former Chief Garrity.

Illegal Voting Confessed.

Fox confessed to illegal voting in the spring primary. His appeal resulted in a decision that the law was unconstitutional. Mayor Thompson charged that the confession of Fox was a frame up to oust the thirty-four ward committeemen elected by the Thompson forces.

Writ of Habeas Corpus Issued.

A writ of habeas corpus for the release of Fox was obtained before Judge John J. Sullivan yesterday. It was served on Chief Fitzmorris, who denied that Fox is in custody in Chicago. He refused to discuss the case further. It is reported Fox has been turned over to the authorities of another county to get him outside the jurisdiction of Cook county courts.

He Knew His Dealer

A man told us yesterday how he went about buying a home in Wilmette last April, and, although we sell investment securities instead of real estate, we are going to pass the story along to you, because the point is obvious. "The first thing I did," said the man, "was to satisfy myself that the real estate agent was reliable. Having done this, I considered my job was finished—I let the agent take all the responsibility. So, when he told me he had a bargain for me at $4,850, I knew it WAS a bargain, for I knew my agent. Today my friends are calling me lucky because I have recently refused $9,000 for the place."

The buying theory of our friend is being employed more and more in these days of diverse offerings of bonds. Few men know more than one business well. Many are unable to give the necessary time or studying to changing investment conditions. Curtis and Sanger's investment recommendations are backed by a record of satisfactory service in investment dealings since 1885.

We will send our pamphlet, "November Investment Recommendations," to you without obligation, if you wish it.

CONGRESS MAY PROHIBIT ALL GRAIN GAMBLING

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—A united assault by midwest congressmen on the Chicago Board of Trade operators and on the Minneapolis millers at the opening of the present session of congress is promised by Congressman C. Frank Reavis of Nebraska, who reached Washington today.

The grain growers of the midwest, says Reavis, charge that market manipulations have had much to do with unreasonably depressing the price of wheat, corn, and other grains, while the millers have juggled the grain standardizations to buy from the growers at low standards and sell to the consumers at high standards.

"Midwest congressmen will get together before the opening of congress," said Reavis, "and present a united front in demanding legislation that shall prohibit gambling in grains and regulate dealings on the Chicago and other boards of trade where grains are handled. We shall demand also a new federal system of grain standardization."

Urge Sale of Products.

Waterloo, Ia., Nov. 16.—That the farmers of Iowa would use their own judgment in disposing of the products of their farms seemed to be the general opinion of the agricultural men of the state upon leaving the meeting of farmers and bankers here today.

Bankers declared they had gone the limit in financing the farmers of the state and recommended the selling of farm products to help liquidate their obligations.

W. A. Heath of the Federal Reserve bank, Chicago, was a guest and gave a brief talk.

The leading speech of the meeting was that by E. H. Cunningham, secretary of the Farm Bureau federation, Ames, Ia. He told of the burden being borne by the farmers of the state, and advised them to sit tight on the lid until grain gets somewhere near the price of production.

DENIES WHEAT COMBINE.

On behalf of the farmers' marketing committee of seventeen, recently appointed by the American Farm Bureau federation, C. V. Gregory, editor of a farm journal here, yesterday issued a statement denying that the committee had adopted any plan for marketing wheat. Recent reports said the committee, of which Mr. Gregory is a member, was about to float a giant wheat combine.

18 U. S. MILLIONS BADLY HOUSED, KENYON SAYS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Senator Kenyon returned today from an investigation of the housing conditions in the country conducted by a special senate committee, and announced that it was the greatest problem before the country. He said there were about 18,000,000 people in the United States not properly housed and that the United States was 1,000,000 homes short.

Federal assistance should be given the home builders, Senator Kenyon urged, just as the government had aided the farmers through the farm loan banks.

"In Chicago we found in one congressional district an average of seventeen persons to one house and 500,000 persons without decent living facilities," he said. "Many of these are aliens and it so happens that those suffering most are the alien population. Such a condition surely breeds discontent and encourages movements against the government. Much of the crime results from this condition."

ELGIN MASONIC TEMPLE BURNS.

Elgin, Ill., Nov. 16.—Fire believed to have been caused by crossed electric wires destroyed the Spring Street Masonic temple here today. The temple was the home of all but one of Elgin's Masonic and affiliated lodges for nearly fifteen years. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

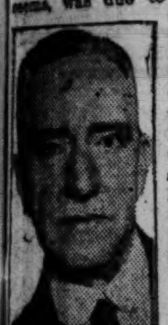
QUITS POLICE "TILL HARRISON IS MAYOR AGAIN"

Bowler Refuses New Job; Another "Vet" Resigns.

SERGT. JAMES BOWLER.



JOSEPH E. DARGAN.

Alas for the old guard! Yesterday Sergt. James Bowler and Operator Joseph E. Dargan quit the police force.

Curt and to the point was the former. Walking into the office of Chief Charles Fitzmorris—

"I resign," he said, according to his subsequent account. "But I'm not going out for good. I'll be back on the force in two and a half years, when Harrison is mayor again."

With this he retired. His pique, it seems, was due to the new chief's order transferring every patrol sergeant in the department. For the last twenty years Sergt. Bowler had been at the Desplaines street station, and he could not bear the thought of departing for alien fields.

On Force Since 1874.

Sergt. Bowler is 72 years old, but spry and agile. He has worn the copper blue since 1874, when he entered police circles under the reign of Chief "Mike" Hickey and Mayor Colvin. He served in the lumber riots of '76, the butcher riots of '79, the Haymarket riots of '86.

The retiring sergeant took occasion to utter a few observations on constabularies, past and present.

"The trouble with the department nowadays," he said, "is that they put in too many young fellows. No one under 25 was allowed to wear the blue in my time.

"This transferring business is all wrong. If a cop can't make good in one place, he can't in another. There are few honest men left on the force.

"There isn't any respect for cops any more. Time was when a citizen would come up and volunteer information when a crook had been caught. Now he has to be subpoenaed, and then you are never certain he will tell what he knows.

"There's too much politics in the department nowadays. If a chief were given free reign, crime would be stopped."

Sergt. Bowler is an uncle of Ald. James Bowler. He says he often chased Mayor Thompson when as a kid at a west side school "Big Bill" would perpetrate his pranks. Those were the days when there were no patrol wagons or telephones.

"Way-Back-Whenner."

Operator Dargan has been on the force for thirty-three years. Twenty-four years he spent at Desplaines street. His transfer to Warren avenue broke his heart.

Dargan is a way-back-whenner. Among his recollections is a rare gem of retrospect: James Aloysius Durkin entering the station with a cane and saying:

"Well, boys, any news for THE TRIBUNE?"

$500,000 LEFT TO CHARITY BY MRS. GORMULLY

Almost $500,000—two-thirds of the estate of the late Mrs. Angela C. Gormully, widow of Richard P. Gormully, bicycle manufacturer—is bequeathed to Chicago's poor, charitable institutions, hospitals, and Catholic colleges. The will was filed for probate yesterday.

A gift of $100,000 outright is provided for Chicago's poor, with the Catholic bishop of Chicago as administrator of the fund. St. Joseph's hospital, 744 Garfield boulevard, receives $10,000 for the maintenance of one room, and Alexian Brothers' at 1200 Belden avenue is bequeathed $5,000.

There is a gift of $10,000 to the Catholic bishop of Chicago for four scholarships for young men entering the priesthood; a bequest of $60,000 to the Roman Catholic North American college at Rome, Italy; one of $10,000 to the Convent of the Sacred Heart at Lake Forest for the establishment of the Mary O'Meara scholarship fund; and a gift of $1,000 to St. Ignatius college.

THIEVES EJECT SMALL BOY; GO ON WITH LOOTING

Bobbie crawled under the couch when the burglars came into his home, St. Lawrence avenue, yesterday, he snuffled and gave himself away. The burglars dragged him out, thrust him into the hallway, and went on with their work. They obtained about $500 worth of jewelry and clothing.

Bobbie, who is 10 years old, and the son of Fred P. Dillon, had heard the burglars working on the door across the hall, peaked out, and then locked his own door. It gave the pair no pause, however. The other door they were unable to open.

A sneak thief looted the home of H. Schiller at 5038 St. Lawrence—just across the street from the Dillons' flat while the Schillers were at dinner last night. He made a ten foot climb to a wall. He got jewelry worth $1,000.

U. of C. Coeds Who Will Take Leading Parts in Musical Comedy.

GRACE BENNETT.

ELIZABETH STONE.
[Koehne Photo.]

MORE than 200 co-eds at the University of Chicago will take part in the production of the biggest musical comedy ever staged by the women of the Midway, to be given in the early part of the New Year in an effort to surpass the efforts of the men's musical comedy organization, the Blackfriars. "Joy of Singhai" is the name of the girl's production which was written by Miss Josephine Strode.

Miss Grace Bennett, a dancer popular with the U. of C. theater patrons, was chosen for the leading woman's rôle yesterday by the board of judges from among a score who tried out for the part. She is to be Joy Hilo. Miss Elizabeth Stone, daughter of the Rev. John Timothy Stone, and Virginia Foster, signer of "jazz" ditties, will play the leading "male" rôles, the Mayor of Singhai and Sang Froy, respectively.

A chorus of fifty of the prettiest co-eds will be picked today from among several hundred who tried out. The co-eds announce their show will easily surpass the Blackfriars, because their chorus will need no impersonation, will lack the awkwardness displayed by the men coryphees, and will equal any downtown chorus in pulchritude and grace.

SCHOOL BOARD IS 'BUFFALOED,' SAYS MRS. SNODGRASS

MRS. E. G. SNODGRASS.
[Melvin Sykes Photo.]

Charges that members of the board of education fear to hold a meeting until Mayor Thompson has named her successor were made yesterday by Mrs. Edward G. Snodgrass, a holdover member. She declared her colleagues have carefully avoided having a quorum present ever since the meeting on Sept. 22, when she threw a monkey wrench into the technique of the board's procedure, and that she has them "buffaloed."

At this meeting she openly charged A. H. Severinghaus, chairman of the buildings and grounds committee, with holding secret meetings of the committee.

Her term, with that of Dr. Sadie Bay Adair, expired last May, but under the law she remains a board member until the mayor has named her successor and the council has ratified his selection.

WHO ISN'T WHO SEEMS CLEAR IN $10,000 STICKUP

Nor Was That Crap Game in Room 334.

In the baffling $10,000 mystery there still remain absent or unaccounted for Exhibit A, or the twenty tired business men; Exhibit B, or the two tall and the two short men, and Exhibit C, the scene of the mystery.

As for the $10,000, Exhibit A's wives, it is alleged, continue completely nonplused, although, it is further alleged, Exhibit B has already accounted for it. Another interesting phase: On the one hand it seems that a report was made to the Cottage Grove avenue police station. On the other hand, it seems that absolutely nor report was made to the Cottage Grove avenue police station.

In all the welter of incertitudes, like a good deed in a naughty world: The scene of the mystery was NOT in room 334 of the Metropole hotel, 2300 South Michigan avenue, at 1:30 o'clock last Sunday morning. Manager M. J. Kenneth of the hotel says so.

Not in Room 334, Surely.

This fact is important because it establishes incontrovertibly that neither Frank Jennings, who occupies room 334, nor any of his guests, if he were entertaining, which he probably wasn't, could have been the victims of a $10,000 mystery, because, as Mr. Kenneth sets forth, there was no $10,000 mystery in room 334 of the Hotel Metropole, 2300 South Michigan avenue, at 1:30 o'clock last Sunday morning.

Reverting to the report which was and was not made to the Cottage Grove avenue police station, it seems that the twenty fatigued business men happened to be standing about a table, upon which there happened to be galloping a pair of African golf balls, concerning which some one had happened to bet a fat roll on Big Dick, or maybe it was Little Joe.

Anyway, there was a rap at the door of Exhibit C, and Exhibit B entered. The two short men carried a revolver in each hand. So did the two tall men.

"Stick 'em up," they said, and Exhibit A did.

These Were NOT the Victims.

From some one—not Mr. Jennings—they extracted $780. From another—not Mr. Oppenheim—they got $3,800. From a man who certainly was not Harry Hanson they took $497. Others yielded diamond stickpins, rings, and rolls ranging from $100 to $500.

Then they herded them into the clothes closet—all but one, who was too fat. He said he wasn't Harry Adler. They locked the door and three of the robbers departed. A fourth stood guard over the fat man, whom he had face the wall with his hands elevated.

"If you budge I'll kill you," he said.

Nobody knows when he slipped away. Anyway, when the nineteen finally regained courage and smashed their way out of the closet, the man who was not Mr. Adler was still glued upright to the wall and had to be pried loose.

Ah, Probably a Joke.

"I'm in my bawth," said Mr. Kenneth through the speaking tube last night, when a reporter visited the Metropole. "I can't be annoyed. Robbery here, Sunday morning? Never. There might have been a bit of commotion in 334. Probably a joke. Good-by."

QUINLAN AGAIN PICKED TO HEAD CAR MEN'S UNION

President William Quinlan was reëlected last night at a meeting of the car men's union. This will be his tenth term as president. William Taber was reëlected for his eighteenth term as financial-secretary-treasurer, defeating Theodore Rust. John McLean was reëlected vice president, Coe Mills recording secretary, and James Keeley sergant at arms.

Conkright Held to Grand Jury on Murder Charge

Herbert Conkright, 12 East Walton place, was held to the grand jury on a charge of murdering Eva Wyatt of Aurora by a coroner's jury at the inquest yesterday. She was shot following her visit to Conkright's room last Sunday. She had lived with him several weeks last spring as his wife, according to testimony. Albert Wyatt, the woman's husband, said he would push the prosecution.

MOVIE MANAGER HELD ON STORY OF 2 CHILDREN

Denies Charges of Little Girls.

Two little girls yesterday told a story in the Sheffield avenue police court that led Judge Stewart to hold Joseph Koppel to the grand jury on bonds totaling $6,000.

"We must make the streets and movie shows safe for children and women," said the judge, refusing a continuance until today.

Koppel, the children said, annoyed them when they attended the Adelphi theater, of which he was manager.

Girls Tell Their Story.

Nine year old Ruth Howe of 1607 Farwell avenue, standing upon a platform beside the judge in order to be seen and heard, in reply to the questioning of Assistant State's Attorney A. J. Muffoletto, said on Sept. 29 Koppel put his arm around her, lifted her on his lap, and kissed her.

Charlotte Ford, 10 year old daughter of Vernon Ford, secretary and treasurer of the Hays Instrument company, said Koppel "asked me if I wanted to love him; I told him no."

"I am impressed with the story of these children," said Judge Stewart after Koppel had denied their accusations. "I can't help but believe them. O you can shake your head as many times as you wish, Mr. Koppel. I'm the one hearing the evidence in this case and you cannot change my decision."

"Asked to Forget Case."

Mrs. Ford learned of Ruth's adventure by accident. She communicated with Mrs. Howe, also a member of the Rogers Park Woman's club, and determined to prosecute. Koppel's arrest by Detective Sergeant A. J. Nesser followed.

Max Asher, a member of the firm owning the theater, immediately sought Koppel's release on bonds, it is alleged, and one judge refused. About a week ago James M. Slattery, attorney for the theater owners, is alleged to have gone to the Ford home and asked that the case be forgotten; Koppel would be removed and never allowed to work in any other movie house in the city, he said.

"We can't conscientiously do it," was the reply.

A committee was appointed by the directors of the Rogers Park Woman's club yesterday to draw up resolutions on moral protection for women and children. Mrs. James Campbell is president of the club.

An item in THE TRIBUNE of Nov. 15 referred to "Gen. Loyd, Wheaton Post No. 74, American Legion." It is a post of the organization known as Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. It has no connection with the American Legion.

THE TRIBUNE of Nov. 16 reported the slugging of Lieut. John Martin of the East Chicago avenue station by James Hanley, identified as a "bad man" from the south side. James A. Hanley of 4608 Wentworth avenue wishes to make it clear that he is not the man referred to. This should do it.

HAROLD.

SIDNEY.

ELI.

When hubby is having a tough old time trying to keep the wolf from the door, and Hi Cost is carrying on, and you suddenly become the mother of triplets, and you make up your mind that you will have to give 'em all away or starve, and then a kind lady sends around a trained nurse and some food and some money—ain't it a gr-r-r-and and glorious feeling? Answer: It is.

This is what befell a mother in the Chicago Lying In hospital recently. Her husband was earning $17 a week. A 2 year old baby was monopolizing her time. The family exchequer was practically extinct. Then Harold, Sidney, and Eli arrived.

Miss Ella Allen, director of the social service department of the hospital, made it possible for the mother to keep her babies.

TEACHERS VOTE FOR CHANGES IN PENSION RULES

Proposals Submitted at Election Win.

The official report of the canvassing board of the Chicago public school teachers' pension fund election held last Wednesday was completed yesterday. In it announcement is made of the carrying of seven propositions submitted to referendum and the election of Wilma Rhinesmith and Catharine J. Trout as trustee for a term of three years.

By giving their indorsement to the propositions the teachers authorize their committee on pension laws and rules to work for the adoption of suggested amendments at the next session of the legislature. These provide for the increase of pension payments to retired teachers from $400 annually to $600.

Ask New Legislation.

The teachers ask for legislation to protect the pension system so that no future legislature can abolish it. They also ask that the present law which provides that the board of education give an amount to the pension fund equal to that given by the teachers as a whole be changed so that the board can provide double the amount of money given by the teachers.

Suitable amendments to guard against a possible future deficit are asked so that should the disbursements ever exceed the current income proper authorities are authorized to increase public contributions and salary deductions.

Want Term Changed.

The teachers are anxious that the legislature change the term of service necessary to precede any annuity for disability from fifteen years to twelve years. To make both the action against a deficit and the disability provision practicable, they suggest that payments of teachers be raised.

Under the present law the teachers pay $5 per year for the first five years of their employment, $10 for the next five years, $15 for the third five years and $30 annually afterward. Four year periods are asked instead of the five. They ask that the salary deductions be $10 for the first four years, $15 for the second four years, $25 for the third four years and $50 annually for the remainder of the time the teacher is employed.

The teachers also ask that the final election for officers of the pension fund be eliminated. They favor the certification of the candidates for trustee who receive the majority of the votes cast.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.

Where Asked.

The Answers.

John C. Ryan, 636 Woodbine avenue, Oak Park, automobile salesman—The titles of our popular dances of today are more suggestive than the dances are themselves, but the steps are all right. The people of today do not care for the waltz and two step.

Miss Selma Johnson, 3323 Osgood street, switchboard operator—I do not dance, so I do not know. But I think the dances of today are all right and so were the old dances. The people liked them the way they used to be and they seem to crowd the dance halls now.

C. E. Ruby, 7455 Greenview avenue, auditor—Yes, they are more suggestive, I think, than the old dances. The names are terrible and the steps are worse. Give me the good old dances of our grandmothers' day—the minuet and the quadrille and the waltz.

Joseph Schoeninger, Highland Park, executive—No, I wouldn't say so. Dancing is a healthy indoor sport and good exercise, and nothing that is healthy is suggestive. Of course, the steps can be rendered suggestive, but dancing is what the people make it.

Miss Claire Betting, 2618 North Francisco avenue, stenographer—The dances of the day are all right—fine! I don't care about the waltz and two step. There's nothing wrong with them, but they're too slow. The dances today are faster and nicer.

CAN'T PASS BUCK ON CITY BUDGET TO THE VOTERS

Council Referendum Plan Is Ruled Illegal.

In a legal opinion issued yesterday the city law department threw a cold damp blanket on the tentative plan of the city council finance committee to submit to a referendum vote, two budgets, one within the city revenue and one exceeding the revenue.

The opinion, approved by Acting Corporation Counsel James W. Breen, was made public after Controller Harding had announced that estimates of 1921 expenditures prepared by nineteen city departments show an increase of 43 per cent over this year.

On the basis of the estimates the departmental requests for 1921 will exceed $45,000,000. This year's appropriation bill authorized the expenditure of $36,550,000, about $6,000,000 more than the city's revenues.

Face 50 Per Cent Tax Increase.

Experts in the controller's office declare that, should the estimates be approved by the council, a 50 per cent increase in the tax rates will be necessary to finance the city and pay off the 1920 deficit. The finance committee hoped to "pass the buck" to the voters by submitting the two budgets. One was to be within the revenues, and necessitating big retrenchments in city activities, and the other "based on the city's needs," and calling for an over-appropriation of from $8,000,000 to $12,000,000 necessitating an increase in the tax rate.

This plan is killed by the legal opinion, which declares that "the language of the law makes it clear that the city council must pass the appropriation ordinance, and that the amounts to be appropriated are to be determined by this body, and not by the voters."

Over-Appropriation Not Illegal.

The opinion says that "over-appropriation" will not in itself invalidate the budget, as the law directs the council to appropriate such sums "as may be deemed necessary to defray all necessary expenses."

City Controller Harding has not received the estimates of 1921 expenses from several large departments, including the fire, police, and public works departments.

Among the nineteen requests already received the following departments demand large increases over their 1920 allotments.

City treasurer	$ 128,610	$ 88,620
City collector	285,340	167,785
Gas and electricity.....	3,315,337	2,093,079
Public welfare	48,670	12,000

The finance committee is expected to begin daily sessions on the budget in about two weeks.

NEW ALARM SYSTEM ASKED

Chicago's police signal and fire alarms systems are "pitifully inadequate" and "in an advanced stage of depreciation," according to an aldermanic subcommittee which yesterday recommended that a $5,000,000 bond issue be submitted to the voters to rehabilitate both systems.

The report, drawn by Ald. John C. Horne, chairman of the subcommittee, forecasts a marked reduction in fire insurance rates should the fire alarm systems be rebuilt as recommended.

6,868 Fire Alarms Asked.

The 2,169 fire alarm boxes are only 60 per cent of the number necessary for adequate fire protection, the report says. It recommends the number be increased to 6,868 within five years, that six instead of two exchanges be operated, and that the changes be located in small parks in the north, northwest, south, southwest, and central parts of the city, with a main exchange in the city hall.

The signal system of twelve of the thirty-four police stations is also called obsolete. The report recommends the number of patrol boxes be increased from 1,364 to 6,064.

The report was made to the committee on gas, oil and electric light, which will consider it at a meeting next week.

IVAH GOSS.

A drawing by Miss Ivah Goss was unanimously chosen yesterday for the first prize in the Hyde Park High school bazaar poster contest. Miss Goss is 17 years old, a junior, and the daughter of Dr. George W. Goss, 4647 Greenwood avenue. Other prize winners were Katherine Grace, Warren Byer, George McVicker, Charlotte Arnold, Robert Stevenson, and Kathryn Williams. The judges were the drawing teachers at the school. The bazaar for which the posters were drawn is to take place Dec. 9. Its purpose is to raise funds to erect a bronze memorial to the soldiers and sailors from the school who were killed overseas.

CICOTTE TO AID STATE; ESCAPES 'FIXING' PENALTY

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Eddie Cicotte, White Sox pitcher whose confession resulted in numerous indictments by the special Cook county baseball grand jury in connection with the 1919 world's series scandal, probably will not be punished for his part in the game throwing, according to officials of the state's attorney's office. Cicotte will turn state's evidence when the men indicted are tried and his only sentence will be banishment from organized baseball, it was said last night.

D. P. Cassaday of Detroit, Cicotte's attorney, conferred yesterday with state attorneys over the pitcher's confession and possible testimony. At this conference, according to state officials, Mr. Cassaday promised that Cicotte would tell the court the same story he told the jury. As a result it was arranged for the pitcher to furnish bonds without personally appearing.

Bond Fixed at $5,000.

While other indicted players who have voluntarily surrendered have been required to furnish $10,000 bonds, Cicotte's bail was fixed at $5,000 on the plea of Mr. Cassaday that it would work a financial hardship on the White Sox player to force him to put up more than that amount. Mr. Cassaday deposited $5,000 in Liberty bonds as bail.

While no official announcement was made by the state's attorney's office, an official let it become known that except for Cicotte's testimony the jury never would have had sufficient evidence to indict more than one or two persons, and that there would be little chance for conviction without the pitcher as a state witness.

Club Owner Named.

This official refused to say whether an agreement for immunity had been reached with Cicotte before the pitcher confessed. He also declared the jury received evidence against a club owner of the American league and a ball player in the same organization, but that no indictments were returned against these men because the jury did not think the evidence sufficient to convict.

The players and gamblers indicted by the jury probably will be brought to trial in January, it was said. Judge Robert E. Crowe, newly elected state's attorney, takes office in December and it is believed immediate prosecution will be instituted.

Cicotte's confession came after numerous witnesses had testified concerning rumors they had heard that he was implicated in a deal through which eight White Sox players were given $100,000 to throw games to Cincinnati in the 1919 world's series. He named Buck Weaver, Swede Risberg, Happy Felsch, Fred McMullin, Chick Gandil, Joe Jackson, and Claude Williams as his confederates in the game selling. The jury voted indictments against the eight players.

ATTEL WILLING TO APPEAR WHEN CALLED BY COURT

New York, Nov. 16.—Abe Attel, expugilist mentioned in connection with investigation of "fixing" of the 1919 world's series, voluntarily appeared today at the office of Acting District Attorney Talley. Attel, who recently returned from Montreal, declined to make any formal statement to the prosecutor, but said he was available at any time he was "really wanted" by the authorities.

"I certainly will not be the goat," Attel was quoted as saying, "but there is a case pending in Chicago, with lots of indictments against different parties, and I don't want to talk while that matter is still unsettled."

Ruth Gets Yanks Many Training Camp Offers

New York, Nov. 16.—Many southern towns whose baseball fans are anxious to see "Babe" Ruth pound out home runs have urged the New York Americans to consider them in the selection of a training camp. The decision is expected to be made at a meeting of club officials here Thursday. Several Texas cities, including Dallas, have sent in requests, besides New Orleans, Hot Springs, Ark., and Jacksonville, Fla.

Infielder Rapp Is Sold to New York Nationals

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 16. — Joseph ["Goldie"] Rapp, infielder, has been sold by the St. Paul American association club to the New York Nationals for $15,000. The local club will receive a pitcher and an infielder as part payment. St. Paul purchased Rapp from the Cincinnati club for $1,000 last spring.

National Golf Association Meeting Is Set for Jan. 21

New York, Nov. 16.—The annual meeting of the United States Golf association will be held Jan. 7, 1921. This date is a week prior to that set for the annual session of the Western Golf association at Chicago. Aside from election of officers, the chief business will be selection of courses for the three national championships tournaments—the Amateur, Open and women's.

NEW COMISH CHIEF SAYS CHICAGO WILL BE BASEBALL COURT

CHICAGO is to be the mecca of baseball pilgrims. Bringing their woes to this city, Federal Judge Landis, new chief of the National commission, announced yesterday. The stern old jurist, whose decisions in the federal cases have caused offenders to shiver, was in a jocular mood as he made his announcement that he would establish baseball headquarters here.

"Do you know," he said, "for the first time in many years I have been on the bench, a great number of people have become solicitous of my welfare. While I was making my decision as to whether I would accept the baseball offer, they came to me and said, 'By all means take it. Leave the bench. You have earned it.'

"There seems to be a great concern in some minds about my ability to handle both jobs. They are not afraid I won't do my work. They are afraid I will do my work.

"When baseball matters come up, the participants will come here. Saturday afternoon is dead, and so is Sunday, in this court. Furthermore I am sitting here where trains can take me to New York in twenty hours.

"Don't worry about me being able to handle the two jobs," he concluded.

Regarding his baseball plans, he remarked his slogan is "achievement, not words."

BIG SHAKEUP DUE FOR BOSTON SOX FROM NEW CHIEF

Boston, Mass., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—The Boston Red Sox are due for a big shakeup before the 1921 season opens, it became known today, and with many familiar names missing from the rolls next spring much new blood is expected to be added during the months the "winter league" is in session.

Hugh Duffy, newly named manager of the team, and Harry Frazee, the owner, will get together this week to lay tentative plans for 1921. Duffy has plans to carry out deals which will add new players to help out the club.

It is rumored the Red Sox will be parties to a three cornered trade with New York and Detroit. The Red Sox particularly need a second baseman, a center fielder, and two pitchers.

Won't Repeat $200,000 Hornsby Bid, McGraw Says

New York, Nov. 16.—Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants indicated today that the reported offer of $200,000 for Rogers Hornsby, hard hitter of the St. Louis Cardinals, made last season, will not be repeated. "It isn't our policy to keep driving after a man in a way to break up another owner's ball club," he said.

McGraw said he had signed several youngsters to be tried out at second base.

"If none of these come through," he said, "we may have to make some kind of a deal."

JOHN DALY CAPTURES THIRD STRAIGHT IN THREE CUSHION PLAY

STANDING OF PLAYERS

Daly	3	0	McCourt	1	1
Jackson	3	0	Morin	1	1
DeOre	1	0	Layton	1	1
Maupome	1	1	Lean	1	2
Otis	1	1	Heal	0	3
Kieckhefer	1	1	Capron	0	3

BY JOE DAVIS.

John Daly of New York scored his third straight win in the world's three cushion billiard championship by defeating Charles Otis of New York, 50 to 43, in the second afternoon game at 116 West Madison street yesterday. The game went sixty-eight innings.

PIERRE MAUPOME.

Daly's success in downing Heal, Kieckhefer, and Otis in succession makes him look like a strong candidate for a top position. He is one of the old school of players and eschews the use of the regulation talcum powder, using a stick of white chalk to facilitate the action of his cue.

Exciting See-saw Match.

They went along on even terms for twenty innings, then Daly ran 5 in the twenty-fourth inning and followed with 6 in the twenty-eighth. He led, 24 to 14. Then in twenty-two innings he made only eight points while Otis, with a brace of fours, a double and nine singles, made 19 points and took the lead, 33 to 32.

It was an exciting duel down the stretch, the count being tied at 42 in 62 innings. Daly scored a useful five in the sixty-second session and eventually went out with a run of three. Score at each tenth inning:

Lean, 50; Capron, 39.

Jess Lean of Denver took the opening game from Joe Capron of Chicago, 50 to 39, in eighty-two innings. His high run was 7, Capron getting a 3. The break of the game came after the twenty-seventh inning, when Capron was leading, 13 to 12. Lean then showed a burst of whirlwind speed, getting runs of 7, 3, 2, 3, and 1 in succession, and leading, 28 to 13.
cession, and leading, 28 to 13. Score at each tenth inning.

Lean	2	8	24	28	35	40	45	49	50
Capron	6	12	13	15	19	23	32	37	39

John Layton of St. Louis played a "darb" of a game in defeating Hugh Heal of Toledo in the first night game in fifty innings. Layton sprinted away at the start with 2, 1, 0, 1, 3, 6, 1, and 1, and led, 15 to 7. At the thirty-second session he led, 25 to 7. Score at each tenth inning:

Layton	15	20	23	40	50
Heal	7	13	17	23	29

Although Pierre Maupome started favorite over Clarence Jackson of Kansas City the dope went wrong, the latter winning, 50 to 41, in seventy-two innings. His high run was 4, Maupome getting a 3. Score at each tenth inning:

Jackson	1	9	17	30	34	43	48	50
Maupome	3	14	18	20	28	36	39	41

Games today:
1:30—Capron and Heal.
3:00—Morin and Layton.
7:00—McCourt and Lean.
9:00—De Ore and Otis.

BOB MARTIN K. O.'S HEAVY CHAMPION OF BRITISH ARMY

Boston, Mass., Nov. 16.—Bob Martin, heavyweight champion of the American expeditionary forces, knocked out Bandsman Rice, holder of the British army heavyweight title, in the second round of a scheduled ten round bout tonight.

Rice had the better of the fighting in the first round and appeared fast as the men went into the second. After several blows had been exchanged Martin smashed Rice in the mouth. The British fighter tried to cover, but Martin landed two rights to the ribs, following them with another to the wind. Rice took a count of nine, and when he came up Martin put over rights to the ribs and jaw that scored the knockout.

DEMPSEY VS. BRENNAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Jack Dempsey and Bill Brennan will fight at Madison Square garden on Dec. 14. This information comes from an authoritative source and the bout between the two heavyweights will be only one of three championship contests which will be decided at the garden between now and Dec. 15. The other two titular contests arranged for are Benny Leonard and Joe Welling on Nov. 26 and one on Dec. 2 between Pete Herman, bantam title holder, and Joe Lynch, who has been a contender for some time.

N. Y. GOVERNOR TO BAR JACK AND GEORGES, REPORT

New York, Nov. 16.—Persons close to Governor Elect Miller declare that should any attempt be made to stage the proposed Carpentier - Dempsey championship bout in New York state, not only will the governor prohibit the match but also may recommend the repeal of the Walker law.

"The elements who elected Judge Miller," this person stated, "are unalterably opposed to prize fighting. They want to see the Walker law repealed. Boxing promoters allied with Tammany Hall worked against Mr. Miller's election, using propaganda that he would stop all sports. Under such circumstances they cannot expect favors.

"The Republican state organization is not enthusiastic over the amount of patronage bestowed on the Tammany organization by the Walker law," the same authority declared.

PLANS ACADEMY BODY LIKE BIG 10

Although Ralph Jones, former basketball coach at Illinois, who is athletic director and football coach at Lake Forest academy, is busily engaged developing his team for the game with Culver at Lake Forest Saturday, he is gradually perfecting plans for the organization of a western academy conference to be founded along the lines of the Big Ten.

Tentative plans for the formation of the academy conference have been drawn. In some cases trouble is expected in getting those far away to join. Aside from Lake Forest, other academies which will be asked to join are Loyola, Culver, Morgan Park, St. John's and Shattuck. A meeting will be held in Chicago next month, when all plans will be perfected and the body organized.

FROM ANOTHER PROPHET.

FISH BERG, beach comber extraordinary, seems to think we are not bum prophets after all. Replying to Dr. Brown's letter, he writes: "So Dr. Ferdinand Brown of Sioux Fall endeavors to disparage our ability as a season prophet. Owing to the long spell of warm weather he asks: 'What have those early fall and winter prophets to say now?'

"To uphold our reputation permit me, as your earlier contributor, to offer the following defense: 'Early fall does not mean cold weather. Cold weather does not constitute the change of seasons—the division between summer and autumn. Snipe do not migrate through these parts in summer, nor does the moss leave the [illegible] in summer. These two incidents happened before Sept. 1 and marked the division between summer and autumn in the Chicago area.'

"According to Dr. Brown, the greatest wing shot in South Dakota, fall had not yet arrived on Oct. [illegible]. He said: 'The temperature ranged from 50 to 85; it was Indian summer.' This statement alone is acknowledgment that fall was there in all its glory. Indian summer comes only in the fall.

"Further he speaks of the [illegible] birds remaining—robins, black [illegible] and larks. They did not remain; they returned. Even in our own locality the birds have returned for a [illegible] season visit. This locality had a southwest wind on the day of the equinox and naturally has been under that prevailing influence. It was an early fall with blue bird weather."

This lets Fish out, for he did prophesy seasons and not weather. For our part we prophesied cold weather because the signs all pointed that way but in this we erred slightly—like Mr. Cox's campaign managers in their [illegible] prophesies!

BUCKEYES TO PIT A GREAT MACHINE AGAINST ILLINOIS

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

NEMECEK [Ohio].

Although Illinois is a team of known football strength, well fortified in all departments of play, it will be called upon to face a highly perfected machine Saturday, when it meets Ohio State at Urbana in a game which will determine a western conference champion.

In only one department — kicking — can Illinois be said to have a decided advantage. The Buckeye eleven does not boast a field kicker of Ralph Fletcher's type, while the punters are not the equal of Hellstrom, if he regains the form shown early in the season.

Kicking Nearly Beat Badgers.

Kicking may be the factor to decide the issue in this all-important contest. Illinois nearly won from Wisconsin last Saturday through Ralph Fletcher's field goal kicking, while Michigan gained a decided advantage over Chicago in the exchange of punts. There is nothing so discouraging in football as to have forty yards of hard earned ground taken away by the punting ability of one man, whose kicks are well covered by the ends.

It is almost certain both elevens will resort to the aerial attack early in the contest. Neither possesses the offense to gain consistently by use of straight football, and the forward pass must be called into commission to keep the defense scattered properly. Ohio State defeated Wisconsin by executing two long passes and another long forward started Michigan's defeat.

Buckeye Team Well Balanced.

Ohio is a well balanced team. It has weight and power in the line and a better than average backfield. The ends match up with any two of the same eleven in the Big Ten, but Robert Fletcher is a more experienced general than Workman, the Buckeye quarter, and Illinois will have an advantage in this position.

Capt. Huffman, Ohio tackle, is one of the best men in the conference in his position. He plays the game from start to finish, and is a tireless worker. In the Michigan game he scored his team's second touchdown by blocking Steketee's punt and then falling on the oval behind the Wolverine goal. He recovered several fumbles and generally did his part in opening up holes. He will be superior to any player Coach Zuppke elects to play in his line.

Spiers Also Good Tackle.

Spiers, the other tackle, did not play against Michigan because of an injured shoulder. His work last year and in Ohio's early games this season indicates he is playing in better form, and is an ideal running mate for the captain. In the absence of Spiers, Coach Wilce moved Trott, a guard, out to tackle. With the regular tackle back in the game, Trott will play guard Saturday and can be relied upon to take care of the position.

J. Taylor, the other guard, is one of the most aggressive forwards in the conference. What this player lacks in experience he more than makes up for by his ability to get into plays, offensively and defensively. His only fault is a desire to leave his position too quickly. Unless this error is corrected, Illinois will make gains through him on the split buck formation.

Nemecek a Dependable Center.

Like tackles, there are a number of good centers in the west this year, and Nemecek of Ohio State is one of them. This player is of the steady, consistent type, whose uppermost thought always is to pass the ball accurately and then take care of his opponents. Ohio employs a complex offense, which calls for accurate passing, and Nemecek performs this important duty in a pleasing manner.

With more experience, Workman should develop into one of the best quarter backs in the west. He is a great forward passer, and can hurl the ball forty yards with accuracy.

Illini Must Stop Stinchcomb.

Stinchcomb will be superior to any back Illinois sends on the field. He will also be the most respected warrior on the gridiron, and it will be up to the Illinois players to stop him if hopes of victory are to be entertained at Urbana. He is one of the most dangerous players in the Big Ten.

Williaman, full back, did not play against Michigan because of an injured knee. Football fans will recall this player was a member of the Great Lakes football eleven of 1918. He played a stellar game for the sailors. Williaman is a powerful player who knows all the fine points of the position. He also is a strong defensive man, and he and Crangle of Illinois should furnish an interesting duel in this department.

Just whom Coach Wilce will start at the other half back position is not known. He may elect to keep Stinchcomb on the side lines for the first period and start Blair and Henderson in the half back positions.

In the Wake of the News

EARLIER CHICAGO.

THE Chicago river used to freeze over in winter with a coating of ice several feet thick. I can remember several cold winters in the early '70's when runways were made at certain streets from the dock down to the ice on the river, which was used as a speedway by many with gay cutters and fine horses as well as by young people on skates.

Note—This was, of course, before the time of the sanitary canal, which makes the current in the river too swift to freeze over now.—C. E. J.

Justice.

O, Harvey, sir, it seems to me
Our justice is a travesty.
Some murderer caught red-handed
Straightway in the jail is landed—
But not for long.

A bondsman ambles to his aid,
The judge, it seems, he is afraid
To turn the bondsman down, and then
The crook goes free and kills again—
Now that's all wrong.

But, on the other hand, just take
The willing bird who tries to slake
Our thirst with cooling beers;
He gets the pen for nigh three years.
Tears end my song.

HITCH IN SUBURB LEAGUE PLAYOFF

Unless some action is taken at the regular meeting of the Suburban league tonight at the Central Y. M. C. A. or Coach Thistlethwaite of Oak Park, and Coaches Childs and Snyder of New Trier, agree on terms by tomorrow morning, the playoff for the league football championship will not be staged Saturday.

Both teams have completed their schedules without defeat, playing a 3 to 3 tie in the game at New Trier a month ago, and now the coaches are at add over when, how, and where the playoff game shall take place.

STAGG TRIES EVERY COMBINATION TO GET TEAM FOR LAST GAME

In nearly two inches of snow the battered University of Chicago football team got another dose of scrimmage at Stagg field in preparation for the final stand of the year against the rushing Badgers on Saturday.

Repeated injuries have driven Coach Stagg almost to desperation, and he is trying every possible combination to develop a machine that will not go down in rout before Coach Richards' near-champions.

Capt. Jackson's Absence Worries.

The infection which keeps Capt. Red Jackson out of a uniform is beginning to worry the Maroon camp, for with Lewis temporarily injured from a hard wallop in scrimmage, Chuck McGuire is the only remaining tackle of first string ability.

Barker, at the start of the season a substitute guard, who has lately been converted into an end because of injuries on the squad, and Halladay, also an end, are being drilled to fill the gap should both Lewis and Jackson be out of the final game.

Fritz Crisler is still unable to get into a uniform after his injury in the Michigan game, and Tatge, who had been hurt, will probably go back to quarter back.

Backfield of Subs.

Rouse and Palmer were disappointing in the Michigan game and it now looks as though "Butz" Bell, a 142 pound sophomore, who was a flash in the five minutes he played against Michigan, may take over a half back berth. Hutchinson, who has been on the bench for several weeks, or Neff, who is slowly recovering from an injury, may be at the other half, with Timme at full.

Gossip From Football Camps

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Having gone through a light workout yesterday to limber up, the Badgers today scrimmaged long and hard against Chicago formations. Coach Richards has several new plays to be used against the Maroons and drilled his man in a signal practice before scrimmage. The Badgers came out of the Illinois battle unscathed, so that every first string man will be able to line up against Chicago next Saturday.

Weston and Tebell, the two ends who were out of the lineup until last Saturday, were able to play the entire Illinois game without a recurrence of their injuries, and should therefore be able to do even better work against Chicago.

NOTRE DAME.

Notre Dame, Ind., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—The Notre Dame squad ran through a hard workout on Cartier field this afternoon. The field drill was followed by a talkfest in the gym, in which Coach Rockne pointed out the defects of Notre Dame's play in the Indiana game. All the dynamite of Notre Dame's pre-Army game play was evident at today's practice. The athletes realize there can be no dawdling if they are to win over Northwestern Saturday. Gipp, H. Anderson, and Barry were not present at today's drill, and it is feared the former two will not be in condition for the Evanston fray.

MICHIGAN.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 16.—Michigan continued its preparation for the Minnesota game this afternoon in a driving snowstorm. The entire squad was out for the practice, and plays which will be worked against the Gophers were tried out. Coach Yost realizes Minnesota is going to be hard to beat and, therefore, is drilling his squad in an effort to stamp out any overconfidence which may be prevalent. Banks, who starred at quarter against Chicago Saturday, will start the game this week, and Wieman is expected to be in his old position at tackle.

MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—The long expected shift in the Minnesota backfield is looked for next Saturday, when Minnesota meets Michigan on Northrop field. There was an indication of it today when Dr. Williams moved Arntson from quarter back to half and had Pete Regnier calling the signals. This combination has been tried before, but the Minnesota coach has not used it in a game yet. Only a light workout was handed the boys.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—A rain storm drove the Harvard varsity football team into the baseball cage for the early part of this afternoon's drill, the signal practice taking place under cover. This was fairly long, the several possible combinations for Saturday being tried on the line and backfield, but the coaches still declining to announce the final lineup for the New Haven game Saturday.

YALE.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Yale's football eleven, which reached town this noon, after a stay of three days at White Plains, was reorganized this afternoon for its closing game of the season with Harvard here Saturday. Perry Bean was given right end, displacing Dilworth, who was circled several times by Princeton last Saturday. Herbert Kempton was assigned to quarter back position, displacing Thorne Murphy. Jess Sturm was given full back, displacing Doc Jordan. Capt. Callahan's injured elbow will not allow him to return to center this season. Harry Cross, who was slightly injured in the Princeton game, has completely recovered and was assigned the position again.

OHIO STATE.

Columbus, O., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—The first snowfall of the year spread a six inch blanket over Ohio field and drove Coach Wilce and his Buckeyes into the gymnasium for practice. It was rather a stiff scrimmage, the men working on offense and defense against the second team for two hours, after which the team went outdoors on Ohio field for a half hour signal drill in the snow. Preparing a defense for the Illinois forward pass has taken up much time, while the Buckeye plan of attack has led them to practice the pass almost constantly. A few changes in lineup may be necessitated Saturday by Wilce's plan of defense, but just what these changes will be is hard to predict. Stinchcomb was the only member of the Ohio team to see Illinois play last Saturday and his report of the strength of the Illinois team has taken away all overconfidence.

ILLINOIS TO INFLICT HEAVY PENALTY FOR BETTING, SCALPING

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Rigorous action to prevent ticket speculation and betting on the Illinois-Ohio game and future Illini contests was taken by the Illinois board of athletic control tonight. The board requested the university council of administration to expel any student found guilty of speculating.

Original purchasers will be held responsible for their tickets, which, if found in the hands of speculators, will result in the names of original purchasers being barred from purchasing tickets in the future.

Zuppke dismissed the Illini at 6 o'clock tonight, but while the boys were at work they knew it. They were scrimmaged against both scrubs and freshmen. The freshmen, with Majors impersonating Workman, hurled passes against the varsity.

The Illini seemed to be full of fight. They realize just what they are up against Saturday and figure on an uphill battle. The memory of what they did last year is a stimulus, however.

INSURGENTS WIN A. A. U. OFFICES; PROBE STARTED

New Orleans, La., Nov. 16.—Insurgent forces scored a victory tonight when the Amateur Athletic Union elected the entire insurgent ticket and adopted a resolution providing for investigation of charges made by American Olympic athletes that they were badly treated at Antwerp in the way of accommodations and transportation to and from the Olympic games there.

Goodman Sponsors Probe.

Sam Goodman, president of the Pacific Coast association, was sponsor of the resolution calling for an investigation of the American Olympic committee and William C. Prout of the New England association, Jeremiah T. Mahoney of the Metropolitan association, and Charles B. Lynch of the Central association were named as the committee to conduct the inquiry, which will deal also with the method followed in the selection of the team sent abroad.

Weaver Elected President.

Robert S. Weaver of Los Angeles was elected president over Herman Obertubessing of New York by a vote of 55 to 21. The other officers elected were C. W. Streit, Birmingham, first vice president; W. Cuddy, Boston, second vice president; P. Jordan, Indianapolis, third vice president; W. J. Slattery, Philadelphia, fourth vice president; Fred Rubier, secretary and treasurer.

Chicago was awarded the 1921 convention.

By Mae Tinée.

Though it is called "The North Wind's Malice," this is a story of the little foxes that spoil the vines. But because the action takes place in Alaska, where life becomes humdrum and small things take on gigantic proportions, the blame is laid on the north wind. Which is perhaps just as well. Also, by way of being explicit in the first paragraph, which is proper to do on a newspaper—"with" Vera Gordon is right! She is there, and that is just about all. Merely one of an all star cast.

I like all star casts, don't you? It's nice to see everything that is done, well done. Of course, there are many so called all star casts that aren't, but that's something else again. The one under discussion is splendid.

Scenery and sets of the white, mysterious north are furnished you with sumptuous hand, as the tale of a man and his wife and the little things that drove them far apart unwinds. Linked to the story proper are other tales, and the links are some more of those little things which play big parts in the chain.

"The North Wind's Malice" is interesting and well put on entertainment. Rex Beach wrote the story.

MILKING TROUBLES

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Practically all dairy herds have a few cows that are hard to milk. Milking such cows is a dreaded task, particularly in cold weather.

Often the trouble is that the sphincter muscles that surround the duct or opening in the teat are abnormally tight, preventing the milk from passing out freely. Occasionally the trouble is due to a stricture in the canal or a growth in the milk well.

Forcing straws or mental tubes into the teat to enlarge the opening is dangerous, for it usually results in an infected udder causing serious trouble.

If the opening is extremely small, the trouble can be removed by a simple surgical operation. Special instruments are made for this work. By this minor operation dairymen have made valuable milk producing animals out of worthless cows. In practically every case due to abnormally tight sphincter muscles, the operation is successful providing it is done under aseptic conditions.

Some skilled veterinary surgeons are able to remove strictures of the canal or growths, but this operation is not always successful.

In either operation a competent veterinary surgeon should be employed, because the cow's udder is easily infected. Besides, the veterinarian is needed to make a correct diagnosis.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

One of the Symptoms.

"Dear Miss Blake: Where I am employed there are a number of young men with whom I come in contact every day. Now when speaking to any of these young men I feel perfectly at ease, with the exception of one. I like this boy, but I cannot talk to him with such familiarity as I do the others, although he is just as nice as they are and can take a joke any time. If I am talking with some of the boys and he joins us I am completely at a loss, for I do not seem to be able to keep up the conversation. Can you tell me what is the cause of this? Am I in love with this boy? A. S."

Yes, that's the way it attacks you sometimes. You lose your speech and lose your appetite, but fortunately the attack usually moderates with repeated meetings, so you will probably find it easier to talk to him next time.

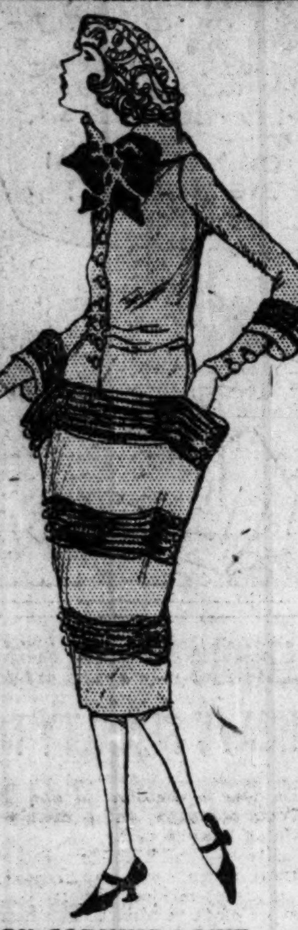
FASHION'S BLUE BOOK



BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Verily the silhouette is the still-o-ette. Never was anything so still, so absolutely unmoving as the plain one-piece frock that we have been wearing for the last two or three seasons. And now that the French modes have been reviewed and we have beheld all that's new, the most fashionable of us continue to wear the old, which is, as we have just said, the absolutely straight-line frock. Even so, we permit to the flapper and to her debutante sister a few such hip privileges as are to be noted in the above charming little dress of wine color velours trimmed with black soutache braid. A feature worthy of special attention is the sleeve of this model and the juvenile-looking bow of black satin.

Finally Got Off.

I was reading in a street car and suddenly noticed that we were passing my destination. I got up hurriedly, ran to the rear platform, and asked the conductor to signal to stop. He did so. Amid laughter I finally assembled all my belongings and left the car. L. P. S.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Duchesse Potatoes.

When guaranteed fresh eggs are selling at something over 8 cents a piece no egg yolk should be wasted. One of the most obvious ways to utilize one or two egg yolks is to add them to the mashed potatoes for dinner, thus making that elegant and easily manipulated compromise called duchesse potato. This is a compromise because when it is manipulated in certain ways the potato may be more like a quick bread, muffin, or Sally Lunn, than are most varieties of potato dishes.

Because of the egg it is easy to knead the potato in a bit of flour and bake it like biscuits. One famous cook after giving the direction to roll pieces of the egg-stiffened mashed potato in flour, says: "Give each a nice heart shaped form; nicely cris-cross their surfaces with a knife. Butter a small pastry pan with a teaspoon of butter, arrange the potatoes over, lightly butter their surfaces, place the pan in a hot oven and bake for ten minutes, or until of a fine golden color."

A quicker and pleasant way to serve this potato, in which you have salvaged an egg yolk or two, is to put it into a buttered pie plate that can be brought to the table, smooth it over, "mark it with T," or criss-cross it thistlewise, or use a four tined fork to mark or decorate the top. White of egg or butter may be brushed over the top, and if the oven is not hot this way be browned under a broiler a few minutes after the fire has been lighted.

If some egg white is finally folded into the potato it can be baked in buttered muffin rings. It can be pressed into a border mold, turned out, browned and used as a ring for holding Brussels sprouts, vegetables cut in balls, etc. In any fashion the potato will be more palatable for a delayed meal than plain mashed potato.

NEWS OF SOCIETY

Opening of Opera Will Start Social Season in Full Sway

The rise of the curtain at the Auditorium theater tonight will open the social season officially. Every box will be occupied, and there will be many parties.

Among those who will entertain box parties are: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Field, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Ryerson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Crane Jr., President and Mrs. Harry Pratt Judson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Armour, Mr. and Mrs. Laurance M. Armour, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Dawes, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. A. Junkin, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, Mrs. C. Morse Ely, and Mrs. Joseph B. Long.

At dinner preceding the opera Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. McGann will give a party for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chatfield-Taylor. Dinner parties also will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. McBirney, by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Chalmers, who will have as guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams, by Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Howard and by Frederic McLaughlin.

Mrs. E. W. Pardridge and Miss Harriet Pardridge have taken an apartment at the Webster hotel for the winter. Miss Pardridge will give a dinner on Friday evening at the Blackstone for Miss Margaret Strawn and her bridal party, of which Miss Pardridge will be a member.

MISS HARRIET PARDRIDGE.

Miss Alice Roullier, Miss Theresa Garrett, and Miss Grace Hickox will give a tea on Sunday from 4 to 6 o'clock at Miss Hickox's studio in the Fine Arts building for Mme. Antonin Barthelemy and Mlle. Zelle Barthelemy, wife and daughter of the French consul, who recently accompanied M. Barthelemy here from France.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. L. Curtis of Highland Park will leave tomorrow for New Haven for the Yale-Harvard football game.

There will be two debutantes today, Miss Grace Andrews and Miss Maidza Wakem. Miss Andrews will be introduced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Andrews of Highland Park, at a luncheon at the Woman's Athletic club, followed by a dinner dance at the Opera club. Miss Wakem will be presented at a ball to be given at the Parkway hotel by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Wakem of 46 East Schiller street.

MISS MAIDZA WAKEM.

Chicago's Opera Opening Tonight, with "Jacquerie"

BY RUTH MILLER.

For the last half dozen weeks there has been hanging over the Auditorium that impressive, mysterious air that is always associated with the operatic ritual. There have been many signs of effective and unremitting labor on the part of the overlords of Chicago's lyric drama and the music reporters lazily viewing these maneuvers have assumed an owlish, judicious air and indulged in discussion, argument, and prophecy concerning their probable success and the forthcoming season of Chicago opera in general.

Vocalists, from cooing sopranos and languishing tenors to vigorous bassos, have arrived in town singly, by twos, threes and the squad. And these have been duly interviewed and the music lovers appraised of their various opinions of Chicago's noted smoke difficulty, native taxi cabs, prohibition, pusillanimous critics and the police force.

Imperious camera men have stopped the "Jacquerie" dress rehearsal that the cinema and newspaper patrons may not miss their photographic thrill.

And now those of you who have been fortunate enough to secure tickets for the opening performance of Chicago's pet $75,000 a week musical luxury will make your own operatic decisions and judge whether it is to be thumbs up or down for "Jacquerie," Marinuzzi's opera, which is to receive its first American performance this evening.

Critical analysis of this tempestuous lyric drama cannot be indulged in at this time, but from sketches which have been heard and seen one can guarantee that tonight's audience will view one of the most gorgeous of operatic spectacles, one that follows closely in its pictorial magnificence that most satisfactory and reliable of all first night operas, "Aida."

A fragmentary survey of "Jacquerie" or "The Peasants' Revolt" discloses glimpses of striking scenic effects, including a burning castle that is highly satisfactory in its illusory realism, great choruses in colorful medieval costumes who revel in long held high "Cs," a huge orchestra involved in playing some of the more magnificent of the standard symphonic effects, and practically all the principals and near principals of the company working furiously every minute.

The story dates back to 1357, when a revolution broke out in Normandy which chroniclers of that period labeled "La Jacquerie." The immediate cause of the peasants' outbreak was the insupportable cruelty and excessive demands made by the feudal lords through their bailiffs. This revolution spread within a few weeks from the Somme to the Loire. More than 100,000 peasants exchanged the pitchfork for the lance and formed bands of marauders, who burned, murdered, and destroyed whatever came in their path.

Mr. Marinuzzi's librettist, A. Donaudy, borrows his material from the story by Eugene Sue, which is based upon that feudal brutality, an ancient law often invoked to enforce the payment of taxes, known as jus primae noctis. The story deals specifically with the sorrows of Mazurec, a Norman peasant, who, because of his gentle, kindly nature, was known as the Lamb, and his bride Isaura.

While the principal characters of this opera have no "Leitmotifs" according to the Wagnerian tradition, there are nevertheless two themes which wind in and out throughout its course. And, according to Mr. Marinuzzi, they are symbolic of "brute force," or feudalism, and "liberty" or revolution.

Edward Johnson will sing the rôle of Mazurec, the Lamb; Yvonne Gall will appear as Isaura, the daughter of William Caillet, whose part will be interpreted by Carlo Galeffi, and the other prominent parts will be sung by Virgilio Lazzari, Vittorio Trevisan, Lodovico Oliviero and Desire Defrere.

DELTA GAMMA PHI CONVENTION WILL START TOMORROW

The bi-annual convention of Delta Gamma Phi sorority will be held tomorrow, Friday, and Saturday in the ivory crystal ballroom of the Parkway hotel. The convention will open with a reception and card party for out of town delegates. Friday a business session will be held and officers elected. A dinner dance on Saturday will close the convention. Among those working for the success of the convention are the Misses Anita Meyer, Mae McDonnell, Stella Tondreau, Rossie Gustafson, Astri Eklund, Ruth Karg, Winifred Lagorio, and Isabel Anderson.

MISS ROSSIE GUSTAFSON.

St. Joseph's Home Benefit.

The annual pound party for the benefit of St. Joseph's Home for the Friendless, at East Thirty-fifth street and the lake, will be held next Monday afternoon.

Confidence

is the foundation of business—a mutual confidence existing between buyer and seller is essential to any satisfactory transaction.

And confidence is the growth of years—the child of fair dealing and the father of success.

It is because we realize so well these facts that we have, throughout the years, so jealously guarded the unvarying quality of Larabee's Best Flour and have maintained the Larabee standard of business ethics.

Our reward is that today, throughout the world, there is confidence in the name of "Larabee" which makes our business relationships a source of constant pleasure.

And housewives have likewise learned to recognize in the label of Larabee's Best Flour the guarantee of a superior, always dependable sack of flour.

Opera Stars to Aid Dippel Testimonial

The committee in charge of the Andreas Dippel testimonial, of which R. A. Pick is chairman, announces that by courtesy of the Chicago Opera association many stars have volunteered their services. The concert is scheduled for Dec. 3 at Orchestra hall.

MUSIC

Arthur Fraser, an enterprising pianist, played two standard sonatas, the Beethoven C major and the Macdowell Sonata Eroica, and a group of well worn Chopin at his recital at Kimball hall Monday night.

As one proceeds deeper and deeper into the musical season one becomes more and more impressed by the encouraging size and decided enthusiasms of all the concert audiences this year. Whether the recitalist is a timid and tentative debutante or a master artist, the rapturous appreciation of his listeners is always the same.

Those gathered to hear Mr. Fraser, in the enthusiastic reception they accorded his playing, proved no exception to the rule.

Monday afternoon the first of four afternoons of music was given in the foyer of Orchestra hall. The proceeds from this interesting series of concerts are intended for local and foreign philanthropy. A feature of the program was eleven of the Browning sonnets from the Portuguese, with a musical setting by our charming and indefatigable Eleanor Everett Freer. Mr. Scionti, a discriminating pianist, was heard in two Chopin preludes and that rather fussy sample of vernal composure, the "Spring Night" of Schumann-Liszt.

OBITUARY.

WILLIAM FULLER, LONG A RESIDENT OF CHICAGO, DIES

William Alden Fuller, resident of Chicago since 1854, and a pioneer in the lumber milling business of the city, died yesterday in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Garfield King, 1450 Astor street. Mr. Fuller was 84 years old. He had been in poor health for three months.

Mr. Fuller was born in South Lancaster, Mass. He began as a station agent for the Worcester and Nashua railroad, now known as the Boston and Maine. Upon his arrival in Chicago he entered the sash and door business, and later organized the firm of Palmer, Fuller & Co., of which he was president for years.

Retiring about twenty years ago, Mr. Fuller took an interest in the Chicago Orphan asylum, which he helped found. He was a trustee of the Northwestern university for some time, and for years until his death was a trustee of the Chicago Historical society.

He was one of the two surviving charter members of the Commercial club, and had served as its president. He was a director in the Northern Trust company, and a member of the Union League club.

Funeral services tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in Mrs. King's home.

LOUIS FRANKEL, 90 years old, died Monday at his home, 6228 Prairie avenue, where he lived with his son, Albert Frankel, city waterworks employé, and two unmarried daughters, Miss Hermine Frankel and Miss Clara Frankel. He was formerly a wholesale merchant in Cincinnati, and was well known throughout the middle west. A married daughter, Mrs. J. L. Isaacs, lives in Detroit.

JAMES A. LYONS, author, lawyer, and publisher, died yesterday at his home, 4617 Lake Park avenue. He was 69 years old. He wrote several school texts and organized the company of Lyons and Carnahan, 123 South Wabash avenue, which specializes in school text boks. He was a thirty-second degree Mason. Funeral tomorrow at 2 o'clock; interment in Rosehill.

WILLIAM SHANNON SLIFER, 88, civil and Mexican war veteran, died at Beecher City, Ill. Ten children, sixty-three grandchildren and twenty-seven great grandchildren survive.

GEN. DAWES ASKS FOR NEW SYSTEM AT WASHINGTON

BY AL CHASE.

Gen. Charles G. Dawes, president of the Central Trust Company of Illinois, last night described how lack of coördination for a time brought the allied armies to the verge of ruin, and then made a stirring plea for economy, coördination, and new business methods in our federal government.

He was guest of honor of the Evanston Real Estate board at its second annual banquet, at the North Shore hotel. Other speakers were Tom Ingersoll, secretary of the National Association of Real Estate Boards; Adolph F. Kramer, president of the Chicago Real Estate board; Ivan O. Ackley, former head of the same board, and A. W. Stanmeyer, president of the Cook County Real Estate board.

J. W. Work Presides.

Joseph K. Brittain, president of the Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards; Clarke T. Northrup, head of the North Shore Real Estate board; J. M. Ferron, president of the Oak Park Real Estate board, and others also spoke. J. W. Work, president of the Evanston board, presided.

"I propose that we take up the question in the next administration of the economy to be reached by consolidating," said Gen. Dawes. "We don't know what we can save in this country because nobody has ever been allowed to go in and make the examination even to determine what those economies could be."

New Shop for Boul. Mich.

With the leasing of the corner store in the Harvester building to the Kaufman Blouse Shops, Inc., for ten years and five months from Dec. 1, Boul. Mich. gets a tenant new to Chicago. The store, now vacant, will be operated under the name of Wilson Blouse Makers, and will be one of a chain of fourteen shops throughout the country.

James O. Heyworth and Julia Heyworth of the Harvester Office company leased the shop, through Mark Levy & Brother, for a term rental estimated at $160,000, the lease providing for a minimum rental during the term plus a percentage on the gross sales over a fixed amount of business. The store front will be entirely remodeled.

Joseph M. Weinstein, druggist at 3046 Wentworth avenue, and Victor Goodman have leased from the Thomas Braun estate the 112x60 at the northeast corner of Wentworth avenue and West Thirty-first street, for ninety-nine years from Nov. 1 at a term rental of $297,000. The lessees agree to erect within one year a building to cost not less than $25,000. They have an option to buy the property for $50,000. The corner is improved with a two story building containing six stores. Morris K. Levinson represented the lessees.

RAILROAD NOTES

The Association of Railway Executives has issued a statement in which is estimated that 31.3 per cent of all cars on United States railroads were located on their own lines on Nov. 1. This was an increase of 30,000 cars over Oct. 1 and is in contrast with a percentage of only 21.9 per cent on March 1 last.

A total of 30,117 cars were handled by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé railroad during the past week, compared with 33,913 during the same period last year. This is a decrease of 3,796 cars.

The annual meeting of the American Railway association will be held in the Blackstone hotel today. Reports of various committees will show the progress being made since the roads were returned to private ownership, readjustment of operation, and future procedure. Walker D. Hines, former director general of railroads, will be the principal speaker at a dinner tonight in the Congress hotel by the signal division of the association.

HOTEL PENNSYLVANIA

Opposite Pennsylvania Terminal New York

You Are Not Merely Our "Guest"

I've often felt that the word "guest" failed to express the real way we look at you who visit us at Hotel Pennsylvania.

When you visit a friend you feel under obligation to accept whatever hospitality he can offer, however humble it may be. You know you are his "guest"; you would never violate the spirit of hospitality by a critical attitude.

You are under no such obligation here. Hotel Pennsylvania is your home. You are more than a guest. You are in a sense a host. The hotel's conveniences are your conveniences, its servants your servants, its hospitality your hospitality which you offer to your friends at luncheon, dinner, dance, afternoon musicale, or whatever else may be the place or occasion.

As in your home you want the human element to contribute to your guests' comforts, so in Hotel Pennsylvania we try to make employees feel that it is you whom they serve—not the management. We want them to meet your wishes.

If in any instance they fail to do this, as of course they sometimes do, being human, you will do us a service by taking up the matter with me personally. It's just that sort of co-operation which has helped me do the things that cause experienced travelers to say the Pennsylvania is as near "like home" as a hotel can be, considering the infinite variety of personal tastes in its big and ever-changing family.

E M Statler

Hotel Pennsylvania, with its 2200 rooms, 2200 baths, is the largest hotel in the world—built and operated for discriminating travelers who want the best there is.

Associated with it are the four Hotels Statler in Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit and St. Louis, and each of these five hotels makes reservations for all the others. All have private baths, circulating icewater and other unusual conveniences in every room. An entire block of ground in Buffalo has just been purchased, for a new Hotel Statler.

The New York Times.

New York, Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Today's call money market did not go as low as the 7 per cent rate of the day before, but it did not go above 8 per cent, which made it a quotably easier market than any for nearly four weeks. The recovery in other markets, which began on Monday, made further progress. It was emphatic in foreign exchange and distinct on the stock exchange, where early advances in numerous active stocks ranged as high as 2 and 4 points.

These advances, which affected both industrial and railway shares, were checked in the afternoon by pressure of sales, a good part of which came evidently from professional operators for the decline. This caused reaction of a point or thereabouts from the day's highest prices, but the market as a whole closed at a net advance, with few losses from yesterday.

Sterling Makes Big Gain.

Today's recovery in exchange on Europe was notable, especially in sterling, which at one time touched $3.43, making an advance of 5c per sovereign for the day and of 10⅛c from the low rate reached on Monday of last week. This is the highest rate at which sterling has sold since the day before election. It ended today near the highest.

Exchange on Paris and Rome moved up with sterling and closed at the best and Berlin exchange, after an exceptionally sharp recovery, got to the best rate since the middle of October.

The day's whole movement in foreign exchange was, perhaps, the best evidence that the financial strain has begun to relax. There have been numerous occasions in our recent economic history—in the late autumn of 1914, for instance, in the first months after the armistice, in the summer of 1919, and in the decline to unprecedentedly low rates last February and April—when the actual situation and outlook of the world's money markets were indicated first and most unmistakably in foreign exchange.

Silver Bullion Picks Up.

Silver bullion, the New York price for which went on Monday within a quarter of a cent of the low price of the year, recovered slightly today. The erratic movement during the last few months, as in the earlier part of 1920, has been the despair of bankers and merchants dealing with the east. A money metal which sells at $1.37 per ounce in January, 80 cents in June, $1.01⅜ in August, and 76¼c in October may be considered an economic curiosity even in this year of wild fluctuations.

MONEY AND EXCHANGE

CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.

Money in Chicago steady, 7½ per cent on collateral; commercial paper, 8 per cent, 7@7½ per cent over the counter. New York exchange by wire, par; by mail, 15@20c discount.

Chicago bank clearings yesterday were $119,984,423, compared with $108,790,822 a week ago and $121,620,758 a year ago.

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.

COURAGE

THE courage sometimes called for in the administration of a large business may be as admirable as that of the physical sort. And, as Judge Gary said recently: "This is a time for courage in business."

We admire the courage and the breadth of vision shown by the PFISTER & VOGEL LEATHER COMPANY in entering an estimated charge against surplus of over $4,500,000 since December 31, 1919, for estimated inventory losses. This in advance of actual losses expected because of shrinkage in prices.

In purchasing the "P. & V." Company's 7% Convertible Sinking Fund Gold Debentures, the public enjoys the protection of the same sound theories of financing that inspired the action referred to—and that have led to the recognition of the company as a dominating force in the great leather industry for more than 70 years.

At market prices the Debentures offer a yield of about 7¾% for ten years. Also, they are convertible to 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock at any time at option of holder.

STEEL OUTPUT LIMITED TO KEEP COST UP, CHARGE

Wahington, D. C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Steel producers by agreement have limited production in the Chicago district as a means of maintaining the "Pittsburgh plus" system of fixing prices, it was charged by H. G. Pickering, attorney for the Western Association of Rolled Steel Consumers, today before the federal trade commission.

Mr. Pickering declared if natural economic conditions had been allowed full play the steel industry at Chicago and adjacent territory would have developed to a much greater extent. He contended that only by keeping production of rolled steel slightly below consumption in the Chicago district are the producers able to charge the freight rate from Pittsburgh in addition to the basic Pittsburgh price.

Quotes Steel Lawyer.

With production greater than consumption, Mr. Pickering pointed out, the effect would be made to enable producers at distant points to ship their steel to Chicago, forcing the Chicago producers to cut prices in order to keep control of the market. He quoted from statements by R. V. Lindabury, general counsel for the United States Steel corporation, at the previous hearings to the effect that eventually the development of Chicago as a steel producing center would force the abolition of the Pittsburgh basing system.

Mr. Pickering declared that the steel industry at Chicago has lagged behind the development of manufacturers, production being artificially controlled in order to maintain the bonus of $5.60 freight rate from Pittsburgh to Chicago, which is added to the Pittsburgh basic price of $47 per ton."

Make U. S. Award to Alton.

The Chicago and Alton Railroad company, which had asked compensation at the rate of $4,592,500 a year during federal control, today was awarded compensation on the basis of $3,176,314 annually by a board of referees appointed by the interstate commerce commission. The amount allowed was equal to the average annual railway operating income in the three years ended with June 30, 1917, the "test period" on which the government based its standard contract.

FINANCIAL NOTES

Directors of the Brown Shoe company have passed the quarterly dividend on the common stock. The company has been making quarterly distributions of 1¾ per cent on this issue for some time, the last payment having been made on Sept. 1. The American Gas company has also passed its quarterly dividend, which during the last three-quarters has been 1 per cent. The directors of the Hecla Mining company have called an assessment of 5c per share on the outstanding stock, payable Dec. 5 to stock of record Nov. 17.

A banking group, consisting of Goldman, Sachs & Co., Lehman Bros., the Union Trust company of Pittsburgh, and E. Naumburg & Co., has purchased $8,000,000 ten year notes of the H. J. Heintz company of Pittsburgh, manufacturers of food products, and are expected to make an offering tomorrow or Friday. A. G. Becker & Co. and the First Trust and Savings bank of Chicago are offering today an issue of $3,000,000 Avery Company 8 per cent ten year convertible sinking fund gold notes, dated Nov. 1, 1920, and due Nov. 1, 1930. The notes are being offered at 100 and interest, yielding 8 per cent.

The annual meeting of holders of participation shares of the Chicago Elevated Railways collateral trust is called for Dec. 1. Transfer books will close at noon, Nov. 20, and will reopen Dec. 2.

Continued excessive receipts forced a further break of 25c@$1.00 in cattle values, with sales as much as $1.50 below last week's close. Trade finished in a semi-demoralized condition, with several thousand cattle unsold. The best steers offered sold at $16.75, with few above $15.00.

About 66,000 cattle arrived the first two days of this week, or 4,000 more than were received the same period a year ago. It was a year ago this week that Chicago established the record six day total of 110,386 and two years ago arrivals at 109,692 were the second largest on record. It seemingly is regular to get these large receipts just before the start of the poultry season.

Panicky conditions featured the day's hog trade, with prices 25@50c lower and a large number left unsold. Best offerings sold below the $13 mark, standing practically $11 lower than high time last year, with only one day lower since January, 1917. Competition was lacking in the hog market, as shipping orders were curtailed owing to relatively lower prices at outside points, especially in the east. There was an early top here of $12.85, with equally as good later at $12.70. The day's average price was $12.45.

Sheep and lambs closed steady to 25c lower, with the packer top for lambs at $12.25. Feeders paid as high as $12.73 for 52 lb Canadians.

AUSTRALIA TO SEEK LOAN HERE FOR FIRST TIME

New York Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Most of the day's bond business occurred in the government group, with several foreign obligations notable for firmness. City of Zurich, Switzerland, 8s, when issued, were dealt in in quite heavy amounts at a fractional price range. Most of the Liberty issues, particularly the tax exempt certificates, were reactionary. The fourth 4¼s were down about 25 cents from their opening level, while the second convertible 4¼s reacted proportionately.

Australian bankers are sounding the American market in the hope of obtaining a loan. This is the first time Australia has planned any borrowing in the United States.

Moratorium in Paraguay as Leading Bank Closes

A sixty day moratorium has been declared by the congress of Paraguay as a result of the closing of the Banco Mercantil, the state department at Washington was advised yesterday in dispatches from the South American country. A financial panic has prevailed there during the last few days, the result of a run on the Banco Mercantil, one of the most important establishments in Paraguay. The suspension followed that of the Bank of Spain and Paraguay recently.

COURT REFUSES DELAY IN SALE OF D. AND R. G.

Application by stockholders of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad for a sixty day postponement of the sale of the road, set for next Saturday, to satisfy a $36,000,000 judgment in favor of the Equitable Trust company of New York, was denied yesterday by Judges W. H. Sanborn of St. Paul and R. E. Lewis of Denver in federal court at Omaha, Neb.

The opinion was followed by notice by counsel for the stockholders that an appeal would be taken to the United States Court of Appeals. This, however, will not act as a stay to the sale.

Central Power.

J. P. S., Harvard, Ill.—The Central Power company earned $145,334 net in 1919, compared with $116,015 in 1918. Interest on $1,412,900 of first mortgage bonds was covered with a good margin of safety, but total fixed charges were covered with only a moderate margin. The company has good management. The market for its bonds is narrow. We do not know the Wisconsin Electric.

Appalachian Power.

O. C. F.: The Appalachian Power company showed a large improvement in earnings last year. Net revenue was $792,810, compared with $555,197 the year previous. Interest charges and other deductions last year were $716,230. The bonds are not yet a conservative investment, but their situation is improving.

Brief Answers.

G. S. P., Janesville, Wis.—It is expected that the coupon of Jan. 1, 1921, of the Waterloo Cedar Falls and Northern railway bonds will be paid. No recent report has been issued by the Kansas City Railways.

O. K., Kankakee, Ill.—Indications are that the dividend on Booth preferred is to be stopped for a time. The company publishes annual reports only. In 1919 it earned 8 2-3 per cent on preferred stock.

D. W. C., Lincoln, Ill.—No recent information about the Standard Four Tire company is available. There is only a nominal market for the stock.

Investment Facts or Fads?

THE unsettlement caused by the war seems to have spread foibles and fads in the investment field. Too many look at the price rather than the quality—at the promised income yield rather than at the two real first essentials—safety and prompt payment of principal and interest in cash.

It is worth while pointing out once more that the first mortgage bonds, safeguarded under the Straus Plan, have behind them an unequalled record of safety—38 years without loss to any investor—and especially that the last six years of war and readjustment have tested all classes of securities as never before.

Can you afford to delay investigating the Straus Plan? We have just published a booklet telling how and why it has protected thousands of investors, with complete safety and prompt payment in cash for thirty-eight years. A copy is yours for the asking. Write or call, and specify

MANAGEMENT

In a Declining Market

it is important to hold down to a minimum the quantity of raw material on hand, to expedite its conversion into finished product, to turn inventory as quickly as possible into cash.

Firm control of these factors may be essential to make your business show a satisfactory profit in the coming year.

We are especially fitted through years of experience to be of service in establishing methods which will assure effective control.

Permit us to send you a statement of our methods of work, experience, and clientele.

WHEAT STRONG; HUGE EUROPEAN NEEDS REPORTED

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Wheat showed a strong undertone from the start yesterday, and the market acted more in accord with the news. There was less disposition to look at general business conditions and a tendency to pay more attention to legitimate market influences.

While the best prices were not maintained, due to profit taking, net gains on wheat were 2½@3½c. Corn closed ⅛c lower to ⅝c higher, and oats were ⅛@⅝c higher. Rye gained 1¼c and barley was unchanged.

A move to have the government release the large amounts of German money held under the alien enemy act is said to have the approval of the president and the secretary of the treasury. Messages from New York estimated as high as $800,000,000 was held and that the move seemed certain of success. This, with reports that France and its colonies needed 50,000,000 bu wheat and England 24,000,000 bu before Australian and Argentine grain was available had considerable influence on sentiment, especially as Germany was reported as wanting around 50,000,000 bu more.

Mills After Wheat.

Milling demand for cash wheat shows considerable improvement coincident with a revival in the call for flour. With light stocks at terminal markets, it was generally believed it would take but little buying to tighten up the market. Mills and exporters were buyers at Kansas City. Many leading local professionals were over on the bull side during the day and are talking higher prices.

Corn and oats markets were dominated by the action of wheat. Trade was light and mainly of a local character. Prices averaged higher, but December corn turned easy toward the last and declined to 5⅛c under May, closing at a fractional loss, while other deliveries were fractionally higher. December oats gained ⅛c on the May.

November Lard Tight.

Provision interests are looking to Germany for a demand for product to help the market here. Buying has been moderate with a view of a better call later. Buying yesterday was enough to send November lard up 15c and close with a net gain of 35c. The reduction in stocks the last two weeks also helped. Cash lard was held at 20c. Distant futures were sold fairly and had poor support, the close being 17½@30c lower. Ribs were off 20c, with light trading, and pork lost 30c. Prices follow:

STRAW IS WANTED

Straw is not being shipped to market to any extent, although prices are the highest in years. It is wanted for use at the International Live Stock show opening here Nov. 27. No arrivals were reported yesterday. Rye is $17.00@19.00, oat $15.00@17.00, and wheat $15.00@17.00 per ton.

Loadings of timothy hay in the country are increasing and arrivals here were 35 cars. Demand is good, but dealers advise caution in buying in the country, as a break is due. No. 1 was $33.00@35.00, No. 2 timothy and No. 1 clover mixed, $26.00@31.00, No. 3 timothy, $25.00@28.00. Sample hay, $20.00@25.00.

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Belgium was after wheat at the seaboard. Tuesday being the day on which it makes its purchases, and sales of 500,000 to 1,000,000 bu were reported, presumably Manitobas. Export demand otherwise was slow, and there was some talk of concellations of grain by England.

Premiums on cash wheat at Chicago showed little change with No. 1 red at 30@32c and No. 1 hard at 7½@8c over December the market showed a very firm undertone. Milling demand was better with sales here of 20,000 bu. Red winter is scarce in all markets, and 5,000 bu No. 4 sold out of store here at $2.07½, or 20c over December. Premiums at Minneapolis were 1@3c higher. Outside wheat markets advanced 2@7c with St. Louis leading.

Demand for cash corn was less urgent with industries taking the mixed and white. Prices were 1½c lower on yellow and 1@2c higher on other grades. Premiums showed little change with mixed and white around 9@9½c and yellow 10½@11c over December. Receipts 63 cars including 28 cars new. Shipping sales 115,000 bu. Outside markets were unchanged to 3c higher with the supply small.

Offerings of cash oats were small and sold readily with prices unchanged to 1½c higher. Premiums were firm, No. 2 white being 4@4½c over December. Receipts 42 cars. Shipping sales 65,000 bu.

WORLD'S·GRAIN MARKET·NEWS

Traders were inclined to the bull side of wheat at the close. While the estimated requirements of Germany, France, and the British are large, some regarded them as exaggerated. There is said to be a big short interest by New Yorkers and, should they cover, a sharp advance might result. A few traders expect a weak stock market today and said it would be against a sustained bulge in wheat.

Corn futures have closed at practically the same prices for three consecutive days. This was construed as an indication of steadiness. Big selling at the last by Wagner made the late recession. Wet weather may delay the movement. In the west more corn is being bought.

A number of the largest buyers of oat futures Monday were selling quietly yesterday. The Armour Grain company was said to be a good buyer of December and seller of March wheat at 10c difference.

A New York grain exporter who has returned from a three months' trip in England, Holland, Denmark, and Germany is quoted by Russell's News Bureau as saying: "Denmark has sufficient wheat and rye for this year's needs. Holland is able to buy what wheat it needs. England is being flooded with offers of wheat from all parts of the world. Food control probably will be continued in Germany for two or three years more. That country has probably two or three months' requirements of wheat bought and has been taking it at an average of 400,000 bu per day, payment being made in marks."

Governor Elect Warren T. McCray of Indiana was on the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday. The governor farms 7,000 acres in various states and is the largest breeder of Herefords in the country. He is optimistic, although he does not look for a quick return of confidence until the new administration takes hold at Washington.

First Mortgage Eight Per Cent Sinking Fund Convertible Gold Bonds

Dated October 1, 1920 — Due October 1, 1940
Authorized $2,500,000 — Outstanding $2,250,000

Pennsylvania State tax of four mills refunded

CONVERTIBLE after October 1, 1922, or sooner if lawful, and until October 1, 1925, at the rate of 10 shares of 8% Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Company, par value $100 each, and 8 shares of Common Stock of the Company without par value, for each $1,000 principal amount of bonds.

STOCK PURCHASE PRIVILEGE: If and when conversion is made, any bondholder shall have the right to purchase 12 shares of Common Stock of the Company without par value, at a price of $12 per share, if such conversion is made on or before October 1, 1923, or at $15 per share if made thereafter and before October 1, 1925.

The following is a summary of a letter signed by Mr. R. C. Jeffcott, President of the Company:

Business—The Company is one of the largest manufacturers in the country of intermediates (the bases of dyestuffs), dyes, pharmaceutical products and other chemical products of a kindred nature. The indicated sales for the current year are in excess of $10,000,000.

Property—The main plant of the Company is located at Bound Brook, New Jersey, on 250 acres of land and consists of 57 modern buildings, largely of steel, brick and concrete construction, valued at approximately $4,500,000. Smaller plants are located in Jersey City, Woodbridge and Burlington, New Jersey.

Security—The bonds are secured by a First Mortgage on all the property of the Company.

Net assets as of July 1, 1920, after giving effect to the new financing, amounted to $7,112,873.67, or approximately $3,161 for each $1,000 bond outstanding, without giving any value whatever to good-will and the large intangible assets of a chemical business. Net quick assets amounted to $2,792,355.75, or approximately 125% of the outstanding bonds.

Earnings—Net earnings available for bond interest for the six months ended June 30, 1920, amounted to $635,262.84, or at the annual rate of $1,270,525.68, more than seven times the annual interest charges on the outstanding bonds. Earnings since the incorporation of the Company have averaged approximately three and one-half times the interest charges on the bonds.

Sinking Fund—An annual sinking fund is provided in the Trust Indenture for the retirement of the bonds not exceeding 110 and accrued interest, which it is estimated will retire the entire issue before maturity. For the purpose of this fund, 10% of the net earnings of the Company, after payment of taxes and fixed charges, will be deposited annually with the Trustee, but in no event less than $70,000 per annum.

All legal details concerning the validity of these bonds are being passed upon by Messrs. Hornblower, Miller & Garrison for the bankers, and by Messrs. Alling, Webb and Morehouse for the Company. The accounts of the Company have been audited by Messrs. Marwick, Mitchell & Company. Appraisals have been made by the American Appraisal Company and engineering and chemical reports by Messrs. Coverdale and Colpitts and by Professor Herbert R. Moody of the College of the City of New York.

Are Coppers a "Buy"?

It is down 41 points from the 1916 level, with the lowest average in recent years.

ONE OF THE MOST COMPLETE AND MODERN BOOKBINDING ESTABLISHMENTS IN AMERICA

The Ephraim Adams & Company Inc. Bookbinders of No. 287-293 Congress Street, Boston, Massachusetts—one of the most important and highest class and most honorably conducted bookbinding establishments in New England—has decided to make immediate disposal of its entire bookbinding equipment to whomsoever will bid the most at public sale and comply with the Terms and Conditions of Sale—which equipment is fully adequate to meet in detail every requirement of the modern edition bookbindery. It is a three unit bindery with a capacity of fifteen thousand valumes per day divided into the following departments:—sheet stock room—folding—pasting—tipping—sewing—stitching—wiring—guarding—smashing—cutting—trimming—forwarding—case-making—embossing—stamping—inking—casing-in—wrapping and shipping. Every machine upon the premises is individually motor operated—with slight exception. All is to be sold in lots to suit purchasers. A descriptive catalogue in full schedule and much detail may be had free from the office of the Auctioneers, where all inquiries must be made. The sale will take place upon the premises regardless of any condition of the weather on Tuesday, the 23rd day of November, 1920, commencing very promptly at half-past ten o'clock in the forenoon.

If the million and a half families in which McCall's Magazine is read all lived on a single street—a home every 25 feet—the houses would line both sides of a roadway from Boston to San Diego

The Biggest News for Women since the Sewing Machine was Invented

The sewing machine made home-sewing practical for thousands of women who had not the time or the patience to sew by hand.

Then came paper patterns, and now McCall's Magazine—a magazine which believes in really doing things for women—offers to all women, everywhere the New McCall Pattern—the pattern that is printed.

This New Pattern, with directions printed in clear black type on each piece, marks the first real innovation in the manufacture of paper patterns in over fifty years.

With the new McCall Pattern, any woman can make clothes for herself that are stylish and well-fitting. She can practice the important economy of home-dressmaking — an economy which means a greater saving today than it has ever meant before.

The women on McCall Street—the visioned street on which are 1,500,000 homes in which McCall's is read every month—know the style-authority and style-promptness of McCall Fashions.

To the women of McCall Street, and to all other women, McCall's now presents this Pattern with the Puzzle Taken Out—the pattern destined to make home-dressmaking practical in every household.

The women of McCall Street have learned that they can put their faith in McCall's—in its fiction, its fashions, its household articles, its advertisements. Their buying power is $200,000,000 a month.
